TRUMP CAMPAIGN TO END.—The campaign for subscriptions in Oregon to the first loan of the "Irish republic" will end October 15, the headquarters of the American commission on Irish independence, with offices in 409 Medical building, has announced.
The campaign in Oregon has been directed under the direction of Dr. Andrew C. Smith with a quota of $100,000. The national loan is $10,000,000, authorized on August 20, 1919, by Dan Breen, the congress of the so-called republic of Ireland, and in addition to an internal loan already subscribed in Ireland. Bond certificates are being issued by the trustees of the Dal Gorta fund as rapidly as possible. State officers of the Oregon commission include Dr. Smith, John C. Flynn of Lakeview, P. O'Brien, Astoria, Francis McMenamin, Heppner, Dennis O'Connor, Klamath Falls, Thomas Brown, Salem, William Keelher, Roseburg, Frank McNally, Pendleton, J. J. Peare, La Grande, Hugh O'Kane, Bend, and others.

ELKS TO ENTERTAIN.—Tomorrow night will be women's night at the Elks club, when the social rooms of the lodge will be thrown open to Elks and their families and an excellent programme will be put on by the entertainment committee. This opening house affair will mark the opening of the social activities of the club, and, according to Joe Reich, chairman of the committee which has charge of this event, preparations are being made to start the season off with a bang. Several professional acts have been obtained from the theaters besides the local talent that will be presented on the evening. The programme will begin sharply at 8:30 P. M.

REED DEAN BACK FROM BRITAIN.—Miss Bertha, instructor of English at Reed college, returned Saturday from an 11 weeks' tour of England. She began her tour at the close of college last spring and expected to take up her work at the opening of this semester, but delayed by dock strikes in England. Miss Young visited all the cathedral towns among which were Canterbury and Winchester, and her tour also included Wales. Miss Young is dean of women and is one of the popular members of the Reed faculty.

MEASURING OF IRRIGATION IS SUBJECT.—"What Irrigation Means to Portland" will be the subject of the principal address before the members forum of the Portland Chamber of Commerce at the regular weekly luncheon and meeting of the forum this noon at the Chamber of Commerce dining-room. The first all-day meeting of the women's association of the First Presbyterian church will be held tomorrow. The morning will be devoted to sewing and in the afternoon an informal reception will be held in honor of Mrs. H. L. Bowman. All women of the congregation are invited.

Mrs. M. M. Sleeth, state president of the W. C. T. U., addressed the Willard union Friday afternoon on "Anti-Narcotics." The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. G. M. Pratt.

The social activities of Reed college were opened Saturday night when the sophomore class gave the annual reception for the freshmen. The reception was informal and the entire college community was invited. All guests were cards on which their names had been written, and the freshmen were further honored by a little green star printed in the upper left-hand corner.

Simplicity marked the decorations. Reed pennants formed a conspicuous part of the decorative scheme and garlands of ivy and artificial roses added to the beauty of the hall. Dancing was the chief entertainment of the evening, but games were enjoyed by a few who did not dance. The reception committee was composed of Lewis Jones, president of the sophomore class, Francis King, vice-president, Dr. Knapp, Kinsley, Dr. and Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Bacon and Miss Young of the faculty.

Women's Activities

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 26.—Two young women, Miss Mary Grimm and Miss Eva Knight, who are running for offices in Lewis county, south of here, recently found that entering politics brought them discomforts. While "stumping" an isolated section of the county their automobile broke down and they were forced to spend the night in the woods without wraps. The next day they learned that a large cougar frequently has been seen on the spot where they slept.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 26.—(Special)—The Ladies' Civic club of Winlock is co-operating with the Red Cross in plans for the erection of a library as a memorial to Winlock boys who served in the world war. The Winlock council has offered the city's park as a site. Plans have been perfected by the civic club for a reception for Winlock teachers, to be held Wednesday night.

REGISTRATION RECORD SET. 1100 Students Put Names on U. of W. Books Opening Day. First day registration at the University of Washington exceeded all previous records with the high mark of 1100 paid registrants. Last year the total for the first day was less than 1000.

Over $35,000 was paid into the office of the controller in fees and deposits. The fee for the associated students was raised from $5 to $10 this year. Men outnumbered the women registering this year by 200. Business administration was the course selected by nearly half of the men, the others dividing between law, liberal arts, science, engineering and forestry. The women registered largely in liberal arts, fine arts and home economics.

COTTAGE GROVE HAS QUEER CANNIBAL Vegetable Product. COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 26.—(Special)—This seems a freak year for tomatoes. Numerous specimens have been brought into the city showing one tomato growing from the heart of a larger one. Those who claim to know say that this cannibalistic form of vegetable is the result of the tomato starting a second growth. The last such specimen was raised by Little Constance Mote. Several weeks ago a doughnut shaped tomato was picked by F. C. Coffman and as the result of publicity given the vegetable, Mr. Coffman received a letter from a seed house asking for the seeds of the tomato for propagation purposes.

Two male passengers were the only other occupants of the stage. They both jumped and escaped injury. There have been numerous accidents on this same grade. The cause of the recent accident was weak springs, which allowed the fender to drop down on the front wheel, which threw the machine out of the road.

Twenty years ago the housewife's kitchen was equipped with a plain iron sink encased in unsanitary, vermin-inviting, moisture-holding woodwork. Today she may have a beautifully enameled one-piece fixture—no cracks or crevices to afford breeding places for vermin; adjustable from 30 to 36 inches from floor—no weariness in working over a sink that is too low.
