BEND, Or., Aug. 20 .- (Special.) -- A conservative estimate of the popula-tion of Bend and its environs made public today when directory repre-sentatives completed their enumeration, gives a total of 6500, contrasted with the 5415 reported in the government census. In the later enumeration, a few residents just beyond the city limits are included and also woods workers in the logging camps, but all minution these the actual but eliminating these the actual population of Bend will run approximately 6000, it is stid.

Enumerators declared that Bend is undoubtedly the fastest growing town they have ever worked in.

Montana Gets Oregon Birds.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 20.—(Special.)— Between 300 and 400 spring pheasants will be shipped to Montana from the Benson pheasant farms at Silverton, according to C. A. Benson, who passed through here today enroute to Port-land. He says there is a great de-mand for the birds in all parts of the United States.
