

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

City Editor Main 7070, 550-55
 Sunday Editor Main 7070, 550-55
 Advertising Main 7070, 550-55
 Superintendent of Bldg. Main 7070, 550-55

AMUSEMENTS.
THELIEG (Broadway at Taylor)—Chester Conklin company. This afternoon and tonight.
HIPPODROME (Broadway at Yamhill)—Vaudeville and variety. 2 to 5 P. M. 6:45 to 11 P. M. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays continuous. 1:15 to 3 P. M. PANTAGLOS (Broadway at Alder)—Vaudeville. Three shows daily, 2:30, 7 and 9:30.
COUNCIL CHIEF—Free amusement park. Take "CC" cars, Morrison or Washington streets.
TICK OAKS—Campbell's American Band in concert, free admission until 5 P. M., except Sundays and holidays.
COLUMBIA BEACH—Children free. Bathing and amusements.

OREGONIAN AT RESORTS.

Subscribe with the following agents, at four summer resorts, to secure the most prompt delivery of The Oregonian. City rates. Subscriptions by mail are payable in advance.

Bay City, Or. W. A. Sippell
 Bay View, Or. F. D. Mitchell
 Brighton, Or. W. A. Sippell
 Carson, Wash. C. B. Smith
 Cascade, Or. G. D. Smith
 Ecola, Or. G. D. Smith
 Garibaldi, Or. D. C. Ellis & J. L. Kilder
 Gearhart, Or. W. A. Sippell
 Long Beach, Wash. W. A. Sippell
 Manzanita, Or. W. A. Sippell
 Manzanita Beach, Or. S. P. Brown
 Nehalem, Or. D. C. Perigo
 Newport, Or. D. C. Perigo
 Ocean Park, Wash. Emma S. Campbell
 Pacific Beach, Wash. F. D. Mitchell
 Pacific City, Or. F. D. Mitchell
 Rockaway, Or. C. W. Alward
 Seaside, Or. C. W. Alward
 Shipyard's Hot Springs, Wash. F. D. Mitchell

BANKER ACCEPTS INVITATION—Invitation to become a member of the national committee in charge of the future Unitarian religious, educational and financial campaigns has been accepted by Mr. E. H. Miller, president of the First National bank of Portland. The invitation to the board was issued by former President Taft, who is honorary chairman of the committee. Other members of the board are: Ernest G. Adams of Boston, as active chairman; Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard university; former Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts; Morton D. Hull, Chicago; Jessie H. Metcalf, Providence; Charles H. Strong, New York; and Edwin S. Webster, Boston.

DISTRICT FISCAL AGENT RESIGNS—H. I. Loving, district fiscal agent for the local office of the United States forest service, has tendered his resignation in order that he may take up credit work and auditing for the C. J. Mathis company. He has been in government work for 29 years. A. H. Cousins, who was with the Portland office up to three years ago, succeeded him in the forest service. The latter has been purchasing agent and property assistant at Ogden, but will arrive about the middle of the month to take up his new assignment.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES TO PICNIC—Several hundred employees of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. will attend the first annual picnic to be held at Bonnellville park, near Bonnellville, on Sunday, August 8. The first special train will leave the Union station at 8 A. M. and the second train will leave the Albina station at 8:15 A. M. The train leaving the Albina station will go by way of the Troutdale cutoff. The trains will leave Bonnellville at 1:30 P. M. and return at 5:30 and 6 P. M. Special trains also will be operated to Bonnellville from The Dalles and Hood River.

HAULING OF LOGS NOT PERMITTED—Many county roads are not strong enough to stand the strain of log hauling and a bill has been introduced to prohibit the hauling of logs over certain of the public highways. The bill was introduced yesterday at the meeting of the county commissioners. Permission for hauling logs has been refused by George B. Cropp on these grounds and Mr. Eichel announced that the skyline and Germantown road might be closed soon to such traffic.

ALLEGED MOONSHINERS' BAIL FIXED—Bail bonds of $1000 were fixed for Mike Basch and Bob Uren, alleged moonshiners, yesterday by United States Commissioner Drake. These men were arrested Wednesday night at Newberg when federal prohibition agents seized what is declared to have been the largest still ever found in the state, capable of distilling 100 gallons of moonshine liquor a day. Preliminary hearing was set for August 25.

LEGION AUXILIARY CALLS MEETING—The American Legion auxiliary will meet this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the Hotel Portland to plan for the entertainment of Mrs. E. D. Oiler, wife of the commander of the American Legion. All who have choice flowers are requested to take them to the meeting. Mrs. W. A. Rivera, president, has called upon her members to meet at this time.

ODDPELOWS AND REBEKAH PICNIC—Last Sunday was the letter day of Villa Lodge, No. 124, L. O. O. F. and Orpha Rebekah lodge No. 81, with a basket picnic at Sauer's park. About 145 were present and a very enjoyable time spent by all. Both lodges are busy with many candidates and a spirit of fraternalism pervades all their social gatherings.

PHILANTHROPEST PORTLAND VISITOR—Mr. and Mrs. George Dwight Pratt and their daughter Caroline of Springfield, Mass., are a family party at the Multnomah hotel. Mr. Pratt, a capitalist and philanthropist, is the "father" of the civic center in Springfield. Though a world-traveler, he has never before seen the northwest.

THREATS COST JOHN CROWLEY $50—John Crowley, charged with drunk and disorderly conduct, following threats which he said to have made in an argument with Ben Moore, purser on a river steamer, was fined $50 in the municipal court yesterday. Crowley was arrested by Police Sergeant Dunn.

THIS 64th ANNIVERSARY OF THE P. S. T. V. of the American Gymnastic Union will be celebrated at Crystal Lake park, Milwaukie, Sunday, August 8. Admission to park is free. Games of all kinds, swimming, dancing, afternoon and evening. Admission to dance, ladies 25c, gentlemen 50c.—Adv.

DAIRYMAN FINED $50—Ted Schellberger, dairyman, charged with driving a motor vehicle without a license, was fined $50 on a charge of drunkenness by Acting Municipal Judge Deich. He is said to have been driving about in his automobile while intoxicated.

EXCURSION STEAMER OLYMPIAN for Cascade Locks every Sunday at 9 A. M. Taylor-st. dock. Main 8055.—Adv.

SWIMMING every afternoon and evening. Dancing every evening except Sunday and Monday. Windemuth.—Adv.

ROM-DA HAIR GROWER, positive guarantee. Shampooing, manicuring. 425 Medical bldg. Main 1946.—Adv.

MCCARTHY MAGAZINE AGENCY. W. C. and Alice McCarthy have moved to 265 Goodnough bldg.—Adv.

KRAMERSON COAL—Carbon Coal Co. mine agents. East 1188.—Adv.

DR. E. V. MORROW has returned. 338 Morgan bldg.—Adv.

COUNCIL ASSES GARBAGE BIDS—Consideration of the Portland garbage collection and disposal problems will be given at a special meeting of the city council this morning, when it is expected that bids will be called for from firms or individuals who wish to enter into contract with the city for the disposal of garbage. Linked with any garbage disposal plan must come a municipal collection system, according to city Commissioner Siglow, in charge of the municipal incinerator. It is not the desire of the city officials to spend a large sum of money for the erection of a new plant, but it is believed that some arrangement will be made for the garbage collected on a contract basis.

CHEVROLET TO BUILD—The Chevrolet Motor company will have a new home in Portland, according to plans for a new structure which have been filed with the building inspector for consideration prior to the issuance of a permit. The structure will be located at East Second, East Third and Salmon and according to the plans will cost $125,000. Plans call for a fireproof concrete structure, 200 by 100 feet in dimensions and two stories in height. Robert Farrell of the firm of Evered & Farrell will erect the building, which will be occupied by the Chevrolet Motor company under a lease.

GIRL APPEALS DRUG SENTENCE—Hazel Edwards, sentenced Tuesday by Municipal Judge Deich to the Oregon State industrial school, filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus in the Multnomah county circuit court yesterday. She was arrested last week with a group of drug addicts on the charge of breaking a state health parole. In her petition she states that her sentence was illegal, that Judge Deich did not have the power to impose upon her a three-year sentence, and that the maximum penalty for her offense was one year.

YOUTH HELD FOR EXTORTION—Louis Zahn, 15, who is said to have been attempting to secure money from N. Thani, Japanese by posing as an officer and threatening him with arrest, was held yesterday with attempt to extort money. He was arrested Thursday night by Inspector S. J. McGee, who charged him with $5000. Zahn and some companions are said to be searching the houses of the Japanese and after finding some liquor threatened to arrest him if he did not pay them.

70,000 PAST SIX MONTHS—Fred Lloyd, steamfitter, who was arrested Thursday charged with the theft of $5000 worth of goods from a warehouse of the Northern Pacific railway, pleaded guilty to simple larceny in the municipal court yesterday and was sent to jail for six months by Acting Judge Deich. Inspectors Collins and Coleman, who persuaded the arrest, said his life also stolen a case of tobacco from the Forest Grove Auto Delivery company and another case from Lang & Co.

THEFT OF $190 DRAWS 60 DAYS—John Murphy, arrested with Charles McGee and charged with robbing Nela Iver Nelson, 202 Couch street, of $190 while playing pool at 283 1/2 North second street Thursday night, was sent to jail for 60 days when he appeared in municipal court yesterday. McGee, Murphy's companion, drew a 30-day sentence. Inspectors Hellyer and McCulloch reported recovering all the stolen money but $16 which was spent for liquor.

EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD—Examinations have been called by the municipal civil service board for the position of senior gymnasium and playground director. The examination will be held Tuesday, August 10, for candidates who are over 23, beginning at 9 A. M. Examinations will be held Tuesday, August 10, for candidates who are over 23, beginning at 9 A. M. Examinations will be held Tuesday, August 10, for candidates who are over 23, beginning at 9 A. M.

WOLVES AND BEARS CAUGHT—Timber wolves and sheep-killing bears have been caught by a party of G. Ames and Harold Dobbin, trappers for the predatory animal branch of the United States biological survey, now working in the Santiam and Umatilla national forests. The wolves are a nearly extinct species in this state and are regarded as extremely destructive to deer.

DOG FOUND THROUGH THIS OREGONIAN—A story published in The Oregonian yesterday morning, of the theft of a terrier dog belonging to Mrs. G. L. Brown, 645 Ladd avenue, resulted in the dog being returned to the owner yesterday. Alfred Duquette, 5704 Forty-sixth avenue southeast, returned the dog. He said he had seen the dog hanging out in the neighborhood and had taken it in.

LOTTERY OPERATOR FINED $100—Chin Sin, Chinese, who was arrested on a charge of conducting a lottery at Fourth and Taylor streets, was fined $100 yesterday by Acting Municipal Judge Deich. Peter Bushford and Charles Johnson who were charged with visiting the place were fined $50 each. The establishment was raided by Patrolmen Meacham and Egan.

THIEF PREYS ON SPUD PATCH—Potatoes planted in the parking at the home of Eugene Willis, 653 East Ninth street south, have been the objective of some thief, according to a report he made to the police yesterday. Mr. Willis is employed in the tax department at the city house. The policeman on that beat has been asked to be on the lookout for the thief.

TRAVEL VIA AIRPLANE—Instead of taking a train to Portland yesterday, L. C. Hammond, general manager of the Hammond Lumber company of Astoria, and his wife boarded an O. W. & L. seaplane and came to town in an hour and 19 minutes. Hammond was an American ace in France during the war.

350 SIGN ERUPTED—A big sign designating the forest fire patrol headquarters has been erected over the Eastmoreland aviation field, in order to inform passersby as to the nature of the equipment there. The sign is three feet high and 24 feet long.

J. E. REYNOLDS IS VISITOR—Director of Great Northern Railroad Makes Inspection.

Jackson E. Reynolds, a director of the Great Northern railroad system and vice-president of the First National bank of New York, arrived in Portland yesterday on a special car from Seattle and devoted the afternoon to an inspection of the United railway line and spoke of the over the Spokane, Portland & Seattle.

Accompanying Mr. Reynolds on his trip to Portland and other coast points was J. H. O'Connell, general manager of the Great Northern. Louis W. Hill was a member of the party on the trip from St. Paul to Seattle, but did not come on to Portland.

Building Fund Campaign On.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—An attempt is being made to raise the $100,000 building fund for the Sacred Heart academy and gymnasium is under way. Ground for the building was broken last week and concrete foundations are now being poured.

VETERINARY MEET OF 2 STATES ENDS

W. B. Coon of Forest Grove Is Elected President.

TWO-DAY SESSION HELD

Tuberculosis in Cattle and Marketing of Veal Discussed; One Member Present From Hawaii.

W. B. Coon of Forest Grove was elected president of the Oregon Veterinary Medical association for the coming year at the afternoon session of the joint meeting of the Oregon and Washington organizations at the Imperial hotel yesterday. W. G. Morehouse of Salem was elected first vice-president and E. T. Simms of Corvallis was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

A banquet last night at the Imperial hotel, with L. C. Pelton, state veterinarian of Washington, as toastmaster, concluded the two-day conference.

Dr. Clifford Ackley, assistant state veterinarian of Washington, presented a paper on tuberculosis in cattle in yesterday morning's session. Another paper on tuberculosis was by Dr. L. C. Pelton of Washington. The afternoon was given over to a discussion of the marketing of veal, following a paper by Dr. T. O. Antlers of Seattle.

Much ground was covered in the two-day session, at which 50 members from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and one member from Hawaii were present. The feeling was general among the members that the papers presented covered the various fields in a satisfactory manner and in some instances represented the latest findings in animal husbandry. An invitation has been extended to the American Veterinary association to suggest a meeting in the northwest in the near future.

Four men from the western association who will attend the national convention at Columbus, O., August 23-24, Dr. E. E. Wagner of Pullman, Dr. B. T. Sims of the experimental station at Corvallis, W. W. Miller of the Oregon Agricultural college and H. W. Riley of La Grande.

135 DRUGGISTS EXPECTED

Oregon Pharmacological Body to Start Sessions Tuesday.

About 135 druggists from all portions of the northwest are expected here Tuesday to attend the session of the Oregon State Pharmacological association, which is to have a four-day session at the Multnomah hotel.

A number of social events have been planned for the visitors, among them a stag party at the hotel, a dance on board the Swan and an all-day picnic at the Oaks.

Senators Chamberlain and McNary and Representative McArthur have been asked to be present Wednesday to listen to a discussion of the 1-cent proprietary tax. Two interesting reports to be on the programme will be on federal investigations in connection with enforcement of the narcotic and prohibition acts.

Property Valuations Raised.

CATHLAMET, Wash., Aug. 6.—(Special.)—The county board of equalization now in session here is raising the valuation of practically every kind of property in the county. Farm land has been raised from $20 an acre to $50 and timber land has been doubled. Logged-off lands were not increased.

The school board and representatives of Puget Island grange appeared before the board and asked that the land on Puget Island be doubled in valuation as the extra money was absolutely necessary for school purposes.

His father who, in addition to the Minneapolis Tribune, was principal

Paul D. Murphy, Portland newspaper man, has inherited a fortune of more than $500,000, through the settlement of the estate of his father, W. J. Murphy, publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, who died in the fall of 1918, leaving an estate valued at approximately $500,000. Murphy was a resident of Portland for many years and had been in the city since he returned after the settlement of the estate.

Murphy is a popular member of the newspaper fraternity in Portland, having been for some time courthouse reporter for the Oregon Journal. He resigned from this position some time ago and became manager of publication work for the Oregon Taxpayers' league.

REPORTER GETS $500,000

PAUL D. MURPHY BENEFITS FROM FATHER'S WILL.

Estate of Approximately $500,000 Divided Among Widow, Sons, Daughter and University.

Paul D. Murphy, Portland newspaper man, has inherited a fortune of more than $500,000, through the settlement of the estate of his father, W. J. Murphy, publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, who died in the fall of 1918, leaving an estate valued at approximately $500,000. Murphy was a resident of Portland for many years and had been in the city since he returned after the settlement of the estate.

Murphy is a popular member of the newspaper fraternity in Portland, having been for some time courthouse reporter for the Oregon Journal. He resigned from this position some time ago and became manager of publication work for the Oregon Taxpayers' league.

His father who, in addition to the Minneapolis Tribune, was principal

Just Arrived by Express Rough Braid Straw Hats

Special at $3.45

See display at our Morrison-Street Entrance

Get Your Size Early

We are doing our best to fill the demand, but new straws are going faster than we can get them. Last week the shipment was sold out in two days.

These will go rapidly.

Ask for S. & H. Green Trading Stamps

Lion Clothing Co.

Exclusive Kuppenheimer House in Portland Fourth and Morrison

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

Just Arrived by Express Rough Braid Straw Hats

Special at $3.45

See display at our Morrison-Street Entrance

Get Your Size Early

We are doing our best to fill the demand, but new straws are going faster than we can get them. Last week the shipment was sold out in two days.

These will go rapidly.

Ask for S. & H. Green Trading Stamps

Lion Clothing Co.

Exclusive Kuppenheimer House in Portland Fourth and Morrison

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by an agreement reached by the beneficiaries and an order signed by the court whereby the widow receives one-third and the two sons, Paul D. Murphy of this city and Kingsley Murphy of Chicago, each 10 per cent, the daughter a life annuity of $12,000 and the University of Minnesota the balance.

owner of a large pulp and paper company, two water-power plants and various development companies in Minnesota, left a will in which one-third of the estate was left to his sons and daughter, and the remainder to the University of Minnesota as an endowment for a school of journalism. Settlement of the estate was arranged without a contest in court, by