Litroit's victory in the opener today broke Walter Mails' winning streak. He held a four-run lead when Detroit solved his delivery in the eighth and tied the score. Uhle, who succeeded him, was taken out after passing one man in the eighth.

Calculate was in several times process. Caldwell was in several tight places and was hit freely in the second con-test, but his support stood up fairly well behing him, considering the ex-tremely cold weather. Scores;
