Southpaw Samuel Ross was pitching at the time. Sam relieved Kallio in the sixth with the score 4-0 in Oakland's favor. Kallio was twirling excellent ball, but Carl Spranger and Tex Wisterzil had the dropsy or writer's cramp and conspired to hand the Oaks three runs on a platter. Miller Active With Pole.

"Hack" Miller virtually won the second game in the fourth inning by knocking another theatric thump over the deep center-field fence off "Silcker" Brooks. Arlett had pre-ceded him with a homer into the leftfield bleachers, so the score after Miller's swat stood 2-0 in the Oaks' favor. Miller's double paved the way for two more runs in the sixth.

Arlett continued to pitch airtight ball and the only chance the locals had cropped up in the last half of the fourth and Umpire Ed Rankin killed that with a close decision that went
