Clash in Ireland.

AIRPLANE IS ONE PRIZE

Soldier and Four of Party in Attack Killed—Four Others
Wounded Near Killarney.

DUBLIN, Aug. 15.—Four constables were fired upon at Tralee last night and two slightly wounded. At mid-night military stores and wagons at the Tralee station were burned. There was much firing by the military and police. The office of a newspaper was destroyed by fire.

Dublin castle today issued an official report that 25 prisoners in Cork prison had been on a hunger strike since August 11.

BELFAST, Aug. 15.—(By the Associated Press.) Disorders were renewed over the week end, the most serious being a fight early Saturday for possession of a military airplane, which having left Ferryway, with dispatches, was forced to land Friday night between Killarney and Tralee.

Official accounts said one soldier was killed, that four of those who attacked the plane were killed and three others wounded.

The plane had been left under a military guard. A large band of Sinn Feiners opened fire, which the soldiers returned. The battle lasted three hours before the raiders were driven off.

Another outbreak was reported from Londonderry, serious results being prevented by police intervention. Saturday night there was much indiscriminate revolver firing here and attacks on pedestrians.

Soldiers searched Sinn Feiners for arms and cleared the streets. General Alcock, who assumed command in northwest Ulster, ordered four battalions struck out as far as Sligo.

LIMERICK, Aug. 15.—There was serious street fighting and other disorders here this afternoon. Constable Anthon was shot dead but two men who were killed accidentally by a comrade.

The outbreak began with an attack on two detectives by the people's party.

CORK, Ireland, Aug. 15.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor, and 10 men arrested here yesterday night, have refused food since placed in a military barracks and have been joined in their hunger strike by other prisoners.

The lord mayor of Cork, Terence MacSwiney and other members of the corporation, according to the charges of sedition, said a statement today.

IRISH DECISION IS FORECAST
Bonar Law Expected to Make Policy Statement Today.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Andrew Bonar Law, government spokesman, is expected to make a statement on the government's Irish policy in the house of commons Monday according to a Dublin dispatch to the London Times. Hope was expressed there, added the dispatch, that it would be a message of peace, carrying with it the consent of the government of the Irish demands for self-government.

These reports emanating from Dublin were received with skepticism. There was no official confirmation of this, and the Irish government declared it knew nothing about it.

Dublin still insisted that E. Wylie, legal adviser to the lord lieutenant of Ireland, had decided to resign, but delayed comment on the information that Mr. Bonar Law would make a statement.

LEAGUE PLAN IS INDORSED
Moderate Men Write Dominion Home Rule Secretary.

DUBLIN, Aug. 15.—Henry Harrison, secretary of the Irish dominion home rule league, has received letters from moderate men throughout the country including Ulster, endorsing the league's suggestion that a conference be held to endeavor to settle the Irish problem. They come from men of all parties, including Catholic and Protestant clergymen.

Reports of reprisals by police and soldiers which it is feared will further arouse the people, are greatly exercising the moderates.

RIOT TRIED IN CHURCH
Shouts Interrupt Communion Service in New York Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Services in the Russian orthodox cathedral of St. Nicholas were interrupted today by what church authorities charged was a bolshevik attempt to precipitate a riot. Archbishop Alexander was administering communion when shouts broke out in the rear.

A police guard was stationed at the cathedral today as a result of warnings that the church sympathizers planned to break up the services. Five alleged rioters were escorted from the church by the congregation.

Abbot Patrick, who preached at the service, charged that two weeks ago the chalice at the Church of the Transfiguration was poisoned.

GEORGE IN PERIL, REPORT
Swiss Guard Premier at Lucerne. Plot Against Him Revealed.

GENEVA, Aug. 15.—A telegram from London states that Premier Lloyd George will arrive at Lucerne Wednesday but that his departure depends on the Polish situation. Owing to a report of a plot against him, Swiss authorities are taking extraordinary measures to protect him.

MATE ON WARSHIP CONFESSES GIVING POISON TO WIFE NO. 2,
BUT DECLARES NO. 1 DIED UNDER WHEELS OF TRAIN.

T. F. FLASH.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—T. F. Flash, chief pharmacist's mate on the U. S. S. Prairie, who has confessed to giving his second wife, Edna May Flash, the poison pellet which caused her death, now is under investigation concerning the death of his first wife, who, he declares, was killed under the wheels of a train. Flash has been formally charged with the poison-pill crime and his whole record has been made the subject of an investigation that is still proceeding.

In his confession to the San Diego police, Flash gave no sufficient motive for the crime except that he and Mrs. Flash quarreled because she was addicted to the use of drugs. The police suspect that Flash planned to clear the way so he would be free to pay attentions to 16-year-old Gladys Fox of San Francisco, who was found with him when he was arrested. Mrs. Flash was a former resident of Portland.

ISLAND IS PROSPEROUS
U. S. AID TO SAN DOMINGO IS SHOWN IN REPORT.

Internal Revenues Increased Annually From $700,000 to $3,500,000, Says Rear Admiral.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The military government established in San Domingo by the United States has started the island republic toward prosperity and successful self-government, according to a report to the government, Rear-Admiral Snowden made public today.

"The military government has set the country an unassailable example free from graft, giving a square deal to all and an administration above reproach," he reported.

Internal revenue collections have increased from $700,000 annually before the occupation to approximately $3,500,000 last year, with prospects of a million dollars more this year, the summary said. Certain taxes bearing heavily on the poor have been eliminated and tax on property substituted.

The floating debt has been liquidated and indications are that the $2,000,000 loan of 1918 will be paid off by 1925, more than 30 years before maturity, the report stated.

Much graft, dishonesty and inefficiency in government offices have been eliminated and the money saved has gone toward building schools, roads, public buildings, port improvements and sanitary arrangements, the report said.

CITY BECOMES HUB OF FURNITURE TRADE

Portland Acknowledged to Be Leader in Field.

DISPLAY COVERS 4 FLOORS

Large Volume of Orders Taken
During Week; Stradivari Phonograph Dealers Organize.

Perhaps in no other field of manufacture has Portland secured a permanent position of leadership than in the furniture field. Already Portland is known as the Grand Rapids of the west, and each year millions of dollars worth of products are turned out by nearly a score of factories in Portland and vicinity, to be shipped to nearly every state in the union, competing even in the eastern field with the middle-west products.

At no time in the past has Portland's furniture industry shown to greater advantage than during the week just closed, when nearly 2000 buyers were in the city to attend the eighth annual Buyers' week. Hundreds of the visitors were taken for inspection trips through factory and store houses and given glimpses of local-made furniture which readily meets the quality of the finest eastern-made goods.

Display Covers Four Floors.
A feature of last week, from the standpoint of furniture, was the furniture display covering four floors of the Morgan-Atchley building. While this event had no official connection with Buyers' week, local furniture manufacturers took part in it, and their displays of Oregon-made goods were particularly impressive.

A directory of Portland and Oregon furniture manufacturing concerns includes more than a score of flourishing plants, employing hundreds of men and bringing in hundreds of thousands of dollars every year through the sale of the products over a wide outside territory. The following list of Oregon furniture manufacturing plants is contained in the official 1920 directory of factories and furniture manufacturers and jobbers, Portland being the location of the plant unless otherwise designated:

Many Dealers on List.
Carmen Manufacturing company, Columbus Avenue and Shade company, Columbia City Furniture company, St. Helens, Columbia Mills, Inc., Doernbecher Manufacturing company, Freeland Furniture company, Great Northern Casket company, F. S. Harman & Co., Healy Bros., Heywood Bros. & Wakefield company, Kingwood Furniture company, Leach Bros. Manufacturing company, Inc., Michaelson Bros., Oregon Casket company, Oregon Table company, Pacific Phonograph Manufacturing company, Portland Stove works, The Simmons company, Tonsing Bros., R. Veal & Son, Albany, United Manufacturing company, Inc., Webster Manufacturing company, West Coast Specialty company, Willowcraft Furniture company.

Living room, dining room, bedroom, kitchen, front porch and, in fact, nearly every nook and corner of the home can be completely furnished through purchases of Oregon-made furniture, and it has become an axiom that no finer furniture can be purchased anywhere than from the Oregon factories.

Oregon editors had a taste of Oregon product Saturday at the annual meeting of the state editorial association, as a result of plans carried out by the Associated Industries of Oregon. On Saturday, A. G. Clark, manager of the association, spoke on behalf of development of the state's factories, and products donated by the following concerns were distributed to the newspaper editors and wives of editors present:

Firms Distribute Products.
Closset & Devers, Ebenecott Chemical company, Stearns Hollinshead company, Golden Rod Milling company, Albers Brothers Milling company, Blumauer-Frank Drug company, Nikk-Marr Laboratories, Dwight Edwards company, Henry Ross & Sons, Tru-Blu Biscuit company, Pacific Coast Biscuit company, Portland Flouring Mills company, Greasy Candy company, Vogan Candy company, Russell Gilbert Candy company, Hoeflers Candy company, Keer Gifford company, Dennes Food company, Adams Garment company, Henry Weinhard plant, Acme Flavoring company, Pacific Coast Syrup company, Connor & Co., Knight Packing company.

Mr. Clark, manager of the Associated Industries, arranged the Astoria home products feature as the first event of the kind following his return last week from two weeks in the mountains east of Eugene. Accompanied by his family, Clark made the trip by automobile, going about 60 miles above Eugene on the central fork of the Willamette, where a camp was established.

Home Products Abound.
Home products were abundant, the real original Oregon variety, Clark reported, and every day they had trout for at least one meal, which they had pulled out of nearby streams. The first night in camp they were awakened to find a bear foraging among their Oregon manufactured edibles. They managed to frighten the animal away, however, before he had done great damage.

Probably the next home-products feature for the Associated Industries, according to Clark, will be an Oregon

Auto Hit by Streetcar.
An automobile driven by R. W. Diller, 1230 East Salmon street, was wrecked last night when it was struck by a Streetcar on the east side of the city.

Autolst Accused of Drinking.
Richard Sipple, 34, was arrested last night by patrolman Reno and charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated. The patrolman said Sipple smashed into two automobiles parked on Oak street just east of Second street.
