INGRATITUDE IS COSTLY

L. H. PAQUE FINED $10 AND SENT TO JAIL FOR 10 DAYS.

Once Assessed for Speeding He Is Saved by Deputy Only Later to Be Caught by Same Man.

Two sentences from two judges for two offenses were the lot of L. H. Paque, speeder, yesterday. Ingratitude cost him ten days in the county jail and forgetfulness a fine of $10, though technically both sentences were for speeding.

Last June Paque was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Bailey for shattering state speed laws on a county highway and was fined $20 by District Judge Jones.

On his way out of the courtroom in custody of the deputy sheriff, Paque confided that he did not have $20 and would have to serve out the fine in jail if he could not round up some friends to loan him the money.

Deputy Sheriff Bailey, heedless of the tradition that officers of the law are heartless, told him to "beat it" and to show up by nightfall with the $20.

When next seen by Deputy Sheriff Bailey, Paque was "making" $40 million an hour on Sandy road Thursday morning. Arrested, he gave the name of "Frank Pierson," not recognizing his true benefactor. He was taken before Judge Jones a second time yesterday.

After reading him a lecture on ingratitude, Judge Jones re-taxed the old fine of $20 and sentenced Paque to ten days in jail.

From the courtroom of Judge Jones, Paque was taken to the courtroom of District Judge Hawkins, who was hearing speeding cases yesterday, and arraigned on the same charge. It was there he drew a fine of $10.

OREGON GIRLS FIRST

POWELL VALLEY TEAM IS WINNER AT SPOKANE.

Oldest Is 15; Two Are 14; Team Preserved 548 Quarts Foodstuffs During Summer.

Three grammar school girls from Powell Valley yesterday added more laurels to their record for canning and industrial club work when they captured first place at the interstate fair at Spokane.

News of the victory for Oregon was contained in a telegram from Miss Helen Cowgill, county club leader, who took the team with her to the fair.

The girls are champions in this state, having won first place at the Multnomah county fair last year and at the state fair. As a reward for the latter achievement they were given a summer course at O. A. C. and have since given demonstrations at Sylvan school, Corvallis, in a hardware store at Greesham and last week at Cascade Locks before a large canning club.

Members of the group are Millie Nelson, Amy Gustafson and Etta Anderson, the oldest 15 and the other two 14 years. They are of Swedish parentage and have worked under difficulties, as they are from large families and have shouldered much of the labor on the farm.

As a team they canned 548 quarts of foodstuffs this summer and in addition, each canned separately about 275 quarts.

This is the first time the Multnomah county has carried off the honors at Spokane, where teams are sent from Montana, Idaho and Washington, as well as Oregon.

ATOS KILL MORE PERSONS THAN WAR

126,000 Lives Snuffed Out in 19 Months in United States.

National Safety Council Extending Teachings in All Sections, Says Accident Expert.

Every 35 minutes, on the average, a life is snuffed out in the United States from automobile accidents.

During the 19 months in which this country participated in the great war nearly twice as many were killed in this country by fatal motor accidents as in modern wars as were killed on the battlefields of France.

Such were the startling statistics presented by David Van Schaack of Hartford, Conn., in an address before the Progressive Business Men's club at the regular weekly luncheon and meeting yesterday noon in the Benson hotel.

Mr. Van Schaack, later president of the council and its present member, was considerably cut down. If public sentiment can be aroused, he declared, the large proportion of the accidents, both industrial and traffic, can be eliminated and thousands of human lives saved every year.

During the 19 months this country was in the war, said the speaker, the country lost 50,150 men in Europe. During that same time 124,000 people were killed in this country as the result of accidents, largely of a preventable nature. Of this number 21,000 were children of school age. More than 80,000 were traffic accidents, practically all of which were directly traceable to the automobile.

Following Mr. Van Schaack's address the Progressive Business Men's club went on record as endorsing the work of the National Safety council.

Schools to Teach Safety. H. H. Herdman, manager of the Oregon and Columbia basin branch of the National Safety council, was called upon and told of some of the most recent accomplishments of the local branch. State Superintendent Churchill has indicated that henceforth instructions along the lines of safety will be an integral part of the class work in schools throughout the state, he said, and will make arrangements to have the teachers present instruction along this line to students in all classes. Safety instruction will also be introduced in the commercial courses at the University of Oregon and in the industrial courses at Oregon Agricultural college.

Mayor Baker acted as chairman of the day and in introducing the speaker emphasized the fact that city officials make laws not because of personal whim, but in order to protect the life and property of citizens, and that as such all laws directed to that end should have the earnest support of the public.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—Olive Thomas, motion picture actress, is lying in a critical condition at the American hospital at Neuilly, where she was taken several days ago suffering from mercurial poisoning.

DISMISSALS NOT UPHeld

TWO PATROLMEN AND HOSEMAN SUSPENDED.

Half Year Given W. I. Scott, C. F. Parker Gets One Month, and Lee Crain 60 Days.

Three city employes, two members of the police bureau and a hoseman in the fire bureau received hearings before the civil service bureau, and in each case the order of dismissal was reduced to an order of suspension.

Lee Crain, a hoseman in the fire bureau, who was discharged by Commissioner Bigelow, on a charge of answering the wrong box at a fire, and also of placing apparatus in his charge several blocks from the fire to which he had been called, was ordered suspended for two months from the date of his discharge, August 13.

W. I. Scott, another patrolman was discharged July 14 by Mayor Baker, following a hearing before the efficiency board of the police department on a charge of taking liquor from a "bootlegger" and failing to report his action to his superiors, or to turn such liquor over to the department.

Members of the civil service board did not believe that the evidence presented was conclusive, although in making the suspension it was stated that his actions were suspicious to such a degree as to warrant punishment.

C. F. Parker, another patrolman who was discharged on a charge of seizing opium and failing to make a report of his action, drew suspension for one month.

Evidence presented at the hearing yesterday indicated that Patrolman Parker had actually forgotten the seizure of the opium, and no evidence was produced to show that he had attempted to dispose of the opium.

The opium was found in Parker's locker five days after the seizure, following a report made by outside persons.

MARTIN A. CLARK APPEALS

SUPREME COURT ASKED TO DECIDE IN MURDER CASE.

Lane County Man Serving Term Following Conviction of Slaying Charles A. Taylor.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 9.—(Special)—Martin A. Clark of Lane county, who is serving an indeterminate term of from one to 15 years in the penitentiary following conviction on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the slaying of Charles A. Taylor, has appealed to the supreme court.

Clark and Com. had been friends for several years, according to the records before the supreme court and in July, 1919, went hunting some distance from their homes on the upper McKenzie river. Taylor was shot and killed while on the trip, with the result that Clark was afterward arrested and indicted in the Lane county courts. He was afterward tried and convicted, but Judge Skipwith set the verdict aside on the grounds that the evidence adduced at the trial did not warrant the findings of the jury.

On the second trial before Judge Skipwith, Clark again was convicted and later sentenced to a maximum term of 15 years in prison. Because of the long time intervening between the two trials, Clark has been in the prison only a few months. The most damaging testimony offered by the state in the case was the fact that the bullet found in Taylor's body was the same as those found in Clark's gun, which was an exhibit in the trial.
