

EDDIE O'CONNELL
WRESTLING CHAMPION

Multnomah Instructor Away on California Trip.

CLASS CHANGES LIKELY

Congestion at Club May Cause Forming of Department for Each Sport.

Edward J. O'Connell, for the past several years boxing and wrestling instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, will in all probability not return to the Winged M institution this fall when the winter activities are resumed.

This was the consensus of opinion among the club officials yesterday, who stated that O'Connell had left the club in June for a trip through California and that it was practically certain that he would not again take up his duties here.

Class Change Likely.
A change in the method of handling the boxing and wrestling classes to be inaugurated this winter at the Winged M club is the reason given by the club officials for the departure of the instructor. The plan now on foot is to segregate the boxing and wrestling classes and to have a man at the head of each department. It is thought that this plan did not altogether meet with the approval of O'Connell and one of the main reasons why he will not return this winter.

Owing to the congestion in the classes when handled by one instructor under the same department the club has been somewhat handicapped when it came to turning out champion grapplers and milt men and it is expected that the new plan will remedy this. More material can be developed in each department and more attention can be given to the individual promise of developing into champions.

As yet nothing has been done by the Multnomah club as to securing new instructors for the departments.

O'Connell Here 11 Years.
O'Connell has been with the local club since 1909, coming here from Yale university, where he was an instructor in boxing and wrestling after his graduation. He is well known as a wrestler, having at one time laid claim to the welterweight title.

It was through the influence of the late Edgar Frank, national amateur wrestling champion and a former member of the Multnomah club, that O'Connell was brought to the coast. While training for a national meet in the east Frank made the acquaintance of O'Connell and upon his return to Portland secured for him the position with the local club.

BARNES DROPS ONE TITLE
HUTCHINSON TAKES WESTERN OPEN GOLF HONORS.

New Champion Makes Initial Win
and Leads St. Louis Man
by Single Stroke.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Jack Hutchinson of Glenview club, Chicago, today won the open golf championship of the Western Golf association at Olympia fields with 296 strokes for 72 holes, just one stroke under the score of Barnes of St. Louis, who had the title three years.

Harry Hampton of Richmond, Va., and C. W. Hackney of Atlantic City tied with 297 strokes for the second place. William Cravay, a young Kansas City professional, was next with 298. The other prize-winners were: Eddie Leonard, Chicago, 302; George Carney of Chicago, 304; J. J. O'Brien and K. Loeffler of Pittsburgh, 306 each; Larry Layton of Chicago, 307.

Scoring was comparatively high and the play of the leaders was erratic, so that the victor was not decided until the last contestant finished. Jim Barnes, who won the title twice with a record score of 286, took 33 for the first round of the longer of the two courses used. He redeemed his changes Wednesday afternoon by setting a record of 68 for the first round and four under par. He was two over par today's first nine and came home in one under par, but was hit by six strokes behind Hutchinson, who had scored 12-73-71 for his first three rounds.

The leader fell off in the last round, making 80 for the short course, and had scarcely totaled his score when word came that Barnes was going well and needed only three pars to win. The St. Louis player reached the last tee with four strokes to lead Hutchinson, who had taken six on that hole. Barnes drove 280 yards across a creek, but the ball rolled into a wood behind a stump.

From an apparently impossible lie Barnes sent the ball to the green and had an 18-foot putt for victory. He gave the ball plenty of chance to go down, but was off the line and missed the five-foot sidehill putt for a tie.

Hutchinson, who never won a title before, gave competitors several chances to overtake him, getting into a trap on the 16th hole and taking eight strokes and trying his luck in a bush and a gully on the 18th.

Among unusual plays today was a one scored by Frank Adams of Winnie, who holed his massive shot on the 13-yard, 14th hole, and got an eagle two on the 39th yard and L. J. Montross of Kansas City holed his approach.

William Rautenbush of Chicago finished first among the amateurs with 313 strokes.

An unusually large number of veteran players became entangled with unseemly scores and failed to finish the 72 holes.

GOLF RULES CHANGED
UNIFORM CODE IS ANNOUNCED FOR BRITAIN AND U. S.

Stymie, Lost Ball, Amateurs and Professionals Are Some of Subjects Treated.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The special committee of the United States Golf association, sent abroad to confer with the rules of golf committee at St. Andrews, not only settled several points in dispute but also decided on a uniform code for both sides of the Atlantic. It was announced today.

Changes in the rules affect the stymie, the lost ball penalty, amateur and professional definitions, standard ball and other minor details. All changes take effect September 1, except the standard ball ruling, which will go into effect in May, 1921. The new rules are:

Professional definition: One who, after attaining the age of 16, has carried clubs for hire, received any consideration, either directly or indirectly for playing or for teaching golf, or articles on golf in a match or tournament, or for a money prize in any tournament. Every application for reinstatement to amateur status shall be considered on its own merits but a player may not be reinstated more than once.

Violations of the amateur rule include: Lending one's name or likeness for the advertisement or sale of any article, as a dealer, manufacturer, or inventor thereof; permitting one's name to be advertised or published for pay as the author of a book or article on golf of which one is not actually the author.

There will be the same penalty for loitering on the course as for loitering on the course. If the opponent lay the player stymie, the player may remove the opponent's ball; the opponent shall then be deemed to have holed in his next stroke. If the golfer playing within the putting green lays himself a stymie the rule does not apply.

The rule regarding the standardized ball requires that the weight of the ball shall not be greater than 1.62 ounce, diameter not less than 1.62 inches in diameter.
