Teutons Should Be Admitted, Governor Tells Audience.

DRY STAND REITERATED

Harding Bitterly Assailed and Termed Brewer; Baltimore Speech Brings On Attack.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 28.—A statement regarding the Volstead prohibition enforcement law—that he would oppose 'any measure that is in conflict with the constitution and the 18th amendment, as interpreted by the supreme court," and hombardments of questions regarding the league of nations from persons of German blood—marked a lively tour of South Dakota today by Governor Cox.

The democratic presidential candi-date also launched new criticism of Senator Harding, his republican opoonent, assalling bitteriy the sena-tor's Baltimore speech of yesterday and again dubbing bim a "brewer."

Cox Tells Dry Stand. Governor Cox's statement upon the Volstead act, the first he has made directly, was in response to a question—the first from any of his audiences—from a man at Mitchell late If elected president of the United regard to the Volstead law?" was the point-blank query made.

"My attitude with reference to that whole question is this." Governor Cox repiled. "I shall oppose any measure that is in conflict with the constitution of the United States and the 18th amendment, as interpreted by the supreme court."

Junkers War Guilty.

He said that German junkers, not the masses, caused the war, and, discussing "America first" and "Deutschland uber alles," declared that progerman slogan was selfish and its policy disastrous.

In virtually all of his speeches today, a total of 16, including 14 outdoors in a bitting wind with the thermometer around the 50 mark. Governor Cox assailed Senator Harding. Deploring and denouncing the senator's demur yesterday at Baitlmore to a question upon the sleague and the

at the administration in power."

The league of nations and agricultural topics were discussed by the governor to all of his 15 South Dakota audiences, mostly rear platform gatherings, which the candidate ad-dressed in a heavy bluster and raw blast. It was the coldest day of his biast. It was the coldest day of his campaign. Statements initiated yesterday in Nebraska, regarding lengue support by all religious organizations, were repeated today through this state and again were applauded demonstratively. The outdoor programme surely taxed the governor.

Several persons mostly with pronounced German accents, questioned the governor at different places. Some appeared friendly and caused the governor to give his views on questions interesting his audience.

Germans Lauded as Thrifty.

Germans Lauded as Thrifty.

"We have no concern about any national bitterness in America," the governor said. "The war is over and Germany should be treated just as well as any other nation. The German sare a very thrifty and hard working people. The German people were not responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was the junkers that were responsible for the war. It was in part:

"The candidate should welcome inquiries. I can understand how a member of a senatorial oligarchy which throughout the years has defied public wishes and the public interest would develop as a habit the thought that the senatorial mind should not be questioned.

"In our campaign throughout the west the purpose has been to counsel with the people, and in this experience I have not only welcomed but invited questions. I can understand how a should be welcome, as every other nation in the world ought to be welcome without any prefudices."

Harding Attacked Again.

In continuing his attacks upon Senator Harding for the republican nominee's objection to questions of the senatorial oil. Germans Lauded as Thrifty.

In continuing his attacks upon Sen-ator Harding and the "senatorial oli-garchy," the governor declared that contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonstul of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleaness the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out casily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few cunces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your drugglist gives you Mulsified.—Adv.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Thirty carloads of steel have been unloaded here for the new Scandinavian-American bank building, which has been held up for some months because of inability to get cars on which to ship steel from Pittsburg. Included in the shipment for the 16-story bank and office building were seven large girders, 56 feet long by seven feet wide and weighing from 20 to 30 tons each.

The steel will be hauled to the building site by special electric engines and construction will be started with a large force just as soon as the material is on the ground.
