CONSTABLE'S HEARING SET.—The hearing for Frank B. Lee, constable at Milwaukie, who is charged with violating the prohibition law, will be held before United States Commissioner Drake on August 12.

PARK ROSE SPEED LIMIT FIXED.—Fifteen miles an hour will be the maximum rate of speed in the Park Rose district, following action taken by the county commissioners yesterday at the request of the Park Rose men's club.

BROADWAY BANK NAMES NEW CASHIER.—Roy R. Knox of Albany has been elected cashier of the Broadway bank and took over the duties when the bank opened for business yesterday.

TRAFFIC OFFICIALS TO MEET.—For the purpose of drafting a uniform motor vehicle act to serve as a model for state legislatures, a meeting of the National Traffic Officials' association has been announced for San Francisco, August 23 to 27.

SCREEN COMPANY LOSES IN COURT.—The Prest-o-Graph company, C. W. Dibble, Marian Phillips and Ted Long, were denied by the court their right to use a single screen process for reproducing pictures and designs, the court holding that the process is an infringement on the patent of the Selectama Patents company.

CAPTAIN SOUTHWICK HERE.—Captain William D. Southwick, field man for the United States chamber of commerce, spent yesterday in Portland visiting the Portland Chamber and conferring with local officials.

VIC-E-PRESIDENT DUE FRIDAY.—Thomas Marshall, vice-president, will arrive in Portland Friday morning. According to present tentative plans, he will be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce at a noon luncheon and in the evening the democratic leaders will tender him a dinner to which democrats and the general public will be invited.

CANADIAN THISTLE BILL PLANNED.—District Attorney Evans and J. E. Stanberry, state horticultural inspector, were instructed yesterday by the county commissioners to prepare a bill for introduction at the next session of the state legislature that will give Multnomah county authority to handle the eradication of patches of Canadian thistle.

CRAW ESTATE VALUED AT $10,000.—The late Frank S. Craw, who died July 22, left real and personal property valued at approximately $10,000, according to a petition filed for probate in the Multnomah county circuit court yesterday.

HUSBAND SLASHED HER, SAYS WIFE.—Lillian M. Good charges in a complaint for decree of divorce filed yesterday in the Multnomah county court that her husband, Eugene E. Good, slashed her in one of his fits of temper across the wrist with a knife, inflicting a wound requiring several stitches. His attack was started, she said, because she asked him to assist her when they had guests for dinner.

JIMMY COY CHARGED WITH LARCENY.—Jimmy Coy was taken to Salem yesterday by A. Schirmer, deputy sheriff, to be tried for larceny of a handbag, which was found in his possession when he was arrested about midnight Sunday at the Elms Hotel, where he was rooming. The handbag was taken from a station waiting room in Salem during the Elms' convention.

WORMY FRUIT CONDEMNED.—The Multnomah county fruit inspector has condemned many shipments of early apples on account of the wormy condition, one of the worst conditions existing being in stores where customers exchange the wormy fruit for groceries.

TWO COMPANIES FILE ARTICLES.—The St. Clair Manufacturing company filed articles of incorporation yesterday in the Multnomah county court for $100,000. The business of the company will be the manufacture of machinery and boilers.

SUGAR NOT NEEDED —for the successful canning of fruits, when you use KERR jars and caps—they seal airtight. —when serving fruits canned without sugar simply add sugar as you would for fresh fruit. IF Sugar Is Scarce Can Without It

When canning without sugar use the same methods as you would canning with it. Can your fruits either in their own juice or in water and sweeten to taste when the fruit is used. Also can your fruit juices and make your jelly from time to time as you need it. This really makes better jelly—the weather is more pleasant for such work—and sugar is always cheaper in the winter. FREE A Kerr Home Canning Recipe Booklet Sent You on Request You cannot afford to be without this valuable booklet if you are going to do any canning. It contains complete information on all methods of canning and many valuable tested recipes. Send for it TODAY. KERR GLASS MANUFACTURING CO. Sand Springs, Okla. Los Angeles, Cal. Portland, Ore.

In the Public Next to Your Heart —your eyes are your business organ. Every busy organ occasionally needs attention. At the time when disintegration sets in is especially the time for quick action. Whether or not you've had the warning signal—to make sure that you are neither neglecting nor over-working your eyes (either of which starts disintegration), make it a point to stop in the first chance you have and let us thoroughly examine them. Then you'll know positively regarding "those busy eyes." COLUMBIAN OPTICAL COMPANY Floyd F. Brower, Mgr. "Any Lens Duplicated in 60 Minutes" 145 Sixth.
