Miske, sitting in his corner being revived after the knockout, made this statement: "Dempsey is a better man than I am. That fellow hits too hard. The punch that floored me in the second round all but caved in my ribs. I never was hit so hard in my life. The blow took all of the steam out of me and I had not recovered from its effects when the third round opened. I think Dempsey is unbeatable. There isn't a heavyweight living that can confident were Miske's St. Paul backers that they bet freely. Dempsey apparently was in as per-fect condition as on the Fourth of July at Toledo last year. Miske like-wise was in excellent form. His friends pointed out that he is the only man who ever fought Dempsey ten rounds without being knocked off his feet. Both men in age, weight, height and reach were fairly well matched. Dempsey is 26 years old and Miske 27. Dempsey is six feet one and a quarter inches tall and the chal-lenger a quarter of an inch less; the champion has a reach of 73 inches as compared to Miske's 77. They have met twice before, fighting ten rounds at St. Paul on May 3, 1918, to no decision, and six rounds at Fhiladeiphia on Nevember 28 of the same year with the same result. Floyd Fitzsimmons, promoter of today's fight, said 65 per cent of the 18,000 arena seats were sold yester-day. With all seats sold Fitzsim-mons said the fight receipts would approximate $175,000 to $200,000. Dempsey has a guarantee of 50 per cenf of the receipts if they are enough to exceed his $50,000 cut, and Miske 25 per cent. Thousands of fight fans began
