POLE THRUST SAVES WARSAW FROM REDS

Key to Defenses of Capital Recovered in Offensive.

ARMY ADVANCES 50 MILES

Newspapers Assert Crisis Has Passed-Council of Ministers Post Proclamation.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Warsaw seems to be saved from the bolsheviki.

President Plisudski's armies no longer are fighting a defensive battle and the bold offensive on both wings has reached the first objectives. The has reached the first objectives. The Poles appear to be pausing before attempting to develop their success. The offensive on the left wing is being led by the French generals. Henry and Billotte, and has yielded important results. It has once more put the Poles in possession of the key to the Warsaw defenses—the fork between the Narew and Bug—while the forces advancing toward Miawa, which have reached Tsiechanoff, 12 miles south of Miawa, will force the bolsheviki marching toward force the bolsheviki marching toward Plock and Thorn to beat a hasty re-treat and reopen the direct railroad

But the maneuver on the right be tween the Vistula and Bug is more interesting from the strategic view-point, because it threatens the communications of the main bolshevik forces. The movement has gained rapid headway and driven the bol-sheviki back all along the line toward Brest-Litovsk for distances varying from 25 to 50 miles.

WARSAW, Aug. 18.—The newspapers assert today that the crisis has been passed and assure the public that Warsaw is absolutely safe. The counter-offensive of the Poles is announced in newspapers in big headlines and the council of ministers has
