Fanswering your telegram, thorough investigation of shooting as it affects Officers Woods, Biggins and Smith has been ordered made by Supervising Federal Prohibition Agent Considine and upon receipt of his report appropriate action will be taken."

Attorney Watkins, appearing at the hearing conducted by Mayor Baker for Police Inspector Morris, announced Yesterday that he would file a writ of habeas corpus to transfer the case now filed against Pairolmen Morris and Jackson from the circuit court to the federal court. He contended that the patrolman, who were working on federal detail, are entitled to the same protection afforded federal officers. Monday Federal Judge Wolverton issued a writ of habeas corpus, transferring the cases of the federal officers from the state to the federal officers from the state to the federal officers from the state to the federal court.

"Who was it," sought the attorney.
"I don't know," came back Huntington, before attorneys for the defense could enter objections.

"Bo you were so cold blooded that after you had killed the man you did not even ascertain who he was," came the prosecutor,

Yigorous objections were voiced by the defense attorneys who admitted that their witness had sunk into mires from which it was difficult to extricate himself.

Baker Also Inquisitive.

"The witness has aiready got himself in a hole," said Mayor Baker, presiding at the hearing. "Now let him pull himself out. Answer the question."

"Well, in 1898 I was a sharpshooter during the Spanish-American war and when I fired a shot I never made it my business to inquire as to who was killed as a result."
