

Trom George Christian Jr., Senator Harding's secretary, to Mrs. Elsie Giles, a prohibitionist of Redlands, Cal, outlining the senator's position. It said that if Senator Harding is elected and the Volstend act repeated be would "act in accordance with his best judgment . . . but would not as president impose his will on con-gress in consideration of this or any DRUGSTORE STRAW VOTE WILL other legislation. BE INTERESTING ONE. The statement said that after the chibition party offered its support the candidate who would pledge himself against weakening of the Volstead act, neither Senator Harding n Governor Cox replied personally, but republican leaders opened negotia-tions with the end to these negotiations with the probibilionists. The Intier from Mr. Christian, however, has put an end to these negotia-tions, according to the statement. <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> The letter, dated August 13, 1920, follows ator Harding directs me to ac knowledge your letter of August 4 and to say that he has been the owner of to say that he has been the owner of two shares of brewery stock since the organization of a brewery in this town some 25 years ago. It was a local nome 25 years ago, it was a local tinue for nine days and results for town the money which was being sent to outside cities and the senator sub-seribed to the enterprise, which was designed to promote the prosperity and growth of his town. "He never received any dividends om this stock, which is now worth-as and the brewery defunct, and this position did not prevent his voting in the legislature for local option laws. He voted for the Volatead act and is in favor of its enforcement as ong as it is upon the statute books. Should he be elected and congress pass a law amending, modifying or re-pealing the Volstead law, he would consider it carefully and act in ac-cordance with his best judgment in connection with it and as to the cir-cumstances of its passage. He would not as president improperly impose his will in consideration of this or any Werdict on Injury Returned Against self.

RAILROAD TAKES 25 PER CENT

OF NEW BOOKINGS.

In General Trade 758 Carloads Are

Represented in Orders, Says

Weekly Statement.

100.000 New business continued low in clume for the week ending Septem-er 18, while railroad buying com-

Arise approximately 25 per cent of the search of the frageness the fragenes of the frage 8000 Stores in All Parts of U. S. to Participate-Results to Be Announced Daily.

force and the reciprocal obligation of treaties in general." The Owl Drug company of Portlan Hayes Precedent Cited, will start taking a presidential straw vote at 9 o'clock this morning, along with 800 other drugstores all over the Secretary Colby, commenting on the point made by the president that con-

FAIRS DONATION GET

breach or violation of such treaties, which are 32 in number and cover every point of contact and mutual dependence which constitutes the modern relations between friends.

modern relations between friendly states. Such a course would be wholly irreconcilable with the his-torical respect which the United States has shown for its international engagements and would falsify every CLEWS IN ATTACK ON PORTrofession of our belief in the binding LAND MAN ELUSIVE.

Labor Unions at Astoria Name Committees to Assist in Police

The suit demanded $199.000, Mrs. Rostad filed the complaint in behalf of her 17-year-old daughter, Florence, who lost a hand and a foot and sus-tained other serious injuries when dragged by a streetcar she was beard ing. Much interest was taken in the case, owing to the large sum of

he is opposed to the league in any GOETZ PROBE BAFFLING CLEWS IN ATTACK ON PORT-CLEWS IN ATTACK ON PORTernor Cox said that it would be "desertion of the allies," and said to his heckler: You ought to be ashamed of your-

Cries and Applause Mixed, Cries of "No, no," were mixed with louder applause and cries of "Put him

E

1

The Most Critical Women Will Appreciate These Handsome

The merchant marine act was approved June 5, in the final rush of the session's close, with no opportunity to suggest, much less secure its revision in any particular. To have vetoed the act would have sacrifierd