SAN FRANCISCO, July 23 .- Senator

Hiram W. Jonnson of California declared in a statement today that Senator Harding's speech of acceptance of the republican presidential nom-ination "has made republican success certain and his election assured."

Senutor Johnson congratulated Senutor Harding upon his "firm and emphatic stand against the league of nations," and said his words would "strike an answering chord with every American." every American.'

Governor William H. Harding of Iowa, Senator Poindexter of Washington and Harry H. Merrick of Chicago, president of the Mississippi Valley association, presented what they termed a serious condition of business, industry and agriculture, which, they said, was being happered by they said, was being hampered by congestion of rail terminals, while a natural route lay idle.

Senator Poindexter, who was unable to reach Detroit for the route for the statement follows:

"Yesterday in his speech of accept-ance Senator Harding unequivocally took his stand upon the paramount issue in this campsign, the league of nations. The republican party stands committed by its platform; its stands-Governor Harding likened the Mississippi valley to a man on a desert island with a million dollars in gold. "That vast territory," he said, "the home of 60.000,000 people, producing the major part of the nation's wheat, corn and meat supplies, is practically dead to the world because it lacks adequate transportation facilities. The best and cheapest transportation facilities. The best and cheapest transportation facilities and cheapest transportation facilities and cheapest transportation facilities and will be tomorrow, to preserve this valley is connected properly in the most economical way with all parts of the world."

The strength of the nation, he device the strength of the nation, he deviced the nation of the world."

The republican part form its standard-bearer now accentuates that platform. There can be no misunder-standing his eloquent words: 'Our party niems to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unsurrendered. . .
