

LEAGUERS IN OREGON TO OPEN DRIVE SOON

Some Obstacles Likely to Be Encountered.

MASS MEETING PROPOSED

Many Supposed Friends of Organization Believed to Be Strongly Opposed to League.

Active organization work of the Non-partisan league in Oregon will begin immediately following the general election this fall, according to recent decision of the national executive committee of the league as outlined in letters sent to the various Oregon branches.

Through an underground campaign of organization has been discernible in this state during the past few months through the agency of non-partisan organizers in the guise of phonograph salesmen, insurance agents, etc. in the rural districts, nothing has yet been done in the open.

In a mimeographed letter dated July 21, 1920, national headquarters of the league at San Francisco advised the Oregon branches that the purpose of the league is to bring about a state-wide mass meeting to be held in Portland or some other point which may be agreed upon with a view properly to launching the Non-partisan league work in Oregon.

Proper start important. "Our experience is that if we get the work properly launched in a state, we can do more in the following six months than we could in two years by simply going in and trying to build it up in the ordinary way."

It might be well to have a meeting of these parties and at that time arrange for a state-wide meeting for calling together every five booster leader of a community interested in getting the work started on or about November 15, or some other date upon which you may decide immediately following the general election.

If you will arrange matters as above outlined, we will guarantee you to throw the entire weight of the national organization behind the work in your state and have it fully organized for the campaign two years following.

Victory in 1920 is the goal of those who would organize the league in Oregon with what is intended to approach a whitewash campaign, beginning directly after the election. On the list of "parties interested in the Non-partisan league in the state of Oregon" appears the name of T. A. Weinke, district attorney of Gilliam county, residing in the city of Astoria.

Since that time District Attorney Weinke has followed the activities of the league closely and is vigorous in his denunciation of its practices, from banking to the control of the state supreme court by the league, "so notorious that it is considered a shame and a disgrace to be named in Oregon."

Whole programme opposed. In concluding his letter, District Attorney Weinke wrote: "The peace of the people of this state should not be disturbed by your league. A law enforcement officer my duty seems clear in the premises. My property interests and those of my neighbors are opposed to your entire programme. If you win over the electorate of the state, the programme of North Dakota is to become the programme of Oregon, my home and all the land holdings and other property that I own in this state will be for sale the day after, and I shall forthwith move from the state."

I am opposed to your programme and your league. I am going to use all the power that is within me to help stop the entry of your league into this grand old state which I love most dearly. If your organizers come into Gilliam county, and while here by propaganda and untruthful statements take from the farmers their money for the purpose of building up your league in this state, and I am able to find any law on the statute books to prosecute them, I will with all the power that my position affords me go the limit with them looking toward their punishment."

Supposed Friends Named. Following is the list of names given of supposed sympathizers in Oregon. That some may be the names of those who have made curious or idle inquiry concerning the organization and are entirely out of sympathy with the league, is quite possible, in view of the position of Mr. Weinke, whose name is on the list:

back room of the grocery and interviewed them. At a late hour the police had no clue to the slayer's identity. The meager description was telephoned to every policeman on duty and a close lookout was kept for suspicious characters.

Mr. Thompson had lived in Portland for years. Seven years ago he ran a grocery store at East Forty-fourth and East Harrison streets, where he continued in business until about a year ago, when he moved to the store where he was shot. He is survived by one daughter, Mildred, aged 14 years. His wife died about a year ago.

CRISIS IN LUMBER TRADE

FREIGHT RATES ADVERSE TO EASTERN MARKETS.

Differentials Will Affect Sawmills as Cancellation of Contracts Did Ship Plants, Says Allen.

The new freight differentials will affect the average inland sawmill in much the same manner as recent cancellation of contracts affected the average marketing of west coast lumber. Robert B. Allen, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, in the weekly bulletin sent out by the association. With freight rates adverse to the eastern market, the weekly bulletin going into effect August 26, the Pacific northwest lumber industry is facing its most critical situation, he asserts.

Tidewater mills having better shipping outlets will be somewhat better off, but the great majority of mills are not in a position to ship by water. There will be no concerted shut-down, he declares. Each operator will produce lumber under the old shipping rates just as long as he can and then drop out. The statement continues:

Mills reporting to the West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending August 16 reported a total volume of new business, including 54,000,000 feet for delivery by rail; 12,987,478 feet for delivery, and 2,123,375 for local delivery. New business was 8 per cent. less than production, which at 74,500,520 feet was 16 per cent. below normal. Shipments totaled 59,223,748 feet, which, with continued heavy water shipments, was 12 per cent. below new business.

SHOW HOME COST FIXED

$341,499 SPENT BUILDING LIVESTOCK BUILDING.

Details of Construction Expenses for International Exhibition-Partners Are Announced.

It cost the Pacific International Livestock Exposition company an aggregate of $341,499 to construct the mammoth exposition building in North Portland used last year for the first time as the home of Portland's big gypsy show. Details of construction costs have been just announced in a report issued by Frank Robertson, treasurer of the company, to all stockholders. There remains an indebtedness on the building of $84,000, the report shows. Most of the cost was met by the sale of stock, which was widely distributed over Oregon and western Washington. Treasurer Robertson's statement shows that extra cost required for first show, entailed an expenditure of $17,306.80, which is included in the total cost of the pavilion. The general contractors received a fee of $20,000 and the architect a fee of $18,000. The latter amount, however, $4500 was donated and a like amount was accepted in stock of the company.

GYPSIES ROB POSTOFFICE

$35 Taken From Cash Drawer by Women.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The postoffice at Ethel, 16 miles southeast of Chehalis, was robbed of $35 late yesterday by gypsy women traveling through toward Portland.

While Postmaster Lindeman was outside the women entered the building and went through the cash till. Later last night they were overtaken at Kalama. This is the same gypsy caravan that has been pilfering at various Pacific northwest points the last month traveling by automobile. S. & H. green stamps for cash. Holman Fuel Co. GOVERNOR SAYS HE WAS GOING TO SPEAK FROM SAME PLATFORM

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 20.—Regret over his opponent's announcement that he probably will not make an address at the Ohio state fair, August 21 was expressed today by Governor Cox.

COX REGRETS PLAN CHANGE

"I am very sorry Senator Harding is not going to speak," the governor said, "as I already have spent more than an hour preparing my speech which I hoped to deliver from the same platform. I had expected to request that I be permitted to speak first, granting that courtesy to the senator of being permitted to answer me."
