HARDING WILL WIN,

Orpheum. SAYS MATE OF DEBS

People's Hatred for Wilson Intense. Stedman's View.

Speech Never Published. "Eugene V. Debs," he said, "Is in prison, sen: there by this adminis-tration as a punishment for having given to the world his earnest, sin-cere convictions as a citizen. But the speech for delivering which he was convicted has never been pub-lished in the American press. The powers which control the newspapers of this country know that if it were availabled the nublic would not justify of this country know that if it were published the public would not justify the ferocious punishment meted out to him, and, though the people might excuse the judge and the jury for their rulings and verdict on so film-sy a pretext because of the war hys-teria at that time, they would de-mend his immediate release and not mand his immediate release, and not only his, but the release of all in-dustrial and political prisoners, an act of justice and clemency in which the United States lags far behind all other countries."

Mr. Stedman is a practicing attor-ney of Chicago. He handled the de-fense of 18 espionage cases brought on during the period of the war, and was successful in each case other than that in which Eugene V. Debs was the defendant.

Stedman Becomes Impatient.

beyond his allotted time at the pub-lic auditorium last night, Mr. Sted-man was carrying on a "front step" conference with Portland socialists. He was not talking politics, but instead was explaining that although "Gene" Wood was valuable to him sists on talking longer than he should.

M R AND MRS. McFARLAND'S two girls, Marie and Mary, bring A admonitory title of "Peggy Begrand opera to our gates this week have" is being put on by the Baker way of the Orpheum. The flower players for their second week offer of the family tradition is upset again. ing. Owen Davis wrote the farce, There are two flowers in the McFar- which has for its heroine a youthfu land family, and Marie and Mary Mrs. Newlywed, who is super-jealous probably have sung duets together and whose exasperating conduct sings with the minstrel man and then steps a few lively miles or so. Frank Wilcox is the moving spirit in a snappy little skatch called "SSH-H" because the word is on the lips of every character in it. He is an ambitious chap trying to put across a business deal, and acci-dentally stumbles into a chain of cir-numstances that turn the deal for him, although for a while the audi-ence thinks he is digging his own grave. A half dozen clever folk ap-pear in the sketch, which is well sea-soned with laughter and excitement. A likable chap is Wallace Galvin, comedian egg-straordinary and con-

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Lyric.

GT HE King of Bing Bong" which

THE MORNING OREGONIAN, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1920

MINISTER DECRIES NEW BILLS AT THE THEATERS MATERIALIST CODE

> Rev. Hall Says Christianity Is Robbed of Its Power.

God in the power of the spirit of God. What we need in all our churches to-day is men and women who can "Pray with all prayer and supplication in the spirit." Prayer that is not keyed to the spirit of God never goes higher than your head. What we need in the music of God's house today is not more art, and I am not a friend to coarseness. I would bring the finest music into the house of the Lord; aut some of the clever and telling cyni-cisms in the dialogue. Shirley Mayberry is the widow, not some of the clever and telling cymi-of all in-of all in-of all in-of all in-ners, an act which the behind all edges at 75 cents a dozen. (Saturday's wink scards and then eggs-periments with behind all eggs at 75 cents a dozen. (Saturday's eng attor-led the de-es brough is work of the precious fruit, and eco-nomical housewives divide laughter ne V. Debs carse and then furniture and throws, case other ne V. Debs Call, a so-was takking the sub-mattent. M. Sted-M. Sted-

George

Hippodrome.

own peculiar realm of growth and in-fluence and that, like all organic life, it becomes strong and vigorous only through nurture and exercise." PORTLAND NEEDS MISSIONARY ire, forgetting that the soul has it

Dr. McElveen Says No Reason to

"You need not to go to Asia or Africa to preach the gospel to the heathen. There are in Portland Chi-planetary age followed the incandes-cent. Epochs of storm, darkness, uni-versal ocean and glacial periods have occurred. Since the appearance of life in the world, conditions favorable to it have been maintained, through all the changes in ocean, land and atmos phere, amid many nicely balanced con

"God has press, ved and perpetuated life in the world in spite of many changes. He has led the kingdom of nature down the ages in a marvelous march of progress from the days of eozoon canadensis to the era of man. made in God's image. So the physical and natural laws have not been frus-trated-and this is God's guarantee his moral laws and purposes in the world will not be frustrated. "Progress is the law of nature and of morals, Mankind, given brain: science and knowledge of duty, will eventually reach mental, physical and moral emancipation. Civilization will not perish. Democracy will not throttled. Errors and vices will

SCIENCE INDICTED IN PULPIT Modern Knowledge Destroys Faith,

Announcing the Arrival of a New Shipment of the Celebrated "Aquascutum" Overcoats for Men

Our Direct Importation from London, England

PORTLAND men and young men are notoriously keen for the best to be had—a penchant which displays itself notably in the matter of dress.

Catering to this standard, realizing the need for something finer in overcoats than could be had elsewhere, we secured the exclusive Portland agency for the world-famous Aquascutum as a publicity agent, he always in-sists on talking longer than he Wednesday, should. 'I told him to take 30 minutes and he has talked an hour. If he doesn't stop soon, I will return to my ho-

But before the vice-presidential nominee had time to carry out his threat, Mr. Wood called for a free offering and then introduced sical quality. The plot has a military flavor, with Ben Dillon playing Major Mike Dooley, a Civil war veteran, and Frank O'Rourke, new leading man, in the role of a dashing lieutenant of the United States marine corps The seaded. This play will continue all week with mathees Wednesday and Satur-day. Peggy Hammond CAST. Peggy Hammond Cast. Leena Powers John Wallis Station Leena Powers John Major Mike Mr. Stedman. Unshaken faith in their leader, Eugene V. Debs, was shown by a tre-mendous ovation given when Mr. Stedman gave them a message from the prison cell at Atlanta. "Mir. Debs says that while Mr The young officer falls in love with a dark-eyed maid while stationed in the Philippines, and this arouses the Harding is carrying on a front porch mpaign, you tell my comrades that am carrying on a front cell camire of his father, who has picked out another girl for him. A series of screaming comedy situations arises paign.

Socialists for Irish Freedom.

when Ike, the humble "body guard", of the licutenant, is mistaken for a Recognition of the Irish republic, Recognition of the finite feature of Egypt, alls for the independence of Egypt, royal personage, and a plotting French cook feeds him a dynamite pill. Ben Dillon and Al Franks lead in podrome bill, which opened yesterblockade of soviet Russia are among the important planks of the socialist platform according to Mr. Stedman, who spoke at the auditorium last that they can put it across once in podrome bill, which opened yester-day, is an enjoyable farce from start to finish. Six typical telephone users are shown at their respective instruments and their efforts to get their numbers from an operator who pow-who epoke at the additionalia last at while. Franks, in a nondescript uniform, has a soldier part, too, and stops the show with his funmaking. Stedman. "There can be no real in-ternationalism until there is a real nationalism, when no nation is held in the stops of the show with his funmaking. Ben Broderick extracts large bundles of laughs out of the small part of a camera fiend who is always the showing un when less averaged. ternationalism until there is a real nationalism, when no nation is held in mubjection against its will by a more powerful suzerain. Without question the Irish people have shown a practi-cally unanimous desire for inde-pendence. The socialist party demands that the Irish republic be recognized. The Rosebud chorus dances and sings well, and the ensemble num-ings well, and the ensemble num-tries now held in subjection to a fore-ign power against the will of the people. Tespecially it demands that the blockade of sovier Russia be lifted, and the undeclared war against it, either directly or by the giving of ald to its foes be ended at once. The Rus-shad a de-facto existence for nearly two years with all the world against f. Whether you approve of its party two years with all the world against f. Whether you approve of its party two is for government or net.

two years with all the world against it. Whether you approve of its parti-cular method of government or not, its organization is a matter for the people of Russia to decide upon. "At any rate, the world will be the Ficher if it allows ar experiment in Ficher if it allows ar experiment in Real Issues Evaded.

"Both the republican and the demo-tratic candidates have evaded the real is merely an extreme form of socialissues of the day. Neither has said a ism aimed at the destruction of the ord for the restoration of our lost existing social order, according to berties, for the establishment of in- Kakuji Kato, a merchant, who made dustrial democracy, for a world com-radeship and an international legaue of nations, a parliament of elected that will endure, which alone can put America in the front rank of the na-tions and which are to make a new time and which alone to the na-tions and which alone to the na-tions and which alone to the naions and which are to make a new a striking resemblance to the imperial and better world, a world safe for true democracy." In his address at the auditorium the On

Mr. Stedman lauded the Plumb plan with difficulty. railroad law as shameless plundering assed by senators and congressmen the were elected by the votes of the vorkers, but who are directd by the sisco. Saturday night they conducted bill. a meeting in Centralia and on Friday heid meetings in Seattle and in Bremat the First Christian church chose for his subject, "Does Science Endan-ger Faith?" In answering this ques-tion, Rev. Mr. Griffis said in part: "Whether it should be necessary or not, there can be no doubt that in Production to Be Given in Auditocharacterization of a pessimistic man servant whose hilarity when his prophcies come true afford quite as much

"T HE King of Bing Bong" which by the true attorn duite as much funce, is acc-high in comedy and mu-sical quality. "The all the acceled." This play will continue at the size of the audience. George P. Webster is the dignified arm of the law all done up in buttons. The size of the audience. George P. Webster is the dignified arm of the law all done up in buttons. "Initiation of the law all done up in buttons." "The size of the size of nany instances our modern scien tific knowledge does destroy Chris-tian faith Three causes contribute In many cases scient o this result. endangers faith because people have a wrong conception of science. They This play will continue all week look upon this great boon as the effitient savior of mankind, the abso-ute guarantee of civilization, and suppose that when science speaks everything else, including religion, must keep quiet. Whereas the truth Leona Powers Seimer Jackson Leo Lindhard Shirley Mayberry is science is but one section of hu-Emily Macherson Mayo Methot Lora Rogera Irying Kennedy George P, Webster man life and has its strict limitations Scientific attainment alone is not suf ficient for all the needs and tasks of

Smith Davies "Again, personal faith may be endangered by scientific instruction be-cause people have a wrong conception m of religion. Especially is this true with regard to our religion's chief textbook, the Bible. Many persons have confused their own peculiar con-ceptions of the Bible with essential Christianity, and because these peullar conceptions could not possibly e made to square with the facts of cience they have repudiated Chrisders her nose every few seconds provoke much merriment. "Just Something That Occurs Every Day" is the way in which the act is scheduled and the sympathy of the audience is always with the patient ones who try to get connections. Joe Bennett, who is called the original "Abe Kabibble," is the star of the cast. "How many wrong sumbers do

Los "How many wrong numbers do I have to ask for until I get the right one?" is one of the many ques-rium in November for Benefit of Christmas Tree Fund.

Volunteers for the chorus and The Mandarin." to be given at the auditorium on November 5 and 6 fo the benefit of the municipal Chris the benchit of the municipal Christ-mas tree fund, are requested to meet at the Elks temple, Broadway and Stark street, tonight at 8 o'clock. The proper presentation of the opera calls for 100 young women and half that number of men in the chorus. A greater number will be used if it is percention to the operation.

ossible to obtain them. To dispel any misconception which might exist that participation in the production is limited solely to Elks o their relatives by reason of the fac that the show is to be given unde auspices of the Portland lodge o Elks, Carey W. Mouseman, who is to direct the opera, has issued the fol-lowing statement:

be made to square with the facts of science they have repudiated Chris-tianity. This is a mistake. Real re-ligion is one thing and any individ-ual's idea of the Bible is another, and maybe a very different, thing. "But the most common and most insidious cause of loss of faith

"But the most common and most "But the most common and most Insidious cause of loss of faith through a scientific atmosphere is simply the preoccupation with other things. Many students imagine that in some way or other mental culture be obtained to instruct a process with n some way or other mental culture be obtained tonight to proceed withay excuse them from spiritual cul- out delay."

So famous have these garments become for their SMART. NESS that their other and vitally important function of PROTECTING the wearer has not been sufficiently brought out-except by the loyal service which they always give when called on. Yet the very name Aquascutum implies waterrepellence and in fact Aquascutum overcoats are shower-proof, wind-proof, cold-proof, WEATHER-PROOF.

Aquascutum overcoats are made of sterling allwool fabrics. Finely tailored garments in smart raglan models with slash and large patch pockets, belted backs and belts all around, double and single-breasted, convertible collars. Rich plain shades and mixtures. Priced $90 to $125.

Aquascutum Raincoats

Of equally celebrated character as the overcoats and equally smart and serviceable. Belted and plain raglan models of coverts and gabardines in light and dark grays, tans, browns, blues and olive shades. Priced $60 and $75.

Sizes from 34 to 44 -Meler & Frank's: The Store for Men, Third Floor. Theier trank lo.

Phone

Your Want Ads

to

THE OREGONIAN

Main 7070

THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND Business School Opening MONDAY, SEPT. 13 Registration All This Week Bookkeeping Course Stenographic Course

Private Secretarial Course Save 50% of time in getting your business training. Largest percentage of students graduate of any school in the northwest. Every graduate in a position. Inquire Div. C Business School-Oregon Institute of Technology Fourth Floor, Y. M. C. A.

Ficher if it allows ar experiment in government to be carried out by sin-core self-sacrificing and capable men without interference by those whose motives/are under the suspicion of serdidness.

to Be Discontented Militarists.

ver." complete the programme, which will continue until Thursday, TOKIO, Sept. 10 .- "Omo Tokyo,"

MORE BROOKLYN CARS RUN Operation Reaches Highest Point Since Walkout,

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 .- Operations on the lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company today reached the highest point since the beginning of Kato said he spent 90 days among he Omo Tokyos and made his escape the strike two weeks ago Company officials reported opera-tion of 142 subway and elevated trains, consisting of 552 cars and of 700 trolley cars on 51 surface lines. Night service was started tonight on Wallis Stanton..... Kate Coffin. Mrs. Jordan Judd.

Rev. Roland Finkt.

voke much merrir

Peru Deputies Approve Divorce. another line.

command of capitalists. Both Mr. Stedman and Mr. Wood left late last night for San Fran-cisco. Saturday night they confirm. LIMA, Peru, Sept. 12 .- The chamber Doctor to Write Scenarios. Church authorities are opposing the A. B. Scherer has resigned from the presidency of the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena and ng room as unlucky.

Actors regard whistling in a dress- will write photoplays, it was learned here today.

