BUSINESS FALLS OFF

NEW RATES AFFECT LUMBER INDUSTRY, SAYS MR. ALLEN

Report Shows 1400 Cars Less Than Normal, and 900 Less Than Average for Week.

The week ended September 4, the first full week under the new freight rates, showed continued dropping off of business from territory east of the Mississippi river, so far as lumber orders and shipments are concerned, according to the statement of Robert B. Allen, of Seattle, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association.

For that week, says the report of Mr. Allen, association mills reported only 432 cars of new business. That was 1400 cars less than normal, and approximately 900 cars less than the average for the period immediately preceding the effective date of the freight rate advance, during which period normal business was not possible on account of car shortage.

"New business accepted during the week under review, totaled 25,648,053 feet, of which 26,050,000 feet was for rail delivery, 12,708,378 feet was water delivery, and 1,891,651 feet for local delivery.

"Production, at 67,115,152 feet, was 16 per cent under normal for the mills reporting. New business was approximately 51 per cent less than production.

"Shipments for the week totaled 49,457,780 feet, which was 26 per cent below normal production.

"The shipping total included 36,480,000 feet by rail; 2,196,254 feet by auto truck and team; 5,265,653 feet by domestic cargoes, and 4,515,873 feet export.

"Unshipped orders in the rail trade are now down to 5869 cars against a normal of 12,000 cars for the mills participating in the weekly report.

"In the domestic cargo business the unshipped balance is 88,243,313 feet. In export the unshipped balance is 45,747,497 feet."

serting that he refused to help her in the present case because she was temporarily embarrassed financially, though he was familiar with facts in the case.

State Tarwell directed the attention of Mr. Fulton to a portion of the state statutes relative to obligatory service of attorneys when an applicant is in destitute circumstances and asked him to appear in the local court during the taking of the deposition.

This was set for a week ago but postponed until yesterday. The lawyer was written September 7, but no reply had been received when the matter was raised yesterday. Taking of the deposition was postponed indefinitely awaiting a reply from Mr. Fulton.

The suit is that of the Commerce Trust & Savings bank against Dr. Howard. Dr. Howard asserted that she had no cash assets available but possessed stocks and bonds in Los Angeles which could be converted into cash.

With Dr. Howard yesterday appeared her adopted red-haired twin daughters, who have attracted much attention in Portland because of their close resemblance and the fact that Dr. Howard always dresses them exactly alike, usually in white.

"The trip into the mountains was made via the Methow river in eastern Washington, the men following the river to its source and crossing the Cascade summit at Hart pass. They then followed Ruby creek to the Skagit river and proceeded up the Skagit into British Columbia, turning eastward and spending some time in the Kootenai region.

"The location of the Columbia highway through Beaver canyon was made before the present state highway commission was created, when S. Benson was a member of the advisory board of the state highway commission. The route was selected to avoid the long detour by way of Megler. As there were insufficient funds to build the road, Mr. Benson advanced $29,000 for the work. Later the legislature appropriated $25,000 to reimburse him, so that he never did receive the additional $4000. The work was to cost $22,000, but Mr. Benson spent the extra amount to get a better road.

"The first double headliner show of the Orpheum season will open at the Heilig tomorrow afternoon for an engagement of three nights and four matinees, closing with the afternoon performance next Wednesday.

"Marie and Mary McFarland, American grand opera stars, and Frank Wilcox, popular stock actor, are the joint headliners. The Misses McFarland are twins. They were associated with the Metropolitan opera company for years, and since their retirement from that organization have been heard in concert in this country and abroad. They were among the few grand opera artists to be selected to entertain American soldiers in France.

"Frank Wilcox and his company are offering "Sh-h-h," a brand-new comedy, written by newspaper critics as one of the funniest sketches of the early season. Mr. Wilcox has been the head of his own stock company for years, and has played everything from "Uncle Tom" to "Hamlet." He is at his best in farce and comedy and his work has been a success in both types of fun-making.

"Remaining acts of the new show are the original farces "The Millionaire" and "The Egghead." Ely, the young genuine juggler in the world, and Coley and J. J. are presenting "The Minstrel and the Maid."

"In a letter which has the virtual legal effect of a demand, Presiding Circuit Judge Tarwell has written S. C. Fulton, attorney of Astoria, requesting that he appear for Dr. Anna Howard in litigation pending before the court in the Clatsop county seat and represent her during the taking of a deposition in Portland.

Dr. Howard has paid Attorney Fulton more than $500 for fees in prior litigation, she told Judge Tarwell, asserting that she was unable to pay.

ABSENT MINDEDNESS

Abigail, convicted by jury last week of criminal attack on a 7-year-old girl, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary by Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday morning. Though his attorney made a plea for clemency, saying that he believed his client was feeble-minded, Judge Morrow commented that Rutstein was thoroughly vicious and should be confined for the protection of society. "If he is feeble-minded or insane, he can be transferred from the penitentiary to the state hospital," but he has not only made a criminal attack on this helpless little child, but has made a brutal attack on the character of her mother."

"SUGAR CASE UNDER ADJUDICATION.—Attorneys for Parrot & Co. and the Star Fruit Products company yesterday argued before Circuit Judge Morrow federal court opposing a grand jury indictment on the grounds of sugar profiteering. The firm was represented by Richard Adams, agent for the Parrot company and L. M. Starr. The defendants were charged with conspiracy to violate the Lever act through purchase of sugar in California, which was sold in the east at an excess profit. Assistant United States Attorney Lusk presented the government's case before Federal Judge Wolcott. The case was taken under adjudication.

"DUCK TAGGING URGED.—In an effort to make more secure for the sportsmen the fruit of the duck hunting season State Game Warden Burghdoff has written United States Game Warden Lawler, asking sanction of the tagging system. Lawler stated that ducks that had been put away were confiscated by federal wardens. Because Oregon has more migratory birds than other coast states local officials and sportsmen desire the tagging permit. This would enable hunters to keep in cold storage birds they have marked for their own use. If this concession is not granted, ducks can be put away only ten days.

"LABEL SUIT FOR $1000 FALTERS.—Attempts of W. B. Pearls, former field agent for the Hazelwood company, to collect $1000 damages from the company and E. W. Ellis, general manager and superintendent, for alleged libelous assertions made in a circular letter sent by the company to its agents, failed yesterday when a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Tucker brought in a verdict for the defense. He had been accused in the circular of endeavoring to disrupt the business of the Hazelwood company and while still in its employ to get patrons for a rival concern he was seeking to establish.

"UNCLE SAM WANTS HIS ROADWAY.—A missing rowboat caused a commotion around the federal building yesterday when the rowing club filed a complaint against the Callender Navigation company, which it alleged is holding a title belonging to Uncle Sam and valued at $12,000. The company declines to return the craft until the government produces a similar rowing club. The tug Melville, leased from the company during the war, Assistant United States Attorney Lusk has been instructed to locate the company's wharf.

"AGED WOMAN HIT BY AUTOMOBILE.—Mrs. Frieda O'Connell lives near Sherwood, Or., was seriously injured when struck by an automobile near her home Thursday. She was brought to Portland and taken to St. Vincent hospital. Her injuries consist of a fracture of the left thigh and right ankle. Hospital authorities did not know the name of the chauffeur whose automobile hit Mrs. O'Connell.

"MADAM TO GO TO SAVVY'S ISLAND.—For their Sunday trip the Mazama will take the Seaside limited train at the North Bank depot at 8:30 A. M., going to Bandon today. From whence they will ferry to the island and walk down the river about six or seven miles, where lunch will be had, after which the party will return by a different route in time for the train arriving in town at 8:10 P. M.

"GRANDES TO CELEBRATE.—The 15th anniversary of the founding of the Russellville granite quarry will be celebrated tonight by an elaborate supper and party in general. Invitations and special invitation is extended to all having been connected with the granite in the past 15 years.

"MOONSHINE TAKES PAUPER'S OATH.—C. A. Cobb, who has just completed a six months' sentence in the county jail, for violation of the national prohibition law, was in court yesterday upon taking a pauper's oath. He had been fined $1000 in addition to the sentence, but was unable to pay.
