

COX IS CALLED ON TO RETRACT CHARGE

Senator Edge Says Probe Is Not Worth Time Taken.

NONE OF ITEMS PROVED

New Jersey Senator Quits Hearing Because He Thinks Committee Is Wasting Time.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—(Special.)—Governor Cox owes it to the American people to withdraw his extravagant statements of stand convicted of descending to the most despicable type of professional politics imaginable.

This is the language of Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey, member of the senate subcommittee to investigate the campaign funds.

Senator Edge declared Cox's charges have had more consideration already than they warrant and that the committee is "simply becoming the vehicle for all types of insincere political charges and rumors for partisan effect."

Edge Quits Hearing. Convinced that the Cox allegations are unfounded and simply intended to distract the public mind from the real issue, Senator Edge has left Chicago for his seat.

He turned his proxy over to Senator Kenyon. His statement, which is in accord with a widespread feeling among nearly all those who have heard the testimony, that Cox is simply trying to raise a cloud of dust and make the public forget he is tied to Wilson and Wilsonian hand and foot is as follows:

"After eight days of probing, including a severe cross-examination by experienced and able lawyers, members of the committee, of numerous witnesses suggested by Senator Edge or his representatives endeavoring to prove the democratic committee's charges of 'insincere political charges and rumors for partisan effect.'"

"I recognize other responsibilities of the committee and will gladly give my time in an endeavor to carry them out. But in my opinion Mr. Cox had had more consideration than his irresponsible charges warrant. We have almost ignored the finances of the other side and have not been made an object of abuse by its party opponent."

Cox Belittles Witnesses. "It makes no difference what witnesses testify before this committee under oath. If such testimony displeases Mr. Cox he at once proceeds to vilify the witness and to tell the truth but himself. His own chairman, Mr. White, frankly admitted his lack of knowledge of his facts to warrant the charges."

"I don't doubt both parties, through their various organizations, are endeavoring to raise large sums with which to carry on their campaign. The fact, all the testimony goes to prove it, although to date the republican treasurer testifies that since the convention he has only collected $12,000 of the contemplated $300,000 budget."

Democrats Have No Limit. "The admission under oath of Mr. Jamieson, finance director of the democratic party, that he had endeavored to raise $1,000,000 contributors, including federal employees, to that fund but failed, and varying quotas that had been referred to republican efforts demonstrate the activity. Then Mr. Marsh, the democratic treasurer, admitted that he had endeavored to raise $1,000,000 contributors to the democratic party and that the recent appointment of Mr. Gerard to organize democratic finances speaks for itself."

"The only difference seems to be the determination of the republican committee to raise individual contributors to $1000, while with the democrats they admit that there is no such limit. "So far as sinister influences" existing, which after all is the main concern, that to date has been an unwarranted inference, certainly not appearing in the evidence, I do not believe any fair-minded democrat would say differently. Big business men have and undoubtedly will contribute to both funds, but without evidence secured, to assume such conclusions are the province of a 'minister' in an insult to intelligence."

Charge Should Be Withdrawn. "The committee has subpoenaed and heard as far as time has permitted from Mr. Cox and his representative, starting with Mr. Hays and on down the list with the same result—categorical denial of the serious charges. The disposition on the part of Mr. Cox's representatives seems to be to confine to their committee's activities to this one phase of our responsibilities. Of course, we could continue until November. Intending to these witnesses. Certainly the committee was not appointed to follow alone the vagaries of Mr. Cox's campaign harangues."

"We have called his own witnesses, democratic members of the committee have severely cross-examined them, and not a sinister charge has been substantiated. Governor Cox owes it to the American people to withdraw his extravagant statement or stand convicted of descending to the most despicable type of professional politics imaginable."

"In my judgment the committee's activities will serve a beneficial purpose—lead to better party politics—over-extravagant financial campaign within either party, and that is my understanding of the real reason for its existence."

Cox Prophecy of 1916 Has Queer Ring Now. "He Kept Us Out of War" Slogan of Four Years Ago Recalled.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU. Washington, Sept. 10.—Whatever they may think of Governor Cox's democratic presidential nomination, republicans have to concede that as a political prophecy it had a striking average of 300 in 1916. This is all based on one prophecy, but the one is enough.

Early in the campaign of 1916 Governor Cox was a visitor in Washing-

Bourbons Favoring Moving to New York; Republicans Want to Meet in Pittsburgh.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Investigation of the republican campaign to raise funds in Chicago tomorrow will complete the Chicago hearing of the senatorial committee's inquiry into the charges Governor Cox made that republicans were seeking to corrupt the electorate by soliciting $15,000,000 for campaign purposes.

The committee plans to meet again September 22 in some eastern city, the place to be selected by Chairman Kenyon. The democratic members want to go to New York, while the republicans favor moving to Pittsburgh to look into the liquor interests are taking an active part in the democratic nominee's campaign.

The widely divergent views of the committee members as to the results of the probe here were accentuated tonight when Senator Edge, republican of New Jersey, issued a formal statement asserting the democrats had failed to substantiate Governor Cox's charges and Senator Reed, democrat of Missouri, countered with an assertion that any expression of opinion at this time "is indecent."

Senator Reed today asked that Charles Piez, former president of the emergency fleet corporation and now chairman of the republican ways and means committee in Chicago, be subpoenaed tomorrow to tell of the drive in this city. He also asked that William Wrigley Jr. and Frederick Courtenay Barber, the latter of whom is the $600-a-week director and chairman of the Chicago drive, be summoned.

Workers Boosted Quotas. Today's testimony shows that the practice of the republican state workers of boosting quotas assigned them by the national committee was general in many states.
