Democrats Were in Meeting in Chicago Last Summer, Governor Explains.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- While spending Sunday here on his western tour, Governor Cox interested himself in the schate committee investigation of republican campaign funds and this ings of Nez Perce Indians on the the conservative wing of the local evening gave out a statement intended to furnish the committee with leads to substantiate his charge that a $15,000,000 fund is being raised by the republican committee to "buy the

In his statement Governor Cox charged that attempts had been made to levy a quota of $80,000 on Chicago coal dealers and suggested the names of persons whom the committee might call to substantiate his charge.

"Inasmuch as I could not stay to furnish the information," the gover-nor said, "I thought I would leave a few leads for the committee." The governor's statement was in the form of a question directed to Will H. Hays in which he asks Mr. Hays whether he knows anything of a
