

CASEY-ST. CLAIR GO DUE ON WEDNESDAY

Sacramento Boxer All Set to Retrieve Fortunes.

BLOOMBERG MAY SHOW

Kearns Says Public Liked Dempsey Against Dubs and Willard Removed in Training.

BY DICK SHARP.

Harry Casey, Dan Sully's slashing Seattle welterweight, and Willie St. Clair, clever Sacramento boxer, will meet in the eight-round semi-windup of next Wednesday night's card at the Milwaukee arena.

Bloombergs May Appear.

Only one more detail remains to be ironed out before the card will be complete. It has been noted that Mickey Dempsey, the youngster with the dynamite in either mitt will box in the curtain-raiser.

Don't Laugh. There are a few left who still think Jess Willard has a chance with Dempsey.

Willard is almost certain to get a crack at the title he dropped to Dempsey at Toledo. Those who think Willard has a chance base their belief on one punch Willard landed in the third round of the Toledo battle.

Willard Rumored Getting Ready.

Beaten apparently to a pulp, Willard threw a long right uppercut at Dempsey's chin and for the moment Jack, by his own admission, didn't know where he was.

Willard's Claim.

Willard's claim, has been training secretly for months and that if he ever answers the bell against Dempsey again he will be a different fighter.

Benny Valzer, the "French Flash," as he is favorably termed by his astute manager, Joe Jacobs of N'York, is going to appear in the third big boxing stage to be put on by Tex Rickard at the Madison Square Garden, N. Y. C., probably the first week in October.

Jacobs, according to himself, has been in conference with Promoter Rickard for several days regarding a Valzer-Kilbane 15-round referee's decision set-anything is lovely from the contender's end. It's all up to Kilbane, writes Jacobs.

Sport News and Comment.

Judging from the results that Bill Rodgers has been getting out of his two Cleveland pitches, Nichols and Paetz, Naps got all the best of the deal which has won him straight for Cleveland and if the Speakerites win the pennant, as seems likely, Malls will have quite a lot in it.

Of course, Bill Rodgers got a low in cash in addition to Nichols and Paetz. But probably not nearly as much as Malls is worth to Cleveland. Fifteen or twenty thousand dollars would be setting a conservative price on his head.

Star athletes from all points of the Pacific coast are now returning to their respective colleges and just as quickly the football coaches are getting them out in football uniforms.

Unquestionably the greatest surprise that this year has seen "put over" in the Olympic games was the win of the so-called American runner (English code) football team. Through the efforts of these young men, principally from the universities of Saint Clara, Stanford and California, America today stands as the champion rugby country of the world.

There is more "pop" on the University of Nevada football squad at Reno this year than the college has ever known. The Sagebrushers last year had a phenomenal team and this year promises to be even better. The reason is not hard to find. The men who make the team will be given a nice jaunt to Honolulu during Christmas for two games.

Earl Sheely did not do anything during the last series to advance his home-run column, but his hitting outside of "circuits" the bases was consistent. He still leads the race for the honors of the Coast league with an average of .350 against .370 the previous year. Sheely only needs six more "bumers" to equal Bunty Briles' record, with four more weeks, including the present week. If the Salt Lake swat king is going to break the record he will have to get busy.

Plans are on foot to hold a swimming meet at Knappton beach, Alameda, which will include the greatest constellation of swimmers who have ever gathered together. Virtually the entire American team of swimmers who won at the Olympic games will be in the competition. These include Duke Kahanamoku, W. Farris, Krueger, Norman Ross, Helen Moseley, the Kralovich brothers and others. The date has not bird piffle turned out on the Dempsey-Miske affair:

"How any human being could take a wallop like that and still be among the living is beyond the comprehension of many ring followers. Personally, I never want again to see depicted such suffering and agony on a courageous man's face. We heard a pleasing scream and turned to see a woman fainting in the arms of her away from boxing bouts and confine his activities to chess or the reporting of some other mild sport which won't wear so on his nerves."

Later Smith, the 16-year-old swimmer, and a member of the Olympic club of San Francisco, is the sensation of the aquatic world, and experts who have been watching his performance freely are predicting that he will be the man to succeed such men as Norman Ross and Duke Kahanamoku. Smith has been in several 100-yard races of late which he has negotiated in 57 seconds or better, a performance which justifies reasonable expectations in the youngster.

If Sange beat Young Compton and Eddie Macey made Ah Fong, a Chinese, quit in the second round.
