TOURISTS SHUN PARK BECAUSE OF HOTEL

Crater Lake Travel Decline Hurts State, Plaint.

GOVERNMENT MAY ACT

People of Oregon Urged to Take Over Concessions; S. P. Bars Resort From Advertising.

Unless the people of Oregon take over the hotel concessions now handled by Manager Parkhurst at Crater Lake national park, and operate a hotel and transportation system which will be satisfactory to tourists generally, the tourist travel in Oregon will suffer a loss which the state can ill afford, asserts Stephen S. Mather, director of the national park bureau, who was in Portland yesterday on route to Yellowstone national park.

An event of last week was the farewell dancing party given in honor of Louis Johnk, who has returned to his home at Sabin, Minn. Those who enjoyed the evening were the Misses Erma Fredrick, Hilda Genler, Dorothy Wickum, Ethel Blasing, Dorothy Galt, and Lester Baxter of Barnesville, Minn.

Members of the Multnomah club are anticipating the dance Tuesday evening on the Blue Bird. Accommodations arranged for 1000. The committee includes Joe Riesch, Taylor C. White, Eloyd Lynch. The Blue Bird will leave the foot of Morrison street (west side) at 5:45 P. M.

An informal reception was held last Tuesday evening in the Tyrolean room at the Benson hotel, in honor of Dr. Samuel Fletcher Kerfoot and Mrs. Kerfoot of St. Paul, Minn., who were in the city for a day. Dr. Kerfoot is president of Hamline university. Those who participated in the reception were the guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Rossman of 1088 Cleveland avenue, Dr. W. Youngson, superintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist Episcopal church, and Mr. William C. Hickman, pastor of Wilbur Methodist Episcopal church, and Mrs. Hickman; Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bolderston and daughter, Constance, of 521 East 16th street; Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeGraff of 426 Magnolia street; Mrs. William E. Kloster of 1347 East Tenth street; North; Edson E. Bean of Fort Worth, Tex.; A. R. L. Man, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Miss Florence Honey of Graham. Following the banquet toasts were responded by Mr. De Graff, Dr. Youngson, Dr. Hickman, Mrs. Bolderston, Mr. St. Clair and Dr. Kerfoot.

Miss Belle Walker of New York City is here on a week's visit as the guest of Mrs. George E. Hovenden in Irvington.

Professor D. Morris Johns of the John Brown college of Sileoan Springs, Ark., is passing his vacation on the coast and was a visitor last week at the Y. M. C. A.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Roberts at Jennings Lodge was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday afternoon when their only daughter, Beesie E. Roberts, was given in marriage to James Clarence Maple, the ceremony being read by Rev. A. B. Shider in the presence of relatives.

The bride was charming in an attractive gown made on girl's lines with which was worn a picture hat of chiffon and ostrich.

On Your Eastern Trip—by the Way of Canada, of course—

Put Victoria, B. C., down as your first stop-over. You will find it one of the loveliest spots in all your travels—like a fine old place in Southern England or Northern France—plus the grandeur and inspiration of an island of the Canadian Pacific Coast.

THE BEAUTIFUL EMPRESS

A world famous Canadian Pacific Hotel. Always remembered for its garden of roses, its magnificent outlooks across the Straits of Juan de Fuca to the Olympics, its music, dancing, sports; its interesting international life.

September especially is glorious here. For information and reservations address CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTELS E. E. PENN 55 Third Street PORTLAND
