NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Receipt by department of justice agents tonight of five radical circulars, signed "American Anarchist Fighters," which were found in a mail box at Cedar street and Broadway at 11:58 A. M. Thursday, furnished the first tangible clew, they said, to the identity of the persons who were responsible for the explosion in Wall street which three minutes later killed 35 persons, injured 200 others and caused property damage running into millions. In making public the circulars, which were printed on cheap paper, 7x11 inches, Chief William J. Flynn of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice called attention to the fact that the bombs sent in the nation-wide bomb plot on June 2, 1919, were wrapped in circulars announcing the coming of the revolution and signed "Anarchist Fighters." Chief Flynn declared the circulars were not in the letter box when the carrier made his round at 11:30 A. M., but that he found them there on his next round at 11:58 o'clock. The circulars read: "Remember, we will not tolerate any longer. Free the political prisoners or it will be sure death for all of you. "American Anarchist Fighters." The circulars were not inclosed in envelopes, nor did they bear addresses. Some contained misspelled words. Discrepancies in spelling would indicate they were printed by two different men. Discovery of the circulars, Chief Flynn said, "makes the plan of the bombers fairly clear." "They left the wagon with a horse attached in Wall street, having set the timing device a few moments ahead," he explained. "They didn't want to take a chance of mailing the circulars. They didn't want to throw them into the street as they walked away from the scene, so they stuck them in the box. Three minutes later their bomb exploded. "We are reasonably sure that a time device was used. A fuse would have smoked. Someone might have smelled it. The clock arrangement would be the safest." He declared that it was his opinion the bomb was "placed in the financial heart of America as a defiance against the American people and the American government." Bomb Cause of Explosion. "In my opinion," Chief Flynn declared, "this is not an attack on J. P. Morgan & Co. I believe those responsible picked out the financial center in order to create a demonstration." Chief Flynn declared after leaving J. P. Morgan's office late today that "from evidence obtained within the last few hours it has been definitely established that the explosion was due to a time bomb."

OGLESBY GOES INTO LEAD Lowden's Candidate Ahead of Small, Backed by Thompson. CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Lieutenant-Governor Oglesby, candidate for the republican nomination for governor on the ticket supported by Governor Lowden, today took the lead over Lien Small, Mayor Thompson's candidate. Representative McKinley, also supported Lowden, today continued to gain over Representative Frank B. Smith of the Thompson ticket for the United States senatorial nomination. Returns from 5356 precincts out of 5727 in Illinois showed the following vote: For the republican gubernatorial nomination: Oglesby, 331,897; Small, 349,044. In the republican senatorial contest the vote from 5358 precincts was: McKinley, 347,485; Smith, 321,353. MILL IS RAZED BY FIRE Damage of $250,000 Estimated to Lumber Concern at Ivan. KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Fire late this afternoon completely destroyed the lumber yards and buildings of the I. E. Kesterson Lumber company at Ivan, near the California line. The fire started from the incinerator. J. H. Driscoll, local insurance agent, said that the lumber concern carried $125,000 insurance with him. He estimated that the loss would reach $250,000. The fire destroyed the California Oregon Power company's transmission line, which connects this city with the Copco plant, and forced all local mills and box factories to shut down, but does not interfere with power being generated and lighting, which are served from the Keno plant.

FRANTIC APPEALS MADE Telegrams Sent Broadcast to Help in Maine Barely Bring Sufficient Money to Pay Tolls. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—"What is the matter with the democratic campaign?" is a question the Baltimore Sun, democratic newspaper supporting Cox, has put up to one of its best staff writers to answer. He went to the headquarters of the democratic national committee in New York and today the result is a sensational story in which he says he is prepared to prove that within the last ten days the national finance committee but narrowly defeated a proposal to close up headquarters and quit the contest. He tells of numerous discouragements suffered by the national organization since the San Francisco convention, which he hopes would carry him to the treasury and fratic appeals have failed to bring aid. To begin with, he says, the national committee cannot fall to take cognizance of the fact that neither Governor Cox, Franklin Roosevelt nor Wilbur W. Marsh, the latter treasurer of the democratic national committee, has opened his purse to give one cent, although every one of them is either a millionaire or a near-millionaire. Penury Felt Keenly. This latter situation is felt the more keenly, he says, by the leaders of long experience when they recall that Cleveland and Wilson, though both comparatively poor, gave until they were blue. The writer, who is Stephen Bernal, a well known newspaper man, begins his story with the query quoted at the beginning of this dispatch, and says: "I was instructed to obtain an answer to the foregoing query which is on many lips today, I went to New York last week for the first time since the convention and after some difficulty located the national democratic headquarters in the Grand Central Palace, although the obliging policeman was pretty certain the folks had moved away." $30,000, he declares, has been

Disaster Stirs Sentiment New York Assemblymen Likely to Be Declared Disloyal. CONFERENCE IS SUNDAY Meeting Called to Decide Upon Action to Be Taken Monday When Session Convenes. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The members of the state assembly will meet here with Speaker Sweet on Sunday afternoon as the result of the re-election of the five ousted socialist members of that house at the special election in New York city yesterday. The meeting is called for the purpose of deciding upon some action for Monday night, when the special session convenes. Speaker Sweet has refused to make any statement on what course of action the assembly members will take. He did say, however, that he had received many letters from different members of the house, stating that they are willing to express their view on the subject at the Sunday afternoon conference. It is the opinion among many legislators that the men will not be allowed to remain in their seats through the special session. Even the amendment of their constitution to fix any objectionable measures is said to have no influence with the legislators who want them ousted for a second time. Disaster Stirs Up Antisocialism. The speaker probably will be the chief spokesman at the conference. Senator Walters, majority leader of the upper house, also will attend. He will arrive tomorrow from Syracuse. That the disaster will have a demoralizing effect on the members of the assembly is the opinion here today. Up until yesterday it generally has been thought that for once the socialists would be allowed to remain in their seats. The disaster, however, will have a tendency to eliminate any such action. It is thought that the socialists will be disqualified by affidavit showing that they are disloyal. Senator Lockwood, chairman of the housing committee, is trying to get the housing programme in shape before Monday night. The programme has been revised many times, due to disagreements on the part of the members of the committee. No definite statement can be obtained from any member of the committee until the first meeting of the legislature. Fusion Candidates Overcome. Every one of the five socialists expelled from the assembly last spring at the behest of Speaker Sweet and their majority leader, won yesterday their fight to be returned in the special election ordered by Governor Smith. The five overcome fusion candidates agreed upon by democrats and republicans. The vote was much lighter than in the regular election of last fall, but the older parties which fused lost almost twice as much as the socialists, so that the latter won by a comfortable majority. That the five socialists won through the votes of democrats and republicans who resented the methods of Speaker Sweet and others who directed the ouster last spring was suggested by the fact that of the six districts where the special election was held, in the nineteenth, Brooklyn, the socialist candidate, who was not one of those ousted, failed to win. In a three-cornered fight the democratic candidate, Halon, other candidate, was elected to fill the place of the late assemblyman, John Danico. The elected socialists will be challenged again when they attempt to take their seats and another will be made when they appear to take their oath of office. This was said last night on authority of a man close to Speaker Sweet.

REDS OUT FOR REVENGE Centralia Gets Warning of Intended Raid by Radicals. CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—A letter, signed "The Revenge Committee," was received by a Centralia paper yesterday from Milwaukee, saying that a band of radicals would invade the city about October 15 to get revenge for a "raid" on the I. W. W. hall here on Armistice day. The band has arms and ammunition secreted in Butte, Mont., and all Centralians who participated in the "raid" are marked for death, the letter declared. Little credence is placed in the letter, which is similar to scores of others received by local individuals and organizations within the past year.

THREAT HELD PREMATURE. Mr. Goldstein said in his charges that there was no occasion for this theatrical but dangerous display of firearms, as Lewis had never been advised of his arrest nor had he given the slightest indication of resistance according to Mr. Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein pointed out that because no evidence showed that Hedderly had consummated any sales of liquor he could not have been charged with anything but a misdemeanor. The attorney cited the law to show that an officer is not empowered with any legal right to kill a human being except when necessary to overcome resistance to the execution of legal process; when necessary in retaking prisoners charged with or convicted of a crime who have escaped or when necessary in arresting a person fleeing from justice, who has committed a felony. Case Held Outrage. "I earnestly submit," read the charges filed by Mr. Goldstein, "that the conduct of the officers in accompanying the death of a human being, without necessity, is reprehensible.

The scene is set at night, with some lights visible in the windows of the building. The man's expression is one of concern or determination. The sign he holds is a central element, pointing towards the source of the "trouble".

BABY IS BORN IN AUTO Stage, in Race to Hospital, Over-taken by Stork. VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—A baby was expected in the family of Mr. and Mrs. George Chinaks of Camas yesterday, but it so happened that there was not a doctor in the city at the time. A nurse was with Mrs. Chinaks, and a hurried consultation it was decided to bring the baby to the hospital in this city in the big Camas automobile stage. This was done, but the stork overtook the stage before it reached this city. The stage continued the trip to the hospital and the mother and daughter were removed to a room. Today it is reported that both mother and child are doing very well and none the worse for their unusual experience.

PONZI HAS WOMAN RIVAL $300 Profit in 10 Days on Investment of $100 Offered. BUTTE, Sept. 17.—That Charles Ponzi of "get-rich-quick" fame was a "piker" when compared with Mrs. Mary E. Phillips of Fort Worth, Tex., is the belief of Chief of Police J. E. Murphy of Butte, who today arrested Mrs. Phillips on a charge of operating a "confidence game." "Mrs. Phillips offered $300 profit in ten days on an investment of $100 in Ponzi's best offer was 50 per cent in 90 days," Murphy explained.
