

POLES ARE MASSING TO COUNTER ATTACK

Mobilization for Stroke Against Reds Going On.

LINE IS WELL FORTIFIED

Warsaw Becomes Panic-Stricken at Reports of Rapid Advance of Enemy and Many Flee.

WARSAW, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—A concentration and re-grouping of the Polish forces for an extensive counter-stroke on the entire Warsaw front is reported by today's newspapers.

The plans are, it is said, to begin this counter-stroke at a few days' military men express the opinion that this is a propitious time to strike back in an effort to drive off the soviet forces which are endeavoring to encircle the capital.

Although Polish forces have abandoned Ostroleka they continued to occupy positions between the Narew and Bug rivers and are sufficiently strong to defend Warsaw in that direction. Along the Bug river they are retreating toward the river Lwów, east of Warsaw.

Along the Lwów river they are retreating toward the river Lwów, east of Warsaw. The stream the Poles have fortified positions along a line 30 miles from Warsaw.

The swinging movement to the north of this city is the greatest maneuver undertaken by the bolsheviks. After crossing the railway, the soviet cavalry is reported to have turned southward, being closely followed by infantry, which has marched close to the Prussian frontier.

A feeling of apprehension has spread as reports circulate that the enemy is drawing nearer and is attempting a huge encircling movement. Crowds are striving to leave the city by automobiles and a few remaining trains. The railway station is besieged by an excited throng.

Difficulties are increased by the absence of any statement from the government. Russian agents are endeavoring to look after individuals seeking to escape.

ARMISTICE MEET POSTPONED

Poles Send No Delegates Because Reds Fail to Answer Note.

WARSAW, Aug. 11.—Polish delegates have not yet for Minsk, where an armistice meeting was to have been held today, because of the failure of the soviet government to reply to the Polish note of August 5 relative to armistice and peace terms. Russian delegates, however, reached the conference post at the appointed time.

Prince Sapieha, Polish foreign minister, has sent to the bolshevik situation to determine the armistice situation. It is ascertained that the soviet government is conducting negotiations on the basis of the Polish note of August 5, a Polish delegation will be sent.

It declared that "for the crime to be committed on the Vistula we are making the conscience of the nations of the world responsible."

Poland Asks Help: "In the critical hour of its decisive struggle, Poland is looking for assistance to tell them that her fall will be due not only to overbearing might, but also to the indifference of the world as well as to the interference of a new world war with a betwixt a hundredfold greater, which free democracies of the west will have to place

Pence Held at Stake.

"Bolshevist victory on the Vistula threatens all western Europe, a new world war hangs over the world like a storm cloud. Wake up, nations of the world, stand up, right and truth calls you. You hesitate. Are you afraid of war? It will come to you as it came to us. It is on your threshold. It will be too late to save yourselves. Not only our future, but your future is at stake today on the Vistula."

Poland will ask immediate aid from the United States in its fight against the Russian soviet government, Count Casimir Lubomirski, the Polish minister, announced today.

The appeal to the state department, the minister said, will be based upon the assurance contained in the American note to Italy that the United States will insist upon maintenance of the political independence and territorial integrity of Poland.

PARIS, Aug. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French government has decided to recognize General Wrangel as head of the de facto government of South Russia. In making this announcement, the ministry of foreign affairs said this recognition implied recognition of General Wrangel as head of the de facto government of South Russia.

The foreign office was given by the foreign office for recognizing General Wrangel.

largely, it was said, upon events in Poland.

Position Held Constant.

While the United States and the allies apparently are in accord as to the future of Poland, the divergence of views as to Russia were sufficiently marked as to cause comment.

The French foreign office regards the soviet terms to Poland, which the British premier read in the house of commons last night, as only preliminary, and it is convinced that the soviet government later would exact much harsher terms.

The ministry of foreign affairs said the soviet government's anxiety with regard to General Wrangel's success was due to its knowledge that he was the most competent anti-bolshevik leader who had yet appeared.

The French believe General Wrangel shows more promise of overturning the bolshevik regime than did the Poles, General Denikin or Admiral Kolchak, and point out he is meeting with great success in turning all the Cossack tribes against the bolsheviks.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 11.—The Colorado republican state convention today designated candidates for nomination at the September primaries for United States senator and state officers and state officers. Indorsed the record of the state republican administration and republican congress and adjourned.

In the principal contest of the day Samuel D. Nicholson, Leadville and Denver banker, led in the race for United States senator over Attorney Karl C. Schuyler and former Lieutenant-Colonel Rice W. Means. All three were designated to go on the primary ballot by the following vote: Nicholson 413, Schuyler 411, Means 106.

Governor Oliver H. Shoup was opposed for renomination.

Ten per cent vote was necessary for designation.

Something of a sensation was caused when Mr. Means went to the platform to place his name in nomination. Previously Mr. Schuyler and Mr. Nicholson had been nominated.

Mr. Means declared he would not ask a friend to come before the assembly and endorse him.

"Friends have asked me why I want to be United States senator," he said. "I will tell you why. It is because overseas I got a new conception of my duties as an American citizen. I returned seeking an opportunity to serve my nation, my state and my fellowmen."

HARDING PETITION RAPPED

OLCOIT AVERSE TO ASKING FOR WESTERNER IN CABINET.

Washington Governor Makes Request of Nomine and Is Refused Assistance of Oregon Official.

SALISBURY, Or., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Governor Olcott does not approve a move which Governor Hart of Washington is attempting to initiate by petitioning Senator Wm. G. Harding, prior to the presidential election, to appoint in his cabinet a secretary of the interior from one of the republican states.

Governor Hart's move is based on the assumption that Mr. Harding will be elected. It is believed that Olcott that he has addressed a letter to Mr. Harding. He suggests that the Oregon executive petition the republican presidential candidate, Governor Olcott also is in receipt of a letter from Governor Hart, asking that he be appointed to the cabinet.

"I personally saw General Yudenitch, commander of the Russian army on the northwestern front, sign an agreement to acknowledge the independence of Estonia. It will thus be seen that both bolshevik and anti-bolshevik have expressed a willingness to see Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania free."

"The position taken by the Russian representative at the Dorpat conference, declared Russia did not object to the recent recognition of the independence of non-Russian states. And since the allies have already recognized the independence of Finland, Bessarabia and Rumania, Poland, what really valid arguments remain along lines of illegality of the dismemberment of the Russian empire?"

"The distinguished secretary of state says that the aspirations of these nations (meaning Finland, Poland and Armenia) are legitimate. Their liberation from oppressive alien rule involves no aggressions against Russia's territorial rights. Is it possible that the brilliant and accomplished head of the department of state is ignorant of the fact that the territories of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Azerbaijan and Georgia were also forcibly annexed under various Russian titles?"

"In making this proclamation through Mr. Colby, Mr. Olcott practically repudiates and frames under foot the doctrine of self-determination. Each of the Baltic and Caucasian republics represent radically different in blood, language, religion and civilization from Slavic Russia. And yet our republic stands rigidly almost alone among the nations, denies them recognition. But I repeat this note of Mr. Colby's is not the voice of America."

ENGINEERS GUESTS AT TROUT DINNER

Society Members Pay Tribute to Highway Wonders.

"AD" GIRLS SERVE TABLES

Women Prove Adepts as Waitresses and Are Applauded for Their Efforts.

Three hundred and fifty members of the American Society of Civil Engineers, their families, friends and hosts spent yesterday on the Columbia river highway. The engineers forgot their transits, blueprints and the manifold problems of the profession for the day and yielded to the spell of the Columbia and a big trout dinner served at Eagle creek under exceptional circumstances. It was the second day of the national convention in Portland and, with the major portion of their business completed, they abandoned themselves to enjoyment.

The business sessions of the order were completed Tuesday and the breaking away from their old conservative policies, as advocated mainly by the western delegations and adopted by the national body, seemed to have a deterrent effect on their pleasures.

Arthur Powell Davis of Washington, D. C., head of the United States reclamation service and president of the engineers' society, in a well-turned little extemporaneous address, pointed out the highway as a tribute to the engineering feats that were revealed as they traveled the now noted road.

The engineers were taken over the highway for an all-day trip, starting from their headquarters at the Multnomah hotel early yesterday, and they more than repaid the efforts of their hosts for the day in their admiration of the highway.

While they paid close attention to the varied obstacles that had been surmounted in the completion of this (even admitted by them, experts as they are) almost perfect section of highway, they did not lose their eyes on the pavement or the bridge all the time; the scenery of the Columbia was paid its rightful share of tribute by their abundant applause. As the boat and worst in every nook and cranny of the world.

The creek they were given a savory trout feast. State Fish Warden Clanton saw that there was an abundance of trout and a variety of trout that go to make Oregon a sportsman's paradise, and the guests of the day did full justice to the meal. From their expressions of appreciation to the fullest extent the service, and well they might, for the waitresses of the day were none other than the members of the Portland Women's Advertising club.

They will be the last scheduled day of the Portland annual session, though many of the engineers will spend more time here. Today they will put in their last day in the city, and will be on their way to the Clackamas and other points in the state, where they are craftsmen or for pleasure purposes.

Last night the male visitors were entertained with a smoker by the Portland chapter and the women of the party were the guests of the Portland hostesses at theater parties, or as they might otherwise wish. Yesterday members of the society received an invitation from the San Francisco chapter to visit their local August 17 on the return trip and listen to a specially-prepared talk by Colonel Winslow, a good "ex" as well as an "insider" of the Pacific Coast.

John Yeon, Samuel C. Lancaster and Simon Benson accompanied the party yesterday on their trip and were greatly in demand for information as to historical and other phases of the highway.

The engineers as a whole voted the trip one of the most educational from their point of view, as well as interesting from a scenic standpoint, that could be expected, and as one of them put it, "it was some satisfaction for the highway to live up to, as we had heard so many boasts in its favor."

CONCRETE MIXING DISCUSSED

Engineers Hear Address by Colonel H. C. Boyden.

Points in concrete mixing and hardening were brought out in a lecture "Recent Developments in Concrete" by Colonel H. C. Boyden of the headquarters staff of the Portland Cement Association, delivered before the Oregon branch of the American Association of Engineers at the Gilford building last night. Illustrated slides showing the charting up of the latest concrete mixtures were thrown on the screen following the lecture.

Colonel Boyden traced the development of concrete mixing from its early history, pointing out that the

WHEAT TO PACIFIC URGED

MOVEMENT TO PORTS WILL BREAK JAM, IS PLEA.

Congestion at Duluth and Minneapolis Keeps Iowa, Dakotas, Minnesota From Markets.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 11.—The necessity for a greater western movement of wheat to upper Pacific ports as the solution of the present congestion at Great Lake ports was indicated by Clyde B. Aitchison of the interstate commerce commission this afternoon.

Commissioner Aitchison was questioning representatives of grain growers and shippers from Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, who came here to ask for transportation relief from the congestion at Minneapolis and Duluth now making it impossible for farmers in those states to market their crops.

The questions asked by Mr. Aitchison disclosed a disposition on the part to urge that more of the wheat from eastern Montana and the western Dakotas be moved westward to the Columbia river and Puget sound outlets both for transportation to the orient and by way of the Panama canal to Europe.

The necessity for the immediate movement of the eastern Montana crop has been urged before the interstate commerce commission, on the grounds that a bumper crop this year, following a year of drought, has caught that section unprepared. Warehouse facilities are entirely lacking and because of a lack of this wheat transportation must be afforded without delay.

To what extent a readjustment of rail rates, if any, would be required to move the wheat from the Dakota country on the way to the north Pacific was not revealed by Mr. Aitchison. Such a plan, it is seen at once, would call for allocation by the shipping board of more ships to Portland and Puget sound.

In such a movement of wheat is seen very substantial relief to the lumber industry of Oregon and Washington which has been compelled to curtail extensively because of a lack of cars to carry timber products to the east.
