AVIATION PARTY LATEST

Hangers Scene of Newest Thing in Social Events. An aviation party is the newest thing in social events. One was given yesterday at the hangars of the Oregon Washington & Idaho Airplane company by Mrs. L. Aronson for officers of the Motor Corps of Oregon, who during war time lent their planes and service for carrying soldiers. The Red Cross motor corps girls also were invited.

In mid-afternoon Mrs. Aronson and Victor Vernon, manager of the company, flew over St. Vincent's hospital and dropped flowers for the convalescent overseas veterans there.

A floral piece also was arranged for Mrs. Owen Blazer, Jr., member of the motor corps who is ill at the hospital. After the flying programme lunch baskets were distributed and picnic supper was served, dancing followed.
