

BRITISH SHIPS IN GOHAM HELD UP

Pro-Irish Longshoremen Halt All Work.

COUP PROTEST TO BRITAIN

Treatment of Mannix and Cork Mayor Protested.

WOMEN INSPIRE WALKOUT

Strike Expected to Spread to Every Port in U. S.—All Schedules Are Disrupted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—Longshoremen stopped work on four big White Star liners here today in a protest against the action of the Baltic crew in allowing British authorities to take Archbishop Mannix, pro-Irish prelate, from the ship on her last trip to England and the imprisonment of the lord-mayor of Cork.

From the White Star line Irish sympathizers marched to the Cunard line piers, where they pulled out other longshoremen. Then they went to the piers of the Anchor line with a similar result.

Elated by their tie-up of virtually every British ship in New York, the 1000 longshoremen who suddenly quit work expect to spread their walkout to every port in the United States in the hope of forcing Great Britain to release from jail Terence MacSwaney, lord-mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil.

Women Inspire Walkout.
The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout and the marine firemen, water tenders and oilers who joined them, feel the same way. They are now going back to work on British ships, but said that Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the walkout. The strikers were met by the North river.

A little band of women pickets inspired the strike during the lunch hour. They stationed themselves outside the White Star pier, to wait the arrival of the Baltic from which Archbishop Mannix was removed by a British naval vessel.

The archbishop was not permitted to land in Ireland and was taken to England, and the longshoremen said they resented this.

When the Baltic docked the women held up a placard reading:
"When Mannix goes to Ireland let the Baltic leave New York," and also displayed other signs.

During the lunch hour the longshoremen who had started work on the Baltic decided not to go back and, accompanied by the women pickets, they went into the holds of the other nearby liners—the Olympic, Canopic and Celtic—where they quickly induced hundreds of other longshoremen to join the walkout.

All Schedules Disrupted.
Forming outside the White Star pier, inside of which were officials calling for police reserves, the strikers began a parade drawing hundreds of longshoremen at the docks of the Cunard, Anchor and other British lines, and leaving in its wake more than a dozen steamships with loading schedules disrupted.

Steamship officials were unable to say what they will do to maintain their schedules, nor were longshoremen union leaders, who declared the strike unauthoritative although stating that most of their men were in favor of "Irish freedom." The walkout came so suddenly and defections from working crews varied so that neither longshoremen chiefs nor steamship officials could estimate the number of men who quit.

More Trouble Expected.
The White Star liner Olympic will sail on scheduled time for Southampton tomorrow, officials said tonight. At the Cunard line office there was confidence that the Aquitania also would leave tomorrow for the same port. The Cunard line has five steamships affected by the walkout and the International Mercantile Marine company's line has four, these two companies being the heaviest sufferers.

Several British ships are scheduled to arrive tomorrow and early next week, but the longshoremen declare they will not unload them, except for mail.

Baltic Strikers Get Ovation.
A five-minute ovation greeted 100 striking members of the Baltic crew when they marched in a parade tonight during a mass meeting protesting MacSwaney's imprisonment. The gathering, which numbered nearly 4000, was addressed by Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the American commission on Irish independence, and Eamon de Valera, "president of the Irish republic."

Walsh said that 3000 more men would quit work on British shipping here in the "fight for Ireland."

"With the cold-blooded assassination of Terence MacSwaney will come about the downfall of England," said Walsh. "George will be responsible for this assassination."

Valera Lauds MacSwaney.
"MacSwaney does not want to die," said de Valera, "but he knows

Further Evidence on Charges Not Given.

NEW ENGLAND DRIVE OPENED

Nominee Promises to Keep "Rubbing Sore Spot."

SILENCE NOT UNDERSTOOD

Governor Would Have Harding Make Some Explanation of Campaign Contributions.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 27.—The attack on republican campaign contributions was renewed today by James M. Cox, in a number of addresses opening his New England campaign. That he had proved his charges in his Pittsburg address last night, of the assembling of a $15,000,000 "corruption fund" by the republicans, was asserted by Governor Cox and he also declared he would continue "rubbing that sore spot" until election day. He withheld, however, any further evidence in support of his charges.

"The first break in the republican line," Governor Cox declared in one speech here, "was the republican proposal for a separate peace with Germany."

Fund Held Biggest in World.
"The second break in the line came last night at Pittsburg," he continued. "They have been going along gathering the largest campaign fund ever known in the history of government in all the world. No one ever dreamed of getting such a sum. This year the chairman of the republican campaign committee has set to work a great force of men, state chairmen, local chairmen and workers that no designates as the 'money diggers' of the republican party."

Governor Cox stated that Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, had denied the charges of a $15,000,000 fund and declared that the fund would be only $3,000,000, while a few days later the governor said, Fred W. Upham, republican treasurer, "multiplied Mr. Hays by two and a half times by stating the fund would be $7,500,000."

Charge Is Repeated.
"In my Pittsburg speech," the candidate added, "I have demonstrated to the satisfaction of every unprejudiced man that we were justified in multiplying Mr. Upham's figures by two."

"I repeat that the republican fund—the corruption fund—will not be less than $15,000,000. We will not attempt to match their dollar for dollar."

ROW WITH NEIGHBOR RESULTS IN SLAYING

VIVIAN L. DUNTEEN, 56, IS STABBED BY W. R. ELLIOTT.

Quarrel Between Farmers on Camp Creek Near Springfield Said to Have Started Over Hogs.

SPRINGFIELD, Or., Aug. 27.—(Special.)—Vivian L. Dunteen, aged 56, farmer of Camp creek, was stabbed to death about 7 o'clock this morning during an altercation with William R. Elliott, a neighbor. The knife blade entered the heart slightly above the apex, the victim dropping dead a few minutes later.

Thomas Solten, an eyewitness to the affair, testified at the coroner's inquest that the quarrel began when Elliott started to drive his hogs from the Dunteen field, into which they had broken. Some time previous to this, it is said, Dunteen hogs had broken into Elliott's field, and Elliott had charged Dunteen with the damage. It is said that at this time Dunteen charged the same amount against Elliott.

The coroner's inquiry was held at Springfield this afternoon and the jury entered a verdict that "Dunteen came to his death in an altercation with William R. Elliott." No reasons were made.

Elliott at once gave himself up to Sheriff Stickle's. Later a warrant was issued charging Elliott with manslaughter, and he was released on $2500 bail.

Besides his widow, Dunteen leaves seven children, two sisters and four brothers.

Good Compensation Urged

"We may differ about the way to better conditions and the assurance of soul and contentment in your work, but we agree about the ends at which we aim."

"I believe railway workers ought to know the best conditions and be abundantly compensated as any wage earners in our modern activities. I am not thinking of the rail workers alone. I am thinking of the American public."

"Your service is not that of workmen in a private and competitive enterprise. No matter what old abuses prevail, no matter what crimes were once committed, capital and its issues and compensations are under government control, rates of charges are also under government regulation, and I want a continuity of service, a government guaranty, assured before the government and the people's government makes your just treatment its first concern."

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—"Governors' day" in honor of Harding's "front-porch" campaign will be celebrated at Marion, O., August 31, when it is planned to have 15 or 20 governors call on the republican nominee, it was announced at republican headquarters tonight. RAILWAY ACT FOES FACED BY HARDING

Cummins-Esch Bill Is Militantly Upheld.

APPLAUSE BURSTS FREQUENT

Many Enemies of Legislation Congratulate Nominee.

CLASS FAVOR OPPOSED

"Continuity of Service" for People Declared First Aim of Just Government.

GALLON, O., Aug. 27.—Senator Harding, facing an audience of railway employes, some of whom he recognized as hostile to his position, today militantly championed the Cummins-Esch railway act, passed by the last congress.

Deliberately but with driving force he proclaimed his stand for "a just government for all the people, not a government yielding to class," and declared his faith in a governmental policy that would not only insure to railway men the best of treatment and compensation, but would also give to the people "a continuity of service."

"Some of you do not approve," he said, plunging a pointing forefinger at those nearest him. "Some of you wish the Plumb plan. Let me look you in the face and let me tell you I think the Cummins-Esch act is the expression of the conscience of a congress which sought to give highest service to the country."

Harding Is Congratulated.
"Some day, maybe not this year, our railway workers will hail that law as the greatest forward step in all the history of railway legislation."

The nominee's declarations started frequent bursts of hand-clapping and cheer he was congratulated by many railway men.

Making his second address away from Marion, Senator Harding spoke at a park where employes of the Erie system were in the midst of an athletic field day. When he arrived he was escorted to a luncheon tent, where he stood in line to receive a meal of beef and boiled potatoes on a tin plate.

"Hail to the Chief" was thundered out by a band alongside the mess tent and a few minutes later the "Star-Spangled Banner" arrested his progress as he started to carry his food to a picnic table in a mud-carpeted tent.

"I am glad to make a campaign speech to you," he said. "I am making no appeal in this campaign that I will not be willing to have tested by the standards that good competitive sport has set up in all ages and among all fair men. We have had too much encouragement from Washington itself to the man who would make a second base, or get something for nothing."

"Let me tell you things which I have at heart about the railroad men. No matter what anyone tells you, no matter how erroneous impressions are, no thoughtful business or private life, no earnest man in public life is without a deep concern for the good fortunes of every railway worker, in the shop, in the yards, or office or on the track, or on the trains—every man in the service."

Good Compensation Urged.

BELGIAN CROWD BOOS ANTHEM OF BRITISH

TWO PLAYERS DISQUALIFIED, ENGLAND WINS AT POLO.

Representatives of All Nations Called Over "National Insult" and Apology Is Promised.

ANTWERP, Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—The "booting" of the British national anthem at the conclusion of today's water polo match, in which England won a closely-fought game from the Belgian team, resulted in the British representatives calling a meeting of the representatives of all nations competing in the Olympiad tonight. A protest was made over what was termed a "national insult" and it brought a promise of the publication in tomorrow's official programme and in the Antwerp newspapers of an apology, which will be made on behalf of the Belgian Olympic committee. The American representatives attended the meeting.

The incident occurred at the conclusion of the gala day of the swimming competitions. The Belgian princess, Marie Josie, occupied the royal box. The British Black Watch military band played.

The feelings of the spectators were manifested early in the water polo contest, when each adverse decision against the Belgian team by the Swedish referee occasioned prolonged booing from the Belgian supporters. This was heightened when two Belgian players and one Englishman were disqualified for fouling.

The princess was leaving the royal box just as the Union Jack, proclaiming the English victory, was being run up and the band was playing "God Save the King." Those who saw the princess continued their cheering, but a majority of the thousands present, ignoring the attempt of the Belgian officials to quiet the demonstration, boomed and blatted even after the band had finished.

SULTAN MUST LEAD MEN

Dissolution of Empire, It Is Reported, Will Follow Refusal to Act.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—Sultan Mohammed VI must personally lead Turkish troops against the Turkish nationalists in Anatolia, to prevent dissolution of the empire, it has been decided at a special cabinet meeting.

The allies apparently are willing to permit organization of a Turkish force to co-operate with the Greeks in attacking Mustafa Kemal's army, under conditions guaranteeing them against desertions to the nationalists.

Mustapha Kemal, according to reports has taken the supreme court of the nation into government. Mustafa Kemal to Slevia, where preparations are being made to receive the government, should impending military movements threaten the former city.

All Contributions $1000.
Republicans call attention to the fact that the charge of sinister influences falls down completely in view of the fact that the contributions are limited to $1000 each and that whatever money is being raised is a mass levy to be used in saving the government from the continuation of an administration that has wasted billions.

Chairman Hays of the republican committee, who ought to know better than anybody else, positively denies the charge made by Governor Cox. The situation so remains that the republicans will continue to support the democratic candidate for president.

What has created a greater sensation than the charge itself was the fact that Governor Cox made it. The most intense indignation is felt by republican leaders over the governor's charge that contributors to the republican campaign fund are seeking to control the federal reserve board and continue profiteering and put the bayonet to the breast of labor.

This wild and baseless statement, republicans say, is of a character to send in contributing, however slightly, to the republican campaign fund to prevent the possible calamity involved in the occupancy of the White House by a man who would make so reckless a statement.

Chairman Hays of the republican committee, who ought to know better than anybody else, positively denies the charge made by Governor Cox. The situation so remains that the republicans will continue to support the democratic candidate for president.
