

PLUMBER'S RELOADED DENTON MURDER

Boarding Room Where Body Was Found Admitted.

MRS. PEETE IS INVOLVED

Clothing Identified and Found in Suspect's Room Declared Gift From Woman.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—James C. Crowhurst, a plumber living at 1021 South Herber street, admitting that he had nailed shut the door to the death closet in the cellar at 578 South Catalina street, where the body of Joseph O. Denton, wealthy mining man, was found Thursday, yesterday made a sworn statement to Detectives Lyon and Box, which contained sensational developments in the murder mystery.

BERGDOLL TESTIMONY IN COURT HEARING DRAFT EVASION CASE ADJOURNS.

Youth Now Serving Term in Federal Prison Tells of Flight to Escape Service.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—All testimony was in today when court adjourned until Monday in the trial of Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, Charles A. Braun, her son; James E. Romig, a former magistrate; Albert S. Mitchell, automobile salesman; and Harry Schulz, charged with conspiracy to aid Grover and Erwin Bergdoll to evade the draft. At that time counsel will make their final pleas to the jury.

Water Heater Repairs Asked.

On this occasion, he declared, Mrs. Peete wanted him to fix a water heater that she said made a noise that sounded as though a graveyard were awakening up.

Mrs. Peete told Crowhurst, he said, that she was in touch regularly with Denton and knew of his whereabouts, but at his request his relatives were kept in ignorance of this.

"She then described those relatives as a rough and vulgar lot who might attempt some dirty work around the place, even going so far as to do her personal injury."

Crowhurst said she told him she met Denton through some official of the Goodyear Rubber & Tire company and that Denton wanted someone to be in charge of his affairs while "he went off on what may be termed a clandestine trip."

Clothing Declared Gift Him. Just before August 12, Crowhurst said, Mrs. Peete told him that she had received word from Denton saying that Denton was married again, but that Mrs. Peete thought he was in company with one woman but not married.

Mrs. Peete said Denton told her to give his clothing away because he had lost his right arm and intended getting a new one made, instead of giving them away. Crowhurst declared, she asked him to sell them for her and thus account for his having possession of the murdered man's apparel.

At one time, Mrs. Peete told him, the statement said, "Why his (Denton's) relatives have even stated that I and some other woman may have had Mr. Denton up in the mountains of Colorado and murdered him."

Property Listed for Sale. He listed the property for sale, he asserted, at the home of Mrs. Peete, who said the figure of $25,000 given was set by Mr. Denton.

Crowhurst said he had been in Oakland for robbery and paroled in 1910. It was his intention, he said, that the detectives found him because at the business address which his cards give, no one knew much about him, saying he was little known. An ex-convict said to have been Denton's property, was found at a gasoline station at 1000 North Vermont street, where it was declared Crowhurst had sold it.

Other clothing was traced to local second-hand stores, the detectives said.

Fear by Mrs. Peete Reported. A canvass of men remaining alone in the big Catalina street house was made for many days by Mrs. Peete, according to a statement issued yesterday by Mr. Wallace Rimpau of 681 South Bonnie Brae avenue and a friend of Mrs. Peete.

"At first Mrs. Peete," she said, "when she came into my shop near Westlake park to purchase dresses for her little girl, Mrs. Peete said she and Mrs. Gregory were looking for a house, and asked my assistance. Later she came in my shop and happily told me she had found a place. Quite often she visited me, as she said she had grown fond of me."

"I had met her only in a business way until on July 2 she called me on the telephone and abruptly asked me if my husband owned a car. I told her my friend, Mrs. Woods, was coming over and that Mrs. Woods would lend her any assistance with the car. Her explanation was that Mr. Denton, whom I have never seen, had gone away and had left the car for her to use. Mrs. Peete could drive it, but could not back it out of the garage. In answer to her questions I informed her that Mrs. Woods was all right, and so Mrs. Woods and my husband and myself went to her house.

"That evening she asked us if we would not remain in the house with her during the night. She said Mrs. Gregory had been called and that she and her little girl were alone and that she feared to remain alone in the big house. We stayed that night and remained with her the following day, which was Sunday.

"After a drive in the afternoon she asked us to remain the night in the house with her, which we did. During our stay with her she told us that Denton, whom she said she rented the house from, seemed to be in some kind of trouble.

"She also told us of the quarrel between Denton and the Spanish woman and the wound which he had evidently received in a quarrel. At no time had she told me she had seen Denton with his right arm missing.

"She also told us of trouble that had existed between Denton and certain relatives of his and on the morning of July 4, two women came to the house inquiring for Mr. Denton."

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 24.—Mrs. R. C. Peete, who advised for two months the Los Angeles house where the body of Jacob Charles Denton was found yesterday, said today she would start for Los Angeles tomorrow, to sell the authorities all she knows about Denton and the house.

She said she rented the house May 24 and remained there until August 17, when she came to this city, where her husband and little daughter were staying.

June 6, Mrs. Peete said, she received a mysterious telephone warning to remain out of the cellar. She said that she saw little of Denton while living in his house.

"He occupied a room in the house but seldom was there. On June 2 he agreed to give me power of attorney to sell his house. He failed to appear on that day, but I received a message saying he had been injured in an accident.

"Four days later I saw him in an automobile with four other men. His arm was bandaged. A few days later I saw a man enter the house, whom I thought was Denton. He had a patch over his eye and another on his left cheek.

"When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

Mrs. Peete said Denton was friendly with a Spanish woman who called at the house twice while she was there. It was the voice of this woman, Mrs. Peete declared she was confident, who gave her warning over the telephone to stay out of the basement.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

Mrs. Peete said Denton was friendly with a Spanish woman who called at the house twice while she was there. It was the voice of this woman, Mrs. Peete declared she was confident, who gave her warning over the telephone to stay out of the basement.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

When he did not return I instituted a search for him. We found his will, which left most of the property to his daughter, who lives in Phoenix, Ariz. Then I got the mysterious telephone call. I believe that it was in a little room off the basement that Denton's body was found. That room was never opened while I was in the house," Mrs. Peete said today.

EXTRACTION MOVE FOR BARRETT ASKED

Mrs. Spreckels' Solicitors Issue Instructions.

NEW YORK TRIP GIVEN UP

Warrant Charging Theft of Necklace Valued at $14,500 Issued September 17.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Solicitors representing Mrs. John Spreckels Jr., of California have instructed the police to inaugurate extradition proceedings for William Barrett, an American, who is reported to be under surveillance of the police of Los Angeles. A warrant charging Barrett with the theft of a pearl necklace valued at $14,500 was issued on the application of Mrs. Spreckels in the Marlborough police court September 17. Mrs. Spreckels has canceled her passage for New York and will await the return of her husband from Norway.

Her secretary said today Mrs. Spreckels had known Barrett for several years and she met him some months ago at the Sandown race course and that he offered to introduce her to his friends. The secretary declared Mrs. Spreckels gave Barrett her necklace to take to her jeweler to be cleaned and re-strung. Barrett subsequently avoided discussion of the necklace and eventually left London. Later Mrs. Spreckels inaugurated proceedings which resulted in the issuance of the police court warrant.

Barrett declares innocence. Accused Man Calls at Office of Los Angeles District Attorney.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—William Barrett, for whose arrest a warrant was reported to have been issued in London in connection with the theft of a necklace from Mrs. John Spreckels Jr., visited the district attorney's office here Wednesday and yesterday.

He was said to have told the police the matter was "all a mistake" adding, "there is nothing criminal in my connections with Mrs. Spreckels and her jewels and as soon as my London solicitor can investigate and telegraph I am sure that I will be cleared of implication."

Erwin wore the brown denim uniform of an army prisoner and two armed guards stood beside him while he testified. He denied that anyone had aided him in his flight.

"No one induced me to run off," he declared. While the United States was at war with Germany Erwin testified he and Grover fished many days near Hagerstown, Md. Under instruction he detailed his flight across the country, part of the time with his brother Grover, also a convicted draft evader, who recently escaped from army guards in Philadelphia and now is a fugitive.

He also told how he had spent long stretches at his home at Broomall, Delaware county, sleeping in barn to foil raiders who might appear at the house.

Following the escape of Grover on May 21, Erwin said, he had remained away from his home until he decided to surrender last July 20.

The federal agents, he said, not only were visible to him as they raided his home, but that of his brother, Charles Braun, which adjacents, but they also went through the barn without finding him.

The raid on his home, the witness said, was on the morning of January 7, the same day that his brother Grover was captured at his mother's suburban residence.

Attending the ceremony were most of the archbishops and bishops of the Catholic church in the United States and hundreds of other prominent religious and government officials and diplomatic representatives of foreign nations.

Bishop Shahan, rector of the Catholic university, and Bishop John E. McNicholas of Duluth delivered the addresses.

Bishop Shahan announced that Pope Benedict XV had sent the papal benediction to all those participating in the service today, and that the pope was making gifts, the first of its kind ever to come to America, of a life-size mosaic copy of Murillo's "Immaculate Conception," which will be placed when the shrine is completed.

A great deal of it goes to bunker American shipping board vessels in the far east," Lewin said.

The navy department said that no effort had been made to seize any plant of the Shell company, but Lewin said he feared that if the company continued the plants might be taken over by the government.

The navy supply ship Kanawha was at Martinec today waiting for a supply of 25,000 barrels from the Shell company, navy officials said. The oil was wanted for destroyers and other vessels at San Pedro.

"We cannot give the navy the 25,000 barrels it demands," Lewin said, "because we simply have not got it."

Committee's Meeting Called. VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 24.—

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

EXTRACTION MOVE FOR BARRETT ASKED

Mrs. Spreckels' Solicitors Issue Instructions.

NEW YORK TRIP GIVEN UP

Warrant Charging Theft of Necklace Valued at $14,500 Issued September 17.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Solicitors representing Mrs. John Spreckels Jr., of California have instructed the police to inaugurate extradition proceedings for William Barrett, an American, who is reported to be under surveillance of the police of Los Angeles. A warrant charging Barrett with the theft of a pearl necklace valued at $14,500 was issued on the application of Mrs. Spreckels in the Marlborough police court September 17. Mrs. Spreckels has canceled her passage for New York and will await the return of her husband from Norway.

Her secretary said today Mrs. Spreckels had known Barrett for several years and she met him some months ago at the Sandown race course and that he offered to introduce her to his friends. The secretary declared Mrs. Spreckels gave Barrett her necklace to take to her jeweler to be cleaned and re-strung. Barrett subsequently avoided discussion of the necklace and eventually left London. Later Mrs. Spreckels inaugurated proceedings which resulted in the issuance of the police court warrant.

Barrett declares innocence. Accused Man Calls at Office of Los Angeles District Attorney.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—William Barrett, for whose arrest a warrant was reported to have been issued in London in connection with the theft of a necklace from Mrs. John Spreckels Jr., visited the district attorney's office here Wednesday and yesterday.

He was said to have told the police the matter was "all a mistake" adding, "there is nothing criminal in my connections with Mrs. Spreckels and her jewels and as soon as my London solicitor can investigate and telegraph I am sure that I will be cleared of implication."

Erwin wore the brown denim uniform of an army prisoner and two armed guards stood beside him while he testified. He denied that anyone had aided him in his flight.

"No one induced me to run off," he declared. While the United States was at war with Germany Erwin testified he and Grover fished many days near Hagerstown, Md. Under instruction he detailed his flight across the country, part of the time with his brother Grover, also a convicted draft evader, who recently escaped from army guards in Philadelphia and now is a fugitive.

He also told how he had spent long stretches at his home at Broomall, Delaware county, sleeping in barn to foil raiders who might appear at the house.

Following the escape of Grover on May 21, Erwin said, he had remained away from his home until he decided to surrender last July 20.

The federal agents, he said, not only were visible to him as they raided his home, but that of his brother, Charles Braun, which adjacents, but they also went through the barn without finding him.

The raid on his home, the witness said, was on the morning of January 7, the same day that his brother Grover was captured at his mother's suburban residence.

Attending the ceremony were most of the archbishops and bishops of the Catholic church in the United States and hundreds of other prominent religious and government officials and diplomatic representatives of foreign nations.

Bishop Shahan, rector of the Catholic university, and Bishop John E. McNicholas of Duluth delivered the addresses.

Bishop Shahan announced that Pope Benedict XV had sent the papal benediction to all those participating in the service today, and that the pope was making gifts, the first of its kind ever to come to America, of a life-size mosaic copy of Murillo's "Immaculate Conception," which will be placed when the shrine is completed.

A great deal of it goes to bunker American shipping board vessels in the far east," Lewin said.

The navy department said that no effort had been made to seize any plant of the Shell company, but Lewin said he feared that if the company continued the plants might be taken over by the government.

The navy supply ship Kanawha was at Martinec today waiting for a supply of 25,000 barrels from the Shell company, navy officials said. The oil was wanted for destroyers and other vessels at San Pedro.

"We cannot give the navy the 25,000 barrels it demands," Lewin said, "because we simply have not got it."

Committee's Meeting Called. VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 24.—

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Rue de la Paix Candies for That Girl Who Appreciates Quality—Street Floor

Lipman Wolfe & Co.

"Merchandise of Merit Only"

Last Day!

And of Course YOU Will Come and SAVE Today

on Your Choice of an Unequalled Showing of

Finer Suits In Our Sale

for Men and Young Men, at

$44.50

Stein-Bloch Suits

Also Langham and Others of the Very Highest Grade

All New Styles All New Patterns Every Suit All Wool

TWEEDS, cassimeres, unfinished worsteds and navy serge—for men of every build and taste.

—Each of these suits is finer and more beautiful than the other, so you will find great opportunities right up to the close of the sale tonight, but, remember, you can save

Today Only, for the Last Time, at the Lowest Price

Fifth Floor—Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

Globe Underwear

WORN by men of taste and discrimination—men who possess to the fullest that fine sense which impels them to wear clothing in which they can feel and look their best always.

—Seldom will you find underwear made with such great care; never will you find garments containing as many quality and comfort features at such moderate prices. We are listing a few.

—We are principal Portland agents for this famous brand of underwear. Drop in today and outfit yourself.

Men's Shop, Just Inside Washington-Street Entrance—Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

For Specialized Mail-Order Service, Address Our Personal Service Bureau

COUPLE BELIEVED LOST

MAN AND WIFE MAY BE WITHOUT PROVISIONS.

Jesse Tuck and Mate Not Heard From Since Going to Mountains 3 Weeks Ago.

BEND, Or., Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Fear that Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Tuck of Bend may be lost, without provisions, in the Grizzly basin country, 20 miles from Mount Jefferson, prompted the departure of a large search party which left Sisters this morning.

No news from the missing couple has been received for the past three weeks, and in view of the storms which have occurred recently in the higher altitudes, considerable apprehension is felt for the safety of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away, shortly after the first of the month, making no mention, as far as has been learned, of the length of time they intended to remain. Nothing was thought of their long absence until Indians reported that they had reason to believe that the horses had been lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck, is was learned, left Sisters with five horses for Grizzly basin, 20 miles away,