

NORMAN S. RICHARDS IN RACE FOR MAYOR

Candidate Belongs to Progressive Wing of Republicans.

BOSSISM GETS GOOD RAP

Municipal Ownership Is Advocated. Orgy of Profiteering Should Cease, Also His Belief.

Norman S. Richards will be a candidate for mayor and his nominating petition will probably be filed this morning. He is a brother of Oran R. Richards, member of the legislature and candidate for re-election as representative from Multnomah.

Mr. Richards, whose announcement declares "his thoughts are ever turned toward the rising sun, and that he is a bachelor in his 40s, belongs to the progressive wing of the republican party. He was elected as a delegate to the Chicago convention in 1912, and was one of the 70 men over the seating of whom the republican party split.

Mr. Richards is very energetic and very persistent in his views and ideas and he is a man that it is hard to do anything with or influence unless he thinks it is right."

Not having been an accumulator of money, continues the statement, he believes the rights of man are superior to the rights of property. However, he believes that "every man should make his daily bread by the sweat of his brow and he has little use for those who do not work, but idle their time away."

Mr. Richards is a lawyer who has practiced in Nebraska, Montana, Washington and Oregon. "What we need," continues the announcement, "is intelligence and competency in office, not men who are tools for some special interest as there should be no special interests and no bosses, but the people should be as free as possible, having a mind to obedience and discipline and every man should be protected within the rightful and just bounds as to his property and his property rights."

City Ownership Advocated. The latest candidate is a believer in municipal ownership of all public utilities and that "this orgy of profiteering should cease, and that we should live and let live and that as all prices are now falling and all sorts of stocks are becoming cheap, there should be an immediate reduction in street-car fares, electric light rates and telephone rates and that the city should do as much of its work as possible on the plan of force account and a few contractors should not become rich at the expense of the taxpayers of this city, and that it should be a misdemeanor for anyone to buy municipal bonds at less than their par value. The people have bonded themselves to build roads and not to make a few men rich."

With this general platform announcement, Norman S. Richards enters the lists.

GYM CLASSES PLANNED

BUREAU OF PARKS TO START ACTIVITIES OCTOBER 18.

Popular Recreational Gatherings in Public Schools Are Again Being Fostered.

Gymnasium and recreational classes under supervision of the bureau of parks will start October 18.

These classes are for women and girls over 18 years and are held in the school buildings from 8 to 9:30 P. M. A petition, name sent to the park bureau office, city hall, and permission from the school board to use the school one night a week, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association, is necessary to start a class in any district. The park bureau furnishes a competent instructor for each class.

Last year classes were held in 33 schools in the city, with an attendance of 15,000. This year a much larger attendance is expected. The following are the schools that held classes last year: Arleta, Clinton Kelly, Couch, Elliot, Franklin high, Glenwood, Glenhaven, Highland, Kerne, Kellogg, Mount Tabor, Montavilla, Peninsula, Richmond, St. Johns, Sunnyside, Vernon, Washington high and Woodstock.

Peninsula park and Sellwood community houses will be open for registration October 6 and class work will start Monday, October 11. In these two community houses the classes are for both boys and girls over three years. The men and women have classes in the evenings, also, with special business men's classes at noon and 5 o'clock.

The Saturday evening social dances every other week, so popular in both community houses last year, will start the latter part of the month, dates being announced later.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 29.—Sixty delegates from all districts of the Pacific coast, including some of the most eminent prelates of the country, will attend the third synod of the province of the Pacific of the Protestant Episcopal church which opened here today, morning.

The comfortable results of correct living generally shine right out in the faces of people who drink POSTUM. A delightfully flavored beverage—healthful and All-American Sold by grocers.

COBB BAGS 2 BLACK BEARS, DEER, FISH

Adventures of Writer Told by Camera Men.

8000 FILM FEET TAKEN

Movie Operators Accompany Hunting Party on Tour of Central and Eastern Oregon.

Two black bears, one two-year-old buck, the limit of mountain trout and a bunch of ducks has been the total bag thus far of the Irvin S. Cobb hunting party in central and eastern Oregon, according to reports brought to Portland by Lewis H. Mendelsohn and Perry Reigelman, movie cameramen, who "shot" about 8000 feet of film of the noted short story writer.

The deer was the first game brought down. It was shot on the shores of Lake Odell. The Cobb party was guided to this point by Bill Brock, who has charge of the government concession at the lake.

"From Odell lake the party went to Crater lake where Mr. Cobb quickly obtained his limit of fish," said Mr. Reigelman. "Luck appeared to follow the party from that point to Paulina lake, under the guidance of Bill Vandervoort and bear dogs. They tried and killed two black bear.

"However, no signs of lava-bearing could be found, so they were extremely rough going, and the party went from that point to Paulina lake, under the guidance of Bill Vandervoort and bear dogs. They tried and killed two black bear.

"The dogs found it fairly easy going through the jack-pine and got well ahead of the party. Presently Mr. Cobb and Dr. Roberts found themselves separated from Mr. Vandervoort and the dogs. Mr. Vandervoort became separated from them all and lost complete track of his dogs. Mr. Vandervoort is an old-timer and knew the uselessness of attempting to hunt the dogs in the thick jack-pine so he returned to camp.

Dr. Roberts and Mr. Cobb came to a large pine. They were tired and wanted to rest, so they reclined beneath the friendly shade of the pine boughs and fell asleep.

"A short time later, Roberts became annoyed by the baying of one of the hounds a short distance away. He suggested that Mr. Cobb should be a hound with a bear up a tree. But the short-story writer was of another opinion. He insisted the hound was just circling around like hounds do in fox hunting, but he gathered himself up from his repose and had scarcely gone a hundred yards when they came upon the hound with a bear up a tree—one of the tallest trees in the vicinity. Mr. Cobb closed in on the tree, leveled his rifle and the bear dropped to the ground.

Between the bear hunts, the party went to East lake for fishing and caught a satisfactory bunch of rainbow trout. The party left for Bond for Burns where they went duck hunting on the Mathews lakes and later antelope hunting. On the completion of the Oregon hunt, Mr. Cobb plans to go to the Yellowstone National park where he will arrange a hunting trip in the districts just outside the park.
