

CHINA HELD GIVEN TO JAPAN BY WILSON

Senator Says Friends Surrendered to Antagonist.

AMERICA DECLARED HIT

Interests, Policies, Commerce and Safety Yielded Declares New; California Case Cited.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—President Wilson has "surrendered our friend, the republic of China, to our antagonist, the empire of Japan," Senator Harry S. New, Indiana, declared today in a statement issued by a republican national campaign purposes committee...

To Japan President Wilson has conceded a paramount position in Asia, by means of the Lansing-Ishii agreement. To Japan he has given up the "open door" obtained by John Hay for American trade in China...

New Sacrifices Held Asked. "As a consequence of this timid anti-American course, he is now being pressed for more sacrifices and surrenders of American interests. Japan finds him so willing to give away American interests that she is determined to get the pound of flesh while the getting is good."

"She demands now that she settle the California land question in her favor and guarantee her all rights and privileges of citizenship on the Pacific coast; and she demands this final sacrifice with vague threats of 'serious' complications if the sacrifice is not made."

"This is the danger that a 'supine and timid democratic policy has brought us to—the danger of public conflict. That is the kind of peace that a democrat in the White House guarantees us with his international and un-American policies."

SCHOOLS BADLY CROWDED

Courthouse to Be Used Temporarily as Classroom.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Contention given local schools has caused the school board to equip the main street courthouse as a school room. It is expected to care for about 100 pupils while the new Fairview school is being built. The courthouse is one of two in litigation. The supreme court is now being asked to reverse the decision of the circuit court declaring the other, or Hot Springs courthouse, the legal capital of the county.

Argument will be heard October 12. Meanwhile attorneys for the main street site refuse to agree to the use of the courthouse for a school. It is likely that the opposition will take active form.

ica, but for the remainder of the world as well. I shouldn't do that. I'm perfect as I am. I don't see that I am without a single programme constructive in character about an association of nations. I know this one thing definitely, however: The democratic nominee for president is in favor of going into the league as it was fashioned at Versailles. I'm not in favor of going into that league. When I'm elected president the first thing I'll do is to find a plan for an association of nations behind which all America will stand.

The senator also departed from his prepared manuscript in his reference to President Wilson's failure to negotiate certain commercial treaties under provisions of the new merchant marine act. "If I were president," he said, "I would call congress together and tell the reason when I called me to fail to carry out the provisions of its legislation."

COOLIDGE GREETED LODGEMENT

Cultivation of Charitable Spirit Held Greatest Need.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Governor Coolidge sounded the call for the elimination from American public life of the spirit of vindictiveness which he said was all too prevalent. He was addressing the sovereign grand lodge, Independent Order of Oddfellows, in a formal welcome on the occasion of the opening of their annual convention.

"There is nothing that this nation so needs today as the cultivation of a charitable spirit. We must have done with intolerance and with selfishness, the government and the people. It is of the gravest national concern," he continued, "that this changed international position shall not work to the injury of our industrial and agricultural life. We are not prepared to wipe from our books Europe's debts to us, but it would be incomparably better for our credit to remain unobscured and our balance to be waived than for liquidation to take the form of an undermining flood of imports, that would cripple American industry, degrade the American laborer and weaken our whole economic fabric."

Industry Held Drifting. Democratic negligence of domestic problems, the senator asserted, had left industry, commerce, labor and finance to "struggle and drift" and find its way out of war conditions as best it could. He referred to the republican proposal made in the senate in September, 1918, to create a joint congressional commission on re-employment of the war veterans.

EUGENE GIRLS ARRESTED

FORGERY OF FATHER'S NAME IS CHARGED.

Eugene, Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Mrs. Virginia Douglas, aged 16, and her sister-in-law, Esther Douglas, 17, were arrested in San Francisco Sunday on a warrant charging them with forgery and accused of forging the name of the latter's father, William M. Douglas, a former merchant marine, to a check and passing it at a local store September 13. This check was for $29.75.

The women also accused of passing several other worthless checks at local stores, charged with having signed fictitious names to at least three, one for $5.80, another for $20 and the third for $23.75. It is alleged that the girls had hats and articles of wearing apparel, receiving considerable change after each purchase. Mrs. Virginia Douglas' husband, Sherman Douglas, is now in the Lane county jail awaiting action of the grand jury on a statutory charge, having been arrested at Klamath Falls several weeks ago with a girl with whom it is alleged he eloped.

The arrest of Edwin Sink, alias Edwin Potter, was made in San Francisco Sunday on a warrant charging him with passing bad checks. He had been arrested in the city on a charge of passing bad checks, and was taken to San Francisco, corresponded with one of them. He had entered the army and was arrested at Fort McDowell.

ALASKA OIL LAND SOUGHT

APPLICATIONS FOR 388,000 ACRES FILED IN JUNEAU.

Permits Must Be Expedited to Get Equipment Together for Shipment Next Spring.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Applications for oil lands covering more than 388,000 acres have been filed at the United States land office in Juneau, Alaska, since passage of the new leasing regulations according to the figures of Frank A. Boyle, registrar of the land office at Juneau. He was stated to have received patches received here today. The applications filed aggregate 175 in number, 123 being filed during the past month, covering 130,900 acres.

Of the total area for which applications have been filed, 18,000 acres lie in the cold bay field. Other districts are at Katalla, Yakutat, Iliamna, Kootanaah, Cape Spencer, Chitina Bay, Seward, and Wainwright. The Seattle chamber of commerce recently appealed to Secretary of the Interior John Barry Payne to expedite the granting of permits and advised him that unless that was done applicants for permits would be unable to get equipment together for shipment to Alaska next spring.

IRRIGATION IS ASKED

FARM PRODUCE WOULD MORE THAN REPAY COSTS.

Whitney L. Boise Says Work of Reclamation Has Passed Experimental Stages.

The placing of northwest arid land under irrigation would mean an increase of $300,000,000 a year in farm products was the declaration of Whitney L. Boise, in addressing the members' forum of the Portland Chamber of Commerce at its regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon. Mr. Boise, one of the leaders in irrigation matters among the members of the chamber, was addressing the members of the chamber at the Portland irrigation congress at Seattle recently.

Experience at Yakima, he said, has shown that original expenditure on irrigation projects will mean a return of from three to four times as much every year in the value of farm products. The Yakima project, he pointed out, cost less than $10,000,000, and the value of the products each year is between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000. Irrigation has passed out of the experimental stage, he said, and in forwarding reclamation work the government is only asked to lend its credit, as the reclaimed districts themselves pay back the cost of the improvement. He urged members of the chamber to urge action by congress. T. L. Stanley, secretary of the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce, and H. O. Probach, secretary of the Modoc chamber, were called upon to speak regarding the non-partisan league, and both urged that a constructive rather than a vindictive campaign be waged against the league in Oregon. Mr. Stanley was formerly a county agricultural agent in North Dakota and was secretary of the chamber of labor just prior to the non-partisan league regime, while Mr. Probach had experience with the league in Montana. Both urged the Oregon citizens take up the fight against the league. They advised, however, that the soundest way to fight the league is to study the farmers' needs and attempt to help the farmers in a constructive way.

Rev. C. F. Deems of San Francisco, assistant superintendent of the American Seaman's Institute, spoke regarding the matter of the league in Oregon. He pointed out, however, that the soundest way to fight the league is to study the farmers' needs and attempt to help the farmers in a constructive way.

RHODES WINNER POPULAR

EUGENE CAMPUS HEARS OF KERBY MILLER'S CHOICE.

Mrs. May K. Miller, Mother of Student, Now Attending University of Oregon.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—The news of the election of Kerby S. Miller, ex-University of Oregon student, to represent the United States at Oxford as a Rhodes scholar, was received on the campus with keen interest by the many faculty members and students who knew him. Miller has always been a very popular student in the philosophy department, in which he majored. He was graduated last spring with exceedingly good grades, and his instructors pronounced him an extraordinary student.

Mrs. May K. Miller, of Eugene, mother of Miller, is now attending the university, and is also a philosophy student. Although only 21 years old, Miller graduated with the class of 1920, winning a philosophy scholarship at Columbia university, New York, for that year. He was appointed to West Point appointment, but at the end of the war did not care to stay at the academy.

His education was spent in Medford, Or., where he was graduated from the Medford high school. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi of a Constant in the Concept of Space, has excited notice in the scientific world, and will shortly appear in the American Journal of Philosophy.

Plea for Presidential Pardon Made But Sentence Must Be Carried Out Now.

Fifteen months in the federal prison at McNeil's island must be served by P. W. Bold of Bonanza, Or., who sought a further reprieve from the sentence imposed on him January 24, 1919, when he was convicted of having violated the espionage act. Pleas for leniency and for delay while a petition for presidential pardon is under consideration, were set aside by Judge Wolverson yesterday, when the court held that Bold must begin the serving of sentence.

M. E. Crumpacker, attorney for Bold, asked that commitment be delayed until the pardon petition could be heard from, citing the fact that Marie Equit, also under sentence for similar offenses, had been granted three reprieves, the last of which expires October 13.
