

DRUNKEN ARSON MOB LEVELS IRISH TOWN

Soldiers in Wild Revel Before Starting Work of Destruction.

GASOLINE SPREADS FLAME

Bombs Add Terror to Debauchery; Systematic Sacking of Homes and Stores Lasts 3 Hours.

TUBBERCERRY, Ireland, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press.) Town half in ruins and the remainder of its inhabitants living in dread of a repetition of the riotous and lawless behavior of the drunken mob...

People Boycott Police. For many weeks the correspondent was told, the local police had been subject to a boycott by the townspeople. For a fortnight preceding Thursday's riot the police were ordered to have been fired on from the roofs of a store adjoining the barracks.

Revel Precedes Arson. Accounts of what happened afterward as given to the correspondent by various townspeople follow: The rioters stopped in front of a public house and when the occupants came out, they were ordered to get out, Commissioner Russell begged them not to destroy property.

Many Dressed as Police. Those who came in contact with the rioters said some of them wore long black coats and policemen's caps. Others were dressed in khaki.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

bidder protested what the called the "railroading" of the proposed sale of the property. Senator Chamberlain who is in Portland was also brought into the conference. H. B. Miller, director of the division of supplies and sales has promised a delay. Senator Chamberlain said last night.

Announcement that bids for the shipping board property would be received was made to the public last Thursday morning and the closing of bids was set for 4 P. M. Friday.

COBB TALKS TO TEACHERS

HUMORIST CHATS INFORMALLY AT INSTITUTE AT BURNS. Praise of Oregon and Oregon People Is Unstinted—Boundaries of State Called Latch String.

BURNS, Or., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The Harney County Teachers' Institute, closing yesterday with an informal talk by Irvin Cobb. Mr. Cobb was accompanied by the members of his party and William Hanley, who always on the outside, and that the words, "welcome" is tattooed on the hearts of the people. The south asks of a man, "Who is he?" the north asks, "How much has he got?"—but the west asks, "What can he do?"

People Boycott Police. For many weeks the correspondent was told, the local police had been subject to a boycott by the townspeople. For a fortnight preceding Thursday's riot the police were ordered to have been fired on from the roofs of a store adjoining the barracks.

Revel Precedes Arson. Accounts of what happened afterward as given to the correspondent by various townspeople follow: The rioters stopped in front of a public house and when the occupants came out, they were ordered to get out, Commissioner Russell begged them not to destroy property.

Many Dressed as Police. Those who came in contact with the rioters said some of them wore long black coats and policemen's caps. Others were dressed in khaki.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

SPEED, SAYS PASTOR, IS CRIME OF THE AGE

Next Generation to Inherit St. Vitus Dance, Warning.

FAITHFUL ARE ARRAIGNED

No One in World More to Blame for Wrong Conditions Than Christians, Congregation Told.

"When the new age takes possession of the world it will be when Christians practice their professed faith," said Reverend E. E. Flint, of the Atkinson Memorial Congregational church, yesterday, applying the text, "When the Son of Man Cometh Will He Find Faith?"

It is something not to be ashamed of, but to be proud of. The S. O. S. call of religion in the practice of its faith. When Jesus comes he may not care to look up all the articles in our declaration of faith, but he will give heed as to how many treats man, the world over. The exploiting of one man by another is not faith. It makes no difference if they sit side by side, the same human book.

People Boycott Police. For many weeks the correspondent was told, the local police had been subject to a boycott by the townspeople. For a fortnight preceding Thursday's riot the police were ordered to have been fired on from the roofs of a store adjoining the barracks.

Revel Precedes Arson. Accounts of what happened afterward as given to the correspondent by various townspeople follow: The rioters stopped in front of a public house and when the occupants came out, they were ordered to get out, Commissioner Russell begged them not to destroy property.

Many Dressed as Police. Those who came in contact with the rioters said some of them wore long black coats and policemen's caps. Others were dressed in khaki.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

tion church, a subject suggested by the angelic look seen on the face of the martyr Stephen during his trial. "The face of his martyrdom," said Mr. Constant, "was so suffused with the light of truth and love that his countenance was radiant with glory divine. His faith wrought in him a transfiguration. It was the Christ spirit within, glowing outwardly. Stephen's verbal defense of the new faith was powerful, but the silent testimony of his life was stronger than all his arguments. The Master was discerned in his servant."

Announcement that bids for the shipping board property would be received was made to the public last Thursday morning and the closing of bids was set for 4 P. M. Friday.

DR. M'ELVEEN GIVES ANNIVERSARY TALK

Pastor of First Congregational Church Here Year.

Yesterday was anniversary day at the First Congregational church. By floral decorations, extra music and increased attendance the Congregational folk celebrated the coming of their pastor. Exactly to the day a year ago they welcomed Dr. and Mrs. McElveen at the Union station. Dr. McElveen's contribution to the anniversary was a sermon on "The New Church for the New Day." He said in part:

Church Must Keep Pace. "These changes in condition of living and ideas cannot but change the church. Tomorrow is going to be different from today. The church is one of the great formative influences in the making of the coming better civilization. But the church is only one of those directive forces, and the other forces which are changing society will also change the church. The present is marked, then, by a changing church in a changing order. Never has the making of the coming better work that prevailed in your grandmother's day will not suffice for the church of today any more than the tallow dip that she used to light her way to her bed chamber will serve you. You want to press a button and suffuse your room with glaring light. The new needs of the new age cannot be adequately met by the old equipment. Your Chinese laundryman gathers and distributes the family wash in an auto, some of you would condemn the church to the use of a broken-down wheelbarrow."

People Boycott Police. For many weeks the correspondent was told, the local police had been subject to a boycott by the townspeople. For a fortnight preceding Thursday's riot the police were ordered to have been fired on from the roofs of a store adjoining the barracks.

Revel Precedes Arson. Accounts of what happened afterward as given to the correspondent by various townspeople follow: The rioters stopped in front of a public house and when the occupants came out, they were ordered to get out, Commissioner Russell begged them not to destroy property.

Many Dressed as Police. Those who came in contact with the rioters said some of them wore long black coats and policemen's caps. Others were dressed in khaki.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

DR. M'ELVEEN GIVES ANNIVERSARY TALK

Pastor of First Congregational Church Here Year.

RELIGIOUS CHANGE NOTED

Present Age of Progress Applies to Church as Well as Science and Business, Says Preacher.

Yesterday was anniversary day at the First Congregational church. By floral decorations, extra music and increased attendance the Congregational folk celebrated the coming of their pastor. Exactly to the day a year ago they welcomed Dr. and Mrs. McElveen at the Union station. Dr. McElveen's contribution to the anniversary was a sermon on "The New Church for the New Day." He said in part:

Church Must Keep Pace. "These changes in condition of living and ideas cannot but change the church. Tomorrow is going to be different from today. The church is one of the great formative influences in the making of the coming better civilization. But the church is only one of those directive forces, and the other forces which are changing society will also change the church. The present is marked, then, by a changing church in a changing order. Never has the making of the coming better work that prevailed in your grandmother's day will not suffice for the church of today any more than the tallow dip that she used to light her way to her bed chamber will serve you. You want to press a button and suffuse your room with glaring light. The new needs of the new age cannot be adequately met by the old equipment. Your Chinese laundryman gathers and distributes the family wash in an auto, some of you would condemn the church to the use of a broken-down wheelbarrow."

People Boycott Police. For many weeks the correspondent was told, the local police had been subject to a boycott by the townspeople. For a fortnight preceding Thursday's riot the police were ordered to have been fired on from the roofs of a store adjoining the barracks.

Revel Precedes Arson. Accounts of what happened afterward as given to the correspondent by various townspeople follow: The rioters stopped in front of a public house and when the occupants came out, they were ordered to get out, Commissioner Russell begged them not to destroy property.

Many Dressed as Police. Those who came in contact with the rioters said some of them wore long black coats and policemen's caps. Others were dressed in khaki.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

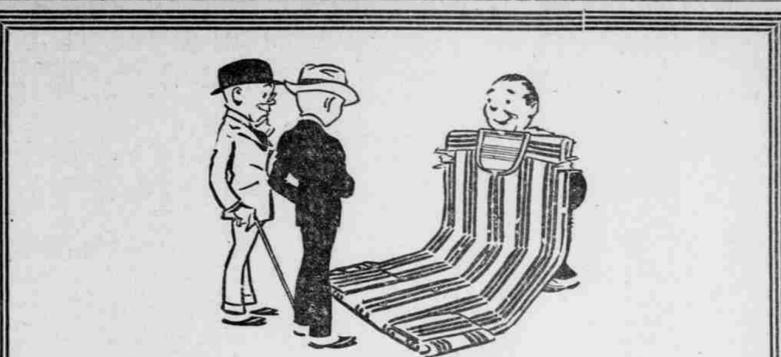

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

At about that time, it was said, a neighbor awakened Thomas Murrice, manager of the Ballyara creamery, whose home stands several hundred yards from the big cooperative plant.

Showing You Today 7050 Shirts

Enjoy the Luxury of a New Sensation—the Most for Your Dollars That You've Seen in Four Years. See the Wonderful Shirt Displays in My Corner Windows! Regular $4 and $5 Shirts $2.95 Three for $8.50 Regular $6 and $6.50 Shirts $3.85 Three for $11 Regular $7.50 to $10 Shirts $4.85 Three for $14 Regular $13.50 to $15 Shirts $6.95 Three for $20 —war tax additional

Whether you're shirted or shirtless, you can't afford to miss this, for it's A Real Shirt Sale! The Main Floor

BEN SELLING Leading Clothier Morrison Street at Fourth

RUTH ROLAND IN "RUTH OF THE ROCKIES" From the novel "Broadway Bab" By Johnston McCulley Produced by Ruth Roland Serial Productions, Inc. If you saw the beginning you will be there today for the second episode. If you missed the beginning you will be there anyway, because: She leaps from the roof of a flying train. She is carried into the air by a plane. She is dropped thousands of feet into a lake. She is surrounded by enemies in the wilds. She slides from the walls of a canyon. She leaps for life across a chasm. DON'T DREAM ADVENTURE LIVE IT! SEE IT! In a Great Pathe Serial HIPPODROME MATINEES ONLY MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY TODAY

$865 PLEDGED TO FUND SUNDAY SCHOOL GIVES TO NEAR EAST RELIEF.

First Christian Church Contribution Largest So Far Made Anywhere in Oregon.

The First Christian church Sunday school pledged $865 for the Near East Relief fund yesterday morning, the largest pledge received up to this time from any Sunday school in the state. The money will be paid at Christmas time.

All Sunday schools in Oregon are being asked to help raise the money for this work this winter. The First Christian church Sunday school has led in contributions for this fund for the last two years. Two years ago the young people pledged $400 and raised $380. Last year the pledge was $700 and the amount paid in was $1255. The school has a membership of about 400.

Automobiles are needed this week for the collection of clothing which will be sent for the relief of the Armenians. The cars are needed to gather contributions from homes and after Wednesday trucks are needed to assist in the work. Anyone who can loan cars, if only for a short time, is asked to call headquarters at Main 212.

SHIP BID ASKED HELD UP

DISPOSITION OF $8,000,000 BOARD PROPERTY PROTESTED. Prospective Buyers Say Sale Was Railroaded; Chamberlain Advises Delay.

Protest against lack of time and an insufficient appraisal given bidders by the division of shipping and sales of the United States Shipping board in the disposal of approximately $8,000,000 worth of government property has resulted in the board headquarters at Washington, D. C. being asked to hold up action for 15 days on the one bid submitted in order that the apparent tangle can be straightened out, it was announced yesterday. The effort to hold up action was taken after a half dozen prospective

CHARLES RAY IN "The Village Sleuth"

Beautiful prologue, Keats on the Giant Organ and Short Subjects of beauty and interest.

PLAYING TODAY Nokoi Automatic Heater Motors and Gas-burners C. C. SCHENCK CO. 405 Spalding Bldg. Main 150 Wdn. 5371

DOLLARS ATTRACT DOLLARS

Advertisement for Northwestern National Bank featuring a large stack of coins and the slogan 'Just as the Magnet Attracts Steel, So Do Dollars Attract Dollars'. Includes text: 'Every time you deposit a dollar in your savings account it becomes lonesome for another dollar to keep it company. Nor does it rest until it gets it. And so on. You've no idea how easy it is to save money—till you've tried. Try TODAY Savings Dept. Ask for Mr. Hoyt THE NORTHWESTERN NATIONAL BANK PORTLAND, OREGON.' and the bank's logo.