TLL GIVE IT UP.

I have tried and tried to write an attractive ad like some I have seen in the papers, but concluded that is a business by itself, for an ad writer, not a sawmill man, so I'll just try to say what I want everybody to know about that tract of nearly 1000 acres of logged off land of mine.

DIFFERENT EXCEPT IN PRICE from the ordinary logged off land off land of mine.

DIFFERENT EXCEPT IN PRICE from the ordinary logged off land proposition that comes to your notice, because it is really a ranch, with fences, about 50 acres cultivated land, orchard, barns and houses, with water piped to them, pond for trout culture, water power for electric lights; close to school, high school, good roads, only two miles to highway, railway and Columbia river; good bottom bench land, deep soil, no rock, plenty of water; a little over two hours ran from Portland; and say, so cheap for cush, really I must ask you to come and see me personally for I can't afford to spend the price of the ranch on this ad and there is lots more to be told about it. If inter ested drop in and see me soon as I have to go back to my mill in a few days, J. B. Laber, 705 Broadway Bldg.
No phone.
