Rain cancelled the Portland-Vernor game here yesterday. A double-head-er will be played this afternoon and tomorrow, weather permitting, on the Vaughn street grounds.

After dropping two games in a row the Boavers came to life Thursday and socked their way to victory over the Tigers, thanks mainly to the timely stickwork of Biff Schaller, who registered his eleventh home run of Outfielder Frank Gatewood, who has been purchased from Spokane by the McCredles, has been dabbling in the semi-pro ranks for several years. Gatewood has been playing sensation-al ball for Cliff Blankenship's Indians this season and hitting and fielding in coast league style.

It was reported that the McCredies doled out 1500 iron men for Gatewood, so he must be good.
