

JONES AND HART ARE FAR IN LEAD

Senator Has 2-to-1 Start on W. L. Inglis.

GOVERNOR IS 5857 AHEAD

Almost 75 Per Cent of All Precincts Report Returns.

COYLE LEADING FIELD

Summers Well Ahead of Brown for Representative and State Superintendent Is Named.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 15.—The outstanding feature of the primary election Tuesday was the sweeping endorsement given by the republican voters of the state to Wesley L. Jones, United States senator.

Senator Jones led his nearest opponent by practically a two-to-one vote in the contest for the republican gubernatorial nomination, Governor Louis F. Hart has Colonel Roland H. Hartley in second place. Between Colonel Hartley and the remaining candidates for republican gubernatorial nomination there is a wide margin.

Hart's Lead 5857.

Governor Hart's lead was 5857 votes over Hartley when approximately 75 per cent of the precincts reported tonight. The tabulation showed the incumbent received 53,731 votes and Hartley 47,854 in 1749 precincts out of 2368 in the state.

Grossly misleading totals showing Hartley 6009 in the lead opened the way for much betting on what appeared to be a sure thing, with the result that several thousands of dollars were wagered on false information and after the bets were down then a later announcement was made that errors had been discovered in the earlier compilations and Hart was leading Hartley.

Hartley was the favorite in King county, running ahead of Hart by more than 5000 votes, but the governor developed greater strength throughout the state and overcame Hartley's advantage in this county.

Lamping Is Second.

George B. Lamping was second place in King county, but in the state at large he dropped back to third place, lagging well behind the two leaders. Gallaty and Conner are running neck and neck for fourth place, while the vote for Stringer and MacEachern was negligible.

In the contest for the nomination for lieutenant-governor Captain William J. Coyle and Alvin Moore are his four rivals. His home county gave him a big lead over his nearest competitor and he received a consistently heavy vote throughout the state. He had a lead of 187 over his nearest opponent for the republican nomination for lieutenant-governor when 1447 precincts had been reported.

No Republican Contest.

There was no contest in the republican primaries for the nominations for secretary of state or for state land commissioner. There were three republican aspirants for state treasurer and Clifford L. Babcock of Port Angeles won the nomination by a safe margin over John R. Orton and John L. Murray.

Babcock was 7196 ahead of Murray and Orton was trailing Murray.

In the case of the other state offices the incumbents were easy victors. H. Fishback, seeking renomination for state insurance commissioner, was ahead of his opponent. Fishback had 45,882 and Dwyer 26,268 from 1063 precincts.

Classen Wins Easily.

State Auditor C. W. Classen easily defeated George A. Bundy, Classen receiving 25,523 to 15,578 for Bundy in 844 precincts.

Likewise L. L. Thompson, state attorney-general, was renominated with plenty of votes to spare, getting 52,875 to 28,572 for Hunt in 1128 precincts.

Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston, State Superintendent of Schools, also had an easy race, winning over Mrs. Elisabeth Jones in 1692 precincts, 54,475 to 33,942.

There were contests in three of the five congressional districts, but the present representatives appear to have won renomination in each case.

Miller Walks Away.

In the first district, John P. Miller, Rep., ran away from his opponents, Frank Pierce and H. Alvin Moore. John W. Summers, Rep. in 321 precincts polled 10,624 and E. K. Brown 2591 in the fourth district.

The most hotly contested fight occurred in the fifth district, Thomas Corkery, backed by the Non-Partisan and labor elements polled 14,929; J. Stanley Webster, incumbent, 19,178 in 923 precincts.

Lindley H. Hedvig, representative in the second district, and Albert Johnson, representative in the third district, were unopposed.

In 1214 precincts throughout the state the vote for supreme justices

RAILROAD SMASHUP HAS HAPPY SEQUEL

WINE FLOWS LIKE WATER WHEN TANK SPRINGS LEAK.

Pots, Pans and Buckets Commanded by Manning, La., People, but Some Get Too Full.

OMAHA, Sept. 15.—Quite a number of folks in Manning, Iowa, who ordinarily could not have a supply of liquor on hand because of the Volstead enforcement act, now are well supplied as a result of a railroad wreck near there several nights ago, several dispatches from the city today.

Wine flowed freely from a tank car that sprang a leak and news of the supply spread quickly. Pots, pans, buckets and other receptacles, hastily commandeered by Manning residents, were brought into play to catch the liquor as it ran from the car. In a fight that followed one man, armed with an axe, was seriously cut by another who used a knife as his weapon.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 15.—E. F. Urin was killed and Frank Harms of Oakland received a fractured leg when a motor truck loaded with eight barrels of whisky was struck by a Southern Pacific train at French camp, near here, this morning. The truck lodged on the engine and was carried a quarter of a mile. Another engine was required to remove the truck. The whisky was saved.

MARSHAL PETAIN WEDS

French Commander Leads to Altar Madame Hardon.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, commander in chief of French armies in France during the war, was married today to Madame Hardon, a young girl who was married to the late Marshal Petain at the city hall of the seventh ward of Paris, Tuesday morning, says the Petit Parisien. The ceremony was witnessed by General Paolite, Madame Gabriel Ferrier, widow of the celebrated painter, who was stepfather of the bride.

The marriage is a realization of a lifelong dream of the marshal, who knew the bride when she was a very young girl.

The bride, according to the Excelsior, is very wealthy.

The Excelsior says Marshal Petain, in anticipation of the event, put himself down in the latest issue of the Paris social register as married.

WILSON TO GET IN FRAY

President Expected to Participate in National Campaign.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—President Wilson will be requested to participate actively in the national campaign, Senator Charles McNary, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the democratic national committee, announced today.

"We certainly do want the president to do all he can, and have received assurances that his accord with the democratic ticket is of the heartiest," Senator Harrison said. "We were surprised, however, to learn from the press that the president had some likelihood of President Wilson doing some speaking. I shall get in touch with the president immediately, soliciting his aid in whatever form he deems most advisable and expedient."

SCHOOLS MAY CLOSE

Teacher Shortage Becomes Grave Problem in Two Localities.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Because of the teacher shortage in Oregon, directors of several of the smaller high schools have appealed to J. A. Churchill, state superintendent, to close their institutions and send their pupils to other cities. Jacksonville has asked permission to close its high school and send its pupils to Jacksonville, while Merrill, in Josephine county, will transfer its pupils to Grants Pass.

In case Jacksonville and Merrill are obliged to close their schools because of the shortage of teachers, they will lose their rating as standard high schools, according to Mr. Churchill.

DEAD PILOT FROM PASCO

Walter Stevens Held Position as Chief of Police.

PASCO, Wash., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Walter Stevens, who, with his mechanician, was burned to death in an airplane at Cleveland, O., Tuesday, formerly lived in Pasco. In 1913 and 1914 he was chief of police in this city and was for a number of years an engineer on the Northern Pacific at this point.

During the war he entered the air service and since the close of the war has been an air mail pilot. He had made his last trip and the trip on which the accident occurred was being made for a friend, who was ill.

RUSSIAN OFFER REFUSED

London Daily Herald Turns Down Soviet Tender of £75,000.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The board of directors of the Daily Herald will not accept the Russian soviet government's offer of £75,000 pounds.

A resolution adopted today declares that the directors had no knowledge that the money had been offered.

Mr. Maynell, through whom the offer came, resigned.

The Daily Herald, radical laborite paper, recently frankly asked its readers whether it should accept 75,000 pounds from Russian sympathizers.

Without the support of this money, it added, it would be compelled to double its price.

SHERIFF'S SLAYER SENTENCED TO DIE

Neil Hart to Be Hanged at Salem November 5.

MURDERER IS HELD SANE

Superintendent of Hospital Reports on Examination.

INDIAN SHOWS NO SIGN

Details of Struggle in Office Are Rehearsed and Defendant Makes Minor Correction.

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Emmett Bancroft, alias Neil Hart, self-confessed slayer of Th. Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county, July 23 last, was sentenced to death by hanging on November 5 by Circuit Judge Phelps today. The judge gave W. R. Taylor, sheriff, 20 days in which to remove the sentenced man to the state penitentiary.

The stoic Indian, garbed in his prison attire of blue overalls and blue shirt, received the sentence without emotion and the crowded courtroom likewise received the sentence in silence. Bancroft has assumed an air of complete unconcern in all proceedings since his capture following the murder.

Slayer Is Held Sane.

Proceeding the sentence, Dr. W. McNary, superintendent of the eastern Oregon state hospital, testified that the murderer is sane, and R. W. Fletcher, foreman of the grand jury, explained that Bancroft had been fully informed of his rights and the fact that he could have a trial by jury if he wished it.

Only once did the defendant show any interest in the proceedings. Following the testimony of Guy Wyrick, rehearsing details of the hand-to-hand struggle which was staged in the sheriff's office in which Bancroft fired the fatal shot, the prisoner said he wished to make a statement. He said that he was not in the office when the fight first started, but came in answer to a call from Keagy. He picked Sheriff Taylor's revolver from the floor at the entrance to the office, he said. It was but a slight digression from the details given by Mr. Wyrick.

Murder Is Admitted.

"You picked up a revolver and shot Sheriff Taylor, did you not?" asked Judge Phelps.

"Yes, sir," came the reply.

Following the passing of sentence, Judge Phelps declared that the law (Continued on Page 3, Column 4.)

RUSSEL BRAKE GUILTY, IS VERDICT OF JURY

Hour 40 Minutes Required to Reach Decision.

Prisoner to Be Sentenced on Second Degree Murder Charge by Court Monday.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Guiltily as charged in the indictment was the verdict of the jury who heard the case of Russel Brake, charged with murder in the second degree for killing Harry Dubinsky, a Portland taxi driver.

The jury was out one hour and 40 minutes and handed in their verdict without recommendations.

Sentence will be passed Monday morning, and it is probable that Tom Garland, Brake's attorney, will ask for ten days in which to decide on further action.

The penalty for murder in the second degree in Oregon is life in the penitentiary.

The murder was committed just a few days before the new capital punishment law for Oregon went into effect and Brake and George Moore, who is now serving a life sentence, probably would have been tried for first-degree murder, the penalty of which is capital punishment.

The case of Russel Brake, who was tried on a charge of murdering Harry Dubinsky, a Portland taxi driver, went to the jury at 2:41 Wednesday afternoon, the third day of the trial.

Only one witness, F. A. Davis, house detective of the Imperial hotel, was called on Wednesday. Davis testified that it was the rule of the hotel to order everyone except guests out at 10 o'clock, and that he was on duty the night of the murder, but did not remember seeing Brake. Davis admitted that he was not in the lobby for a period of 20 minutes on different missions. Garland argued that Saturday night before Shriners' week it was not likely the lobby would be practically deserted as Davis alleged.

District Attorney Evans of Portland argued the case from 9:40 until 10:15 and at 10:30 Garland pleaded his case until 11:30, when recess was taken. He admitted that his alibi might be weak on account of his client being refused an attorney for several days, but argued that the testimony given during the trial was not sufficient to convict.

District Attorney Hedges said that the evidence brought out in the case showed that the jury would be practically failed to prove an alibi.

PEACE TREATY RATIFIED

Jugo-Slavs Act on Signing Document With Bulgaria.

BELGRADE, Sept. 15.—The Jugo-Slav parliament today ratified the treaty of peace with Bulgaria. The Bulgarian treaty was signed at Neuilly November 27 last and was officially promulgated on August 17 of this year. At the time of signing last November, Roumanian and Jugo-Slavs failed to sign, objecting to several of the clauses, notably those dealing with racial minorities. Agreement has been reached and both nations later signed the treaty.

WEBSTER FAR AHEAD IN SPOKANE DISTRICT

CORKERY, NON-PARTISAN-LABOR CANDIDATE, IS BEHIND.

Congressional Fight Bitter, but Incumbent Leads in All Sections of District.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—In one of the most bitterly contested primary fights since the 5th congressional district was created, J. Stanley Webster, incumbent, is leading his opponent, Thomas Corkery, by approximately 5000 votes in the race for the republican nomination for representative in congress, according to returns received up to 7 o'clock tonight.

Webster carried every one of the eight counties in the district, the totals at latest reports standing at 15,221 for the Spokane representative to 11,102 for his opponent, and scattering returns from small outlying districts, it is believed, will add to this lead.

Particular interest attached to the race between Webster and Corkery, in that the latter was supported by the non-partisan league and many labor organizations, especially the railway brotherhoods, who were bitterly opposed to Webster because of his stand on the anti-strike clause of the Esch-Cummins railway bill.

In Spokane, the stronghold of organized labor in the district, due to the fact that the division shops and terminals of five transcontinental railway systems are located here, Webster's majority will be approximately 750, and in the agricultural and fruit growing regions, where it was believed the non-partisans would poll a heavy vote and where it was openly stated that they intended to endeavor to steal the republican primary, his lead is virtually two to one.

AMERICAN SHIPPING GAINS

600 Vessels Added During Fiscal Year of 1920.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Shipping under American register increased by 600 vessels and 2,416,713 gross tons during the fiscal year of 1920 compared with 1919, the department of commerce announced today.

At the end of the fiscal year of 1920, American registered shipping consisted of 28,182 vessels, aggregating 16,324,013 gross tons as against 27,583 vessels of 12,907,200 gross tons on June 30, 1919.

On the year's increase, the report said, nearly 90 per cent consisted of sea-going ships of 1000 gross tons or over owned by the shipping board.

TRAIN KILLS LABORER

Edward M. Wheeler, 65, Is Run Over Near Bucoda.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Edward M. Wheeler, aged 65, was instantly killed yesterday near Bucoda when he was struck by a fast freight operated by the Oregon-Nashington Railroad & Navigation company. Mr. Wheeler was a former resident of Shelton and had been employed by the company as a water carrier for a section crew.

RENO, NEVADA, GAINS 1149

Latest Census Gives City Population of 12,016.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Census announcements today included the following:

Reno, Nev., 12,016, increase 1149 or 10.4 per cent.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.

YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 76 degrees; lowest, 48 degrees; fair; today's—Fair, with winds.

World's court proposed (telling argument for Harding explains league to women. Page 2)

Democrats preparing another "sensation." Page 6

Connecticut democrats to name senatorial candidates by convention. Page 5

Voters in Clark county surprise candidates. Page 4

Lewis and Small lead in Illinois nomination for governor. Page 1

Threats against Harding-Coolidge ratification rally Saturday night. Page 14

Webster leads Corkery in congressional race at Spokane. Page 1

Foreign.

President Deschanel of France to resign office immediately. Page 1

National.

Anti-Saloon league acts to "aid" government of most of its debts. Page 3

Domestic.

American committee to inquire into charges of Irish and British atrocities. Page 3

Pacific Northwest.

Neil Hart, slayer of Sheriff Taylor, is sentenced to be hanged on November 5. Page 1

Dry's plea campaign to rid state of moonshiner. Page 3

Russel Brake fourth guilty of second degree murder. Page 1

Enforcement of new automobile law to begin throughout Oregon Monday. Page 1

Sports.

Coast league reaches Portland 5, Sacramento 0; Seattle 1, Salt Lake 4; Los Angeles 2, Vernon 1; San Francisco 0, Oakland 2. Page 12

Dempey-Smith mill is towed on. Page 12

Apr. Tramblis holds Johnny Tilmann to draw decision. Page 12

But coach corner has record for women's tennis tournaments. Page 13

Political developments and easier money favorably affect stock market. Page 21

Portland obtains Atlantic seaboard service. Page 20

Portland's plea to be taken out of Seattle district receives consideration. Page 5

Portland and Astoria. Page 10

American Legion to annex guns on Finnish newspaper. Page 11

East side corner has record for streetcar and automobile accidents. Page 10

Portland inventors sell patent rights for $190,000. Page 7

Cooperation urged by big food expert before A. H. C. convention. Page 7

Teachers squabble over division of recent wage increase. Page 20

Dr. Gustav Haas has to Czechoslovakia to save brother from execution. Page 6

HEAD OF FRANCE TO RESIGN POST

Deschanel Will Inform Millerand Today.

FIGHT ON ILLNESS IS LOST

Hope for Recovery Given Up. Nation Is Sympathetic.

ENVOY MAY BE NAMED

Charles C. A. Jannart, Ambassador Extraordinary to Vatican, Willing to Accept, Says Secretary.

PARIS, Thursday, Sept. 15.—Premier Millerand will meet to Ramboillet immediately on his arrival from Geneva today, and President Deschanel will receive the premier and tell him of his irrevocable resignation to resign.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—The tragedy of Deschanel, which for nearly four months has been the secret of a few persons, now has become public property, and nothing but the warmest sympathy is being expressed on all sides for the president, as it is announced that he has decided irrevocably to resign.

Accident Causes Relapse.

President Deschanel's four months' fight against illness has been a courageous one, but since his accident, he has been steadily losing ground. He has been unable to move, and he has been losing weight, and he has been unable to eat. He has been unable to move, and he has been losing weight, and he has been unable to eat. He has been unable to move, and he has been losing weight, and he has been unable to eat.

STUDENT GOES TO PRISON

Term at Hard Labor Penalty for Killing at College.

WOODSVILLE, N. H., Sept. 15.—Robert T. Meads of La Grange, Ill., Dartmouth college junior, who shot and killed Henry H. Maroney of Medford, Mass., fellow student, after a drinking bout in a college dormitory last June, pleaded guilty to manslaughter today. He was sentenced to serve 15 to 20 years at hard labor in the state prison.

Meads' plea and sentence came unexpectedly. The grand jury's indictment was for murder. At the direction of the court the indictment was read and Meads was asked his plea. Coolly he replied: "I plead guilty of manslaughter."

Meads showed entire self-control. He returned to the jail, where he has been since his arrest, with his mother and sister, who have lived nearby all summer, awaited him.

THOMPSON SLATE CLOSE IN ILLINOIS

One Man Killed and Six Kidnaped at Primaries.

SMALL HOLDS SLIGHT LEAD

Frank Smith Passes McKinley in Senatorial Race.

FACTIONAL FIGHT INTENSE

James Hamilton Lewis Appears to Have Received Democratic Gubernatorial Nomination.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—With returns from 2183 precincts out of 5237 in the state, including 730 in Chicago, William B. McKinley took the lead in the senatorial race in today's republican primaries, having 119,882 votes for the office, while Frank Smith, Thompson candidate, had 115,825. This vote was about a third of the Chicago vote and nearly half of the down-state vote.

Returns from 2255 precincts out of 5237 in Illinois, including 1485 out of 3600 in Cook county, give the republican candidates for governor: Small 127,235, Oglesby 126,828.

These figures included 800 precincts, or slightly more than one-third of the Chicago vote, in which Small had a plurality of 33,816.

These returns were from 1455 precincts down-state, or about 43 per cent. On these Oglesby's advantage was 23,492.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Nominations of republican candidates for senator and governor were in doubt late tonight because of the slowness of returns from today's primaries. James Hamilton Lewis, former senator, was far in the lead over the democratic gubernatorial nomination over Barrett O'Hara.

Thompson Slate Carries Chicago.

The slate backed by Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, won in Cook county, Len Small of Kankakee for governor and Frank Smith of Dwight for senator, running some 43 votes to the precinct ahead of Lieutenant-Governor John G. Oglesby and William McKinley, their opponents, supported by Governor Frank O. Lowden. Outside of Chicago, Lowerden candidates led, however, with an increasing majority to the precinct as later returns came in.

Thompson adherents carried all nominations for offices in Cook county, including county judge, who will control the election machinery for four years, and Judge R. E. Crowder, who will be the candidate for state attorney, who will be opposed by Michael Igoe, or the incumbent, MacLay Hoyle, over whom Igoe had a lead for the democratic nomination.

Returns from 1775 precincts out of 5237, including 730 outside Cook county, gave Smith 101,793 votes for senator and McKinley 92,699, while 1018, including 153 outside Cook county, gave Robert Burke 20,113 and Peter A. Brennan 19,409, the democratic senatorial nomination.

Small Holds Lead.

Reports from 1826 precincts, including 1026 without the city, gave Small 109,839 and Oglesby 96,756, while 953 precincts, including 171 downstate, gave Lewis 84,563 and O'Hara 8097.

On the republican gubernatorial ticket B. M. Chipierfield was far behind the other two candidates, having 17,235 for the 1775 precincts, and in the gubernatorial contest Oscar Carlstrom and Edward Woodruff had comparatively small votes.

In 700 precincts in Chicago William E. Mason, incumbent, led with 52,526 votes for representative in congress at large, with former Governor Richardson Prentiss second with 19,127.

Of the votes for Small in Chicago, about a fourth were cast by women, while about half of the Oglesby vote was contributed by the fair sex.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon led on early returns in the eighteenth congressional district. With 56 out of 211 precincts in, he had 252 to 2676 for E. B. Cooley.

Election Is Called Quiet.

Although one man was killed, half a dozen kidnaped and a score injured in fights around Cook county polling places, election officials tonight declared that the election had been comparatively quiet and that disorders had not been so great as they had feared.

Charges that the assailants in most cases were Thompson adherents brought statements from the mayor's faction that many of the 2000 special deputies sworn in by Sheriff Peters, a Lowerden adherent, were ex-convicts and that they had started most of the fights. Sheriff Peters said that a few "disrespectful characters" might have been included among his deputies but that they were discharged as soon as discovered.

Michael Fennessy, precinct worker, killed, was shot by a policeman who said Fennessy drew a gun.

Two women were bruised badly when they attempted to help Sergeant John Coyle quell a disturbance in one polling place over charges of "repeating" in the voting. Coyle was seriously injured and the women knocked to the floor.

Several unsuccessful attempts to steal ballot boxes were made and (Continued on Page 2, Column 1.)

ACCORDING TO THE PAPER A MAN BY THE NAME OF HARDING HAS A LEASE ON IT FOR FOUR YEARS.

