PART OF LITIGATION COMPLAINT STRICKEN OUT.—O. W. Eastman, circulator of election petitions, lost the first step in his $50,000 libel suit against the Oregon Daily Journal yesterday when Circuit Judge Stapleton granted a motion of the defense to strike numerous paragraphs from the plaintiff's complaint, which the judge held to be history of a public movement and matter about which a newspaper had a right to seek and publish information.

Eastman is suing on newspaper articles published during the summer, and expects to have 1000 candidates ready for initiation at a big ceremonial at the close of the campaign, September 1.

SUIT TO RECOVER LAND IN PROGRESS. Suit of William G. Nesmith to recover a 300-acre farm from Levi Ankeny is in progress in the federal court. Mr. Nesmith is the youngest son of the late United States Senator J. W. Nesmith. The acreage in question is the old family land in Polk county. The plaintiff conveyed the land to Mrs. Ankeny in 1898. The contention of Mr. Nesmith is that the transaction was a mortgage and not a sale, and that, being a mortgage, he has a right to redeem it. Mrs. Ankeny was a sister of Mr. Nesmith. Levi Ankeny is not in attendance at the trial, having made a deposition. He is represented by Ben C. Dey. Mr. Nesmith is represented by W. P. Lord. Among the witnesses are C. S. McArthur, congressional representative, a nephew of the plaintiff, and Louis A. McArthur.

CARS COLLIDE; 3 INJURED

TWO WOMEN AUTOISTS ARE HURLED TO PAVEMENT. Vancouver, Wash., Driver Crashes Into Beaverton Motorist on Interstate Bridge.

Three persons were injured early yesterday morning when an automobile driven by Max H. Hofer of Vancouver, Wash., ran into the machine operated by H. C. Hartwig of Beaverton on the interstate bridge, wrecking the Hartwig car and throwing two women occupants to the pavement.

Those hurt were: Mrs. H. C. Hartwig, probable internal injuries; Miss Louise H. Hartwig, 305 Halsey street, seriously bruised and possible internal injuries; and H. G. Wiedo, 805 Halsey, wrenched back.

Reports to Sheriff Hurlburt's office threw the blame for the collision on the shoulders of Hofer. The accident occurred on the side of the bridge where the Hartwig party clearly had the right of way, it was said. According to Hartwig, Hofer was "going" the road and swerved into it without warning while the Hartwig car was less than 50 feet from the bridge railing. In a statement made by Hofer following the accident he said he was reaching in his pocket for change to pay at the toll gate when the accident occurred.

Others in the Hartwig automobile were Mr. Wiedo, uncle of the girl, and H. H. Hartwig, a brother of the driver. Otto Hartwig of the state federation of labor is also a brother. H. H. Hartwig is employed by the emergency fleet corporation and lives at 490 East Lombard street. He was not hurt.

Mr. Hofer, who lives at 914 Main street, Vancouver, is an employee of Carter & Carter, drygoods store, of Vancouver.

OPERETTA SALE BEGINS

SORORITY GIRLS OF UNIVERSITY IN CHARGE OF DETAILS. 70 People in Cast, Majority of Whom Are Children of All Ages.

Tickets are now on sale at Sherman & Clay and Wiley B. Allen company for the fairy operetta, "The Forest Children," which will be presented Tuesday afternoon in the gardens of the H. C. Wortman home, 245 Vista avenue. The general ticket sale is in charge of sorority girls of the University of Oregon under the direction of Miss Doris Pittenger.

Announcement has just been made that the Miss Marie Gammie will take one of the leads. She will take the place of Miss Betty Gram, who has been suddenly called to New York to aid the national woman's party in their fight for suffrage. Others taking leading roles are Mrs. Gertrude Holmes, Mrs. Viola, Fenster Blagg, Mrs. Eleanor Osborne Buckley and George Natanson.

The rehearsal will be held Monday. Rehearsals have been held daily the past week for the training of the little dancers, who are being instructed by Miss Imogene Seton, and for the choruses. Seventy persons are appearing in the production, the majority of them children. But-terflies, bees, dryads and wild animals will lend color and interest to the operetta.

The performances are being given to provide a fund which will be a gift from the late Miss Camille Dosch and her little nephew, Fleuret, for the University of Oregon's woman's building. A tablet will be placed in the building in their memory.
