ORPHEUM OPENS AUG. 29

GENERAL SALE OF SEATS TO BEGIN TOMORROW.

Inaugural Programme, Headed by Emma Haig, Danseuse Direct From Broadway.

The Orpheum box office will open tomorrow morning for the general sale of a revolutionary show of the season which will be staged at the Hellig, Sunday matinee, August 29.
Milroy A. Anderson, treasurer, and Miss Bessie Seymour, his assistant, have been engaged for the past week in filling season reservations, and with the opening of the box office tomorrow these will be ready for the Orpheum's clientele.
Mr. Anderson says indications are that the Orpheum's business will be greater than ever, the night reservations already showing a large increase and the week-day matinee reservations being far more numerous than those of past seasons.
Emma Haig, danseuse, recruited recently from Broadway for an Orpheum tour, is the first headliner of the season. Assisted by Richard W. Klene, she is offering "Martime," an elaborate dance production which won high praise in its New York premiere.
The other features of the opening show are Jack Trainer and company in "Help," a comedy playlet of business life written by Jack Lait; and Bob Cronin and Frank Nelson, "Home-Run Hitters in the Game of Song." The entire opening bill has been accepted in other cities and is being Orpheum standard; five of the acts are brand new and several register pronounced hits.
The Orpheum will operate at the Hellig next season under the same schedule that has prevailed for the past four years. Night shows will be presented Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with matinee Sunday, Monday and Wednesday. Occasionally, when the Hellig theater is not engaged, the Orpheum show will be held over for a performance Wednesday night.

BOYS STEAL FROM COAT

Fuel Man Reports Theft of $11.
Residence Is Entered.

Jeff Miller, 1333 East Eighteenth street north, employed at the Albina Fuel company, reported to the police yesterday that some boys had stolen $11 from his coat pocket while he was at work. He said that another man working at the fuel plant had lost $27.
Inspectors Collins and Schulpus are making an investigation.
G. W. Bert, 399 East Burnside street, reported to the police yesterday that burglars, who took a purse containing $10 and a quantity of jewelry, entered his home in time to save the breakfast room window. Some blood about the place indicated that the burglar had cut his hand while opening the place.

Friday Holiday at Centralia.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Aug. 20.—(Special).—Mayor T. C. Rogers today issued a proclamation declaring a half holiday in Centralia next Friday, Aug.
27, Centralia-Chehalis day at the southwest Washington fair. Local business houses will close at noon. A similar proclamation has been issued by Mayor W. A. Westover of Chehalis.

Information received from the department of agriculture in Washington, D. C., yesterday, that a dozen bottles of pills labeled "Dr.
Chase's Nerve Pills," by Assistant District Attorney Fiegel yesterday.
According to the bottles the pills will cure a large number of diseases including hysteria, epilepsy, insanity and dementia. When the telegram received from Washington states that there are no ingredients to take possession of everything at the agency of the Washington Liquid Gas company. Mr. Dahm was cut about the chest, neck and face and glass entered his right eye. He was in the hospital for several days after the accident.

ployed in a shop of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company contractor yesterday for damages of $18 due to injuries to his foot when a heavy rail fell upon it July 10, 1920, a judgment was rendered by the railway company.

RABBIT FIGHT PLANNED

Preparations Made for Offensive in Eastern Oregon.

Preparations are now being made for poison campaigns to be carried on all over eastern Oregon against the rabbit pest. The Oregon biological survey, under the direction of H. C. Houder, is conducting a campaign to exterminate the pest. The United States biological survey, under the direction of H. C. Houder, is conducting a campaign to exterminate the pest. The Oregon biolog-

SAVED $100 A LOT ON PAVING.

Property owners on East 7th street, between Alinsworth avenue and Holman street saved $100 per lot on a paving job by having it done by the municipal paving plant. According to figures given out yesterday by the municipal department of public works, the original bid of contractors for the job was $1597.72. The bid of the paving plant was $695.1, and the work was let to the plant.
The actual cost of the job was $554.35, or a saving of $100 per lot over the cost that would have been had the contract been let to a contractor.

MAZAMA'S TRIP ANNOUNCED.

For their regular weekly trip the Mazama will go to Willamette, the main party leaving First and Alder street station on the Oregon City car at 6 P. M. today. Going to Oregon City they will cross the river and take a car on the west side for Willamette, near where the camp will be located. Parties desiring to go out tomorrow may go at any time during the day, as the trail will be marked from Willamette. A trip along the river bank will be made tomorrow and many of the party plan to swim in the Willamette.

MORE ROAD SIGNS NEEDED.

Letters were mailed yesterday by the state chamber of commerce to boards of county commissioners throughout Oregon, reminding them that complaints as to lack of road signs should be attended to. The communication explains the law requiring maintenance of signs and providing that they shall be paid for out of state highway funds. Numerous organizations have recently called attention to the lack of signboards and the hardship this works on tourists.

Commissioner Cuts Vacation Short.

In order that the city council might have a sufficient number of members on hand to transact several important matters, Commissioner Barbur came to the city yesterday from his vacation at Seaside and remained for a council meeting of about two hours.
The matters handled included proceedings on several street improvement and several emergency ordinances requiring attention. With both Commissioner Mann and Commissioner Barbur out of the city at the regular meeting on Wednesday there were not enough members present to transact anything other than routine matters.

Elks Frolic at Beach.

Several thousand Elks, their families and friends from the Washington state convention at Vancouver waited their annual frolic and outing at Columbia beach yesterday. The programme of athletics and swimming was interspered with "stunts." The park was turned over to the lodgemen and they had a picnic on the beach. The boardwalk to each end of the mile-long beach. The girls who were to have put on a living exhibition failed to arrive, causing the only change in the programme. Races and other aquatic exhibitions were substituted for the living exhibition. The day of entertainment was closed with a big dance.

Harding Campaign Here Tuesday.

Edgington, secretary of the national committee of the republican party at San Francisco, will be in the city today and Wednesday of next week to confer with officers of the Harding-Coolidge club and state and county committees. The national committee was headed by George U. Piper, secretary of the club. Dover

PHILADELPHIA PASTOR GOING HOME.

Dr. Arthur F. Bishop of Philadelphia, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, who has been supplying the pulpit here since he bid farewell to the congregation and to Portland in his sermon tomorrow morning. His family will leave Monday for their home in Philadelphia. Dr. Bishop will be engaged during the fall and winter in evangelistic work in the presbytery of Philadelphia north, under the auspices of the general assembly's permanent committee on evangelism.

SIRIENE PRIZES STILL POUR IN.

Letters of praise for Portland's remarkable hospitality and entertainment during the Shrine convention continue to roll in from various Shrine temples and lodges. Nearly every mail received by Mayor Baker brings from one to a dozen such letters. Among the letters received yesterday by the mayor was one from Islam temple thanking the mayor and the citizens of the city for the heartily reception and entertainment of the Islam visitors.

CITY QUITS LEASING EQUIPMENT.

Under the provisions of an ordinance to be proposed by City Commissioner Fier, the leasing of city equipment is to be stopped unless approved by the city council. The ordinance as proposed will make it unlawful for any employe of the city to lease any machinery, equipment or other property owned by the city without obtaining the council's consent.
The ordinance is said to be aimed at the practice of some departments in letting out equipment that is needed by the city.

CITY OFFICIAL LEAVES IN CLAM DRAG.

William Adams, city treasurer, is spending his vacation with his family at Seaside. According to word received yesterday at the city hall, Mr. Adams is establishing quite a reputation as a clam digger. It being said that the city has received several more claims than any other notice at the beach resort.
