

IRISH FREE HOMES ON FEAR OF DEATH

Young and Old Return After Night Spent in Fields.

FEW REMAIN IN HOUSES

Town's People Sheltered Among Friends in Villages 20 Miles Away From Scene.

BALBRIGGAN, Ireland, Sept. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Nearly 1000 persons about half the population of this party devastated town, crept back to their homes today after having spent a second night of terror in nearby hayfields. Once in the night an alarm was raised which caused a stampede to fields where they took refuge under hedges or hay cocks or other shelter.

Women and old men shivered in the cold until dawn, when a reconnoitering party found things quiet in Balbriggan, and all immediately returned home. The correspondent witnessed the last of the population coming home, women with crying infants, men carrying blankets and food and children endeavoring to rub the sleep from their eyes. Only a handful of the residents had been courageous enough to pass the night in their homes.

Friends Shelter Refugees.

Many townspeople sheltered among friends in neighboring villages while others went to farms about Dublin, more than 20 miles distant.

Groups stood in the streets today gazing at the smoking ruins of houses wrecked by bombs or burned, after having been soaked with petroleum Monday night.

The correspondent saw motor tenders, each containing a half dozen "black and tan" recruits from army men to reinforce the royal Irish constabulary, wearing nondescript uniforms, heading for the town, passing through the main thoroughfare, armed with rifles. The local police consisted of 20 royal Irish constabulary veterans. They are said to have prevented the "black and tan" from burning the principal factory, and also to have saved other property.

Child Narrowly Escapes.

One child had a remarkable escape from a stray bullet, which carried an apple from its mouth without injuring its fingers or lips.

The body of royal Irish constabulary, Inspector James H. O'Connell, who was killed in the early fighting, was removed today from the police station, but the bodies of others were buried in a nearby outhouse today awaiting an inquest.

The manager of a British owned hosiery factory, the inside of which was ruined, was preparing to return to England. He said it would be impossible to rebuild the factory, and that the burning of his factory marked a new phase in alleged attempts to suppress the "Fein."

Many Out of Work.

He said although many crannies which had been community property had been destroyed, he believed the burning of the factory the first instance of a deliberate attack on an industrial works.

About 400 employees, including many women, have been thrown out of work. Skilled mechanics and other employees say they will be unable to find jobs elsewhere in their particular line in Ireland.

One of the men, father of eight children, told the correspondent that his only chance for work was in England.

The "black and tan" are encamped at Gormontown, three miles distant. Their threats to return and complete the destruction are keeping the people at a high pitch.

HEAVY DAMAGE IS DONE

Black and Tan Charged With Murder of County Councillor.

DUBLIN, Sept. 22.—The damage done by the "black and tan" in Balbriggan, in their raids Monday night and yesterday, is estimated at £200,000.

Among the dwellings destroyed were those of Mrs. Andrew White, sister-in-law of Edmund De Valera, and Mrs. Lawrence Finagran, brother-in-law of De Valera.

County Councillor Lynch, a prominent Limerick politician, was shot dead this morning in his hotel apartment in the center of Dublin. His assailants are reported to have been "black and tan" police.

The murder took place at 3 o'clock this morning, according to the press association's account, when uniformed men entered the Royal Exchange hotel, and pointed a revolver at the room of their intended victim, shot him dead.

Mrs. MacSwiney said she found her husband in the same weak and exhausted condition as yesterday.

No reference was made in the report to the prisoner either accepting or refusing nourishment.

Grocer Fined $5.

W. C. Wegener, grocer at Jefferson and Chapman streets, who was arrested several days ago on a charge of attack and battery through H. L. Wright, who claimed to be suffering from temporary blindness at the time, was fined $5 by Municipal Judge George Rossman yesterday.

The altercation arose over the payment of a grocery bill, and Wright, whose eyes were bandaged at the time, admitted that he struck the first blow. Wegener retaliated and asserted that Wright was not blind, inasmuch as he had followed the grocer into the middle of the street in an attempt to do battle.

SEATS OF SOCIALISTS ARE NOT LOST YET

Expulsion Session Not Legal, Many Members Believe.

QUINTET TURNS TO PARTY

Two Withhold Written Resignations Until They Have Consulted Their Constituents.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The assembly having frittered away two days of the extra session in ousting three socialist members and seating two others, who thereupon resigned, tonight asked Attorney-General Newton to decide if these men are really members of the lower house, despite expulsions and resignations.

The unprecedented situation precipitated by the failure of the socialists to present certificates of election to the secretary of state before their oaths of office were administered on Monday may force the assembly to repeal its expulsion proceedings if the board of elections in New York furnishes the socialists with certificates of election before the present extraordinary session adjourns.

Seats Not Lost Yet.

It is the contention of many lawyers in the assembly, including several who voted to expel the socialists that they were not in fact members of the house at the time the three were unseated, and their two associates resigned. Once the vote of last Thursday's special election is canvassed and the election board furnishes certificates, the socialists, it is argued, may go before the secretary of state, swear in as assemblymen, and resume their seats.

Whether the socialists will follow this course in case Attorney-General Newton confirms its legality is not known. Questioned here, they said a conference of party leaders would decide for them.

"It might only mean another farcical expulsion proceeding," remarked Charles Solomon.

Canvass Feature Involved.

In connection with the failure of the board of elections to canvass the vote and furnish certificates of election before the socialists were sworn in, several democratic members of assembly from New York city said if Secretary of State Hugo had refused to administer the oath until election certificates had been received the socialists would not have sat during the extra session at final adjournment is expected to come either on Friday or Saturday.

The board of elections, under the law, had until next Tuesday to canvass the vote of the special election. Although Speaker Sweet, arch-enemy of the socialists, insists the verbal resignation of Orr and Dewitt have the effect of vacating their seats, it is the contention of the state's legal department that Orr and Dewitt will not cease to be assemblymen until their resignations in writing are filed with the secretary of state.

Man and Woman Jailed.

ASTORIA, Or., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Edward J. Butler and a woman said to be Mrs. Madeline Flinn, both of Portland, were arrested here today by Sheriff Nelson and taken before the grand jury on a statutory charge. The pair are alleged to have registered at a local hotel under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Francis. Butler also was held under a warrant from Portland charging him with larceny by bailee.

When Mr. Orr and Mr. Dewitt were informed of the situation they decided to withhold written resignations until they have "consulted" their constituents. "We hope to obtain a definite expression of sentiment from the voters in our districts on Thursday evening," said Mr. Orr. "The situation will be explained by various speakers and the voters will be asked to indicate whether they wish their assemblymen to retain their seats or carry out their intention of resigning," Mr. Orr said.

The socialists also plan to hold a joint meeting of the voters in the third and fourth assembly districts at One Hundred and Sixty-third street and Southern boulevard tomorrow night. This will be in the nature of a protest against the action of the assembly in declaring vacant the seats of Assemblymen Claessens, Solomon and Waldman.

Having served two days of the extra session as members of the legislature, the five socialists are entitled to full compensation for one year's services as legislators, according to assembly officers. This means $1500 for each man.

"We are not after the $1500," said Mr. Dewitt tonight. "We haven't earned it because we were not permitted to do anything during the year. If the money is really due us we are willing to donate it to charity."
