The young aristocrat has really accepted the nomination only as an amusement, but, fired by a transforming love, he puts up a great fight and throws fear into the hearts of the bosses, who try all sorts of strategy to get him to withdraw. Finally, they try to "frame" him and involve him in a manufactured scandal, and it is then that he shows the great qualities

a manufactured scandal, and it is then that he shows the great qualities which heretofore were latent in him. Robert Eilis directed "The Figure-head," which includes some of the most pretentious settings and colorful mob scenes ever planned in motion pictures. A cast remarkable for its general excellence supports Mr. O'Brien, some of its members being Anna Q. Nilsson, Ora Carewe, Edwin Stevens, Joseph Girard, Frances Parks and Kate Price. The company includes 400 persons. 400 persons.
