CHAUTAUQUA OFFERS "KINDLING" TODAY

Play Will Headline Oregon City's Programme.

PRESIDENT TO BE CHOSEN

Methods That Have Proved Successful in Poultry Industry Will Be Demonstrated Today.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 22 .- (Spectal.)—The Welsh singers gave an en-tertaining programme at the Chau-tauqua here this afternoon and evening, offering a variety of musical numbers and dramatic readings. The eight young women showed careful training and much ability. Judge George D. Alden delivered a stirring talk. "The Powder and the Match." treating with a number of phases of American life in a practical and humorous way.
"Kindling," the powerful drama

"Kindling," the powerful drama that had a phenomenal two-year run on Broadway, and which has met with success throughout the east, will be presented Friday night by the Maurice Browne players, a group of able actors. The play will be the outstanding dramatic event of the session and as one of the headline features it is expected to draw a large crowd.

Bond Proceedings Heid Irregular

SALEM, Or., July 22—(Special.)— Attorney-General Brown today advised O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, that the proceedings attendant to the is-suance of $100.000 bonds by the city of Heppner for a municipal water plant were incomplete and that he would not pass on the legality of the issue until the omissions were sup-plied. Mr. Hoff recently agreed to purchase these bonds from the city of Heppner in case they were found to Heppner in case they were found to
