Picture Industry Extolled by Nominee. Who Remarks on Happy Faces Seep in Studio.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 21.-Governor Cox of Ohio was on the way to Arizona tonight after completing his southern California campaign, which included one unscheduled event-a brief appearance as an "actor" before League Defense Voiced. At Long Beach his address was largely a defense of the league of nations and an account of the nomination of Senator Harding as the republican presidential candidate. He referred to the latter event as meeting in room 404 Blackstone hotel, at Chicago, where the senatorial oligarchy met and hand-picked the republican candidate."

At a second speech in Long Beach he made reference to the Japanese question in California and promised that if he were elected president he "would be bound by the constitution to respect the rights of states to settle their own internal problems."

Governor Acts Up. The governor appeared at a mo-tion-picture studio in Hollywood, where he "acted" on a "set" prepared especially for his visit.

The "set" represented the ship of state, and he took up a position on the bridge, while about the craft, in water which reached their ankles, disported a number of girls in bathing suits.

In a brief talk from the bridge the governor extolled the motion-pleture industry and declared the "happy faces" he saw about him gave proof of satisfaction found in that work.
