Errors registered by "Kibby" Spranger, young Beaver shortstop, at critical times and the frequent hitting of Harold Polson's offerings by the Vernon club, gave the Tigers a 6 to 4 victory over the Beavers on the Vaughn street lot yesterday afternoon. Polson lasted into the seventh, when, after three runs had been scored, he was jerked in favor of Sam Ed Shellenbach worked on the mound for Vernon and although he allowed 11 hits, kept them fairly well

Yesterday's contest was a comedy of errors from one standpoint or an-other throughout. If some player wasn't booting the ball or trying aw-ful hard to, the umpires were coming in for a roasting. Bill Essick, manager of the Vernon team, was ban-ished from the field in the eighth inning when he disputed Byron's decision when he called High out at home, while "Goof" Glazier, Portland pitcher, was sent to the showers for the Seals in the lead. Score: razzing Byron from the bench.

Tom said: "Fred is the only heavyweight that has been able to take them on the chin for the count and then rench the pinnacle again." O'Rourke also mentioned that he had talean two new boxers under his wing for each of whom he predicts a bright future. They were Dan Lynch, an eastern middleweight, and "Kewple" Caliander, Minneapolis bantamweight.
