Rainlers Going Strong.

It does not require a course in trigonometry to figure that the Rainiers are going strong, and may break into the first division within another fortnight. Fortunately the Fortland club took a brace last week and played brilliant ball against the Seals. Cox's return to the field bolstered the club apreciably for Dick is a major-league prospect. Walter McCredie declared upon his return from Salt Lake that the Beavers might have won the scries from the Bees had Cox been in the lineup.

Vernon added to her grip on the first position by winning the odd game from Salt Lake, while at the other extreme of the percentage column Oakkand shoved Sacramento a little further into the dungeon by walloping Bill Rodgers' crew five times in seven games. Appears to be a hopeless tail-ender.

Vernon's success is due to good pitching, and a well balanced backing. Vernon ought to repeat and again win the pennant. Were baseball a sport in which the vicissitudes played a less important role one might feel justified in predicting this without reservations. But in the light of the upsets that occur in the national sport there is no such animal as a sure thing until the race is run.

Captain X had taken with him a liberal supply of Pall Mall famous cigarettes (plain ends). By the time he landed they were gone.

"Over There" he couldn't have a favorite brand. But the cigarettes he was lucky enough to get had one feature that gave him a big idea. They were round and smoked freely.

Back in America once more the Captain came and gave us his idea,—a big idea. He suggested that we make Pall Mall cigarettes round in shape, loosely rolled and plain end-a cigarette that does not have to be tapped, squeezed or loosened, a cigarette with a free and easy draught,
