CAMPAIGN SLOGANS ARE ONLY FILINGS

Four Aspirants to Contest for STANFIELD FAVOR REPORTED Mayoralty Seat.

George L. Baker, Herbert Gordon, Dan Kellaher and Norman S. Richards Are in Race.

Slogans for candidates in the race for municipal offices were the only filings in City Auditor Funk's office entered the field and as a result four candidates will contest for the office for the two commissionership terms which begin July 1, 1921.

The mayoralty candidates in the present campaign are: Mayor Baker, seking re-election; Herbert Gordon Dan Kellaher and Norman S. Rich-

Socking re-election as commissioners are: John M. Mann, now in charge of the department of public utilities, and A. L. Barbur, commissioner of public works. Opposing these two men are Dr. T. L. Perkins, who served a short term as commissioner and J.
B. Ziegier, a druggist. B. Ziegler, a druggist.

"A business man for mayor, is Herbert Gordon's plea to the voters an designated in his slogan, while Dan Kellaher has resorted to his time-honored appeal for radical votes by a slogan which reads; "Will serve the people, not the interests."

Norman S. Richards has declared for municipal ownership of public utilities, and has taken no chance that the voters will overlook this point, for his slogan reads; "Immediate reduction of car fares, electric light and telephone rates. Municipal ownership." BARGE E. LEONARD DIRECTOR

Head Is Chosen for Mayor Baker's Re-election Campaign.

Barge E. Leonard, attorney, will di-Barge & Leonard, attorney, will di-rect the campaign for the re-election of Mayor Baker. Mr. Leonard was se-lected yesterday by a committee rep-resenting citizens who, through peti-tions recently filed, were responsible for Mr. Baker entering the race for re-election. The committee adopted re-clection. The committee adopted the name "Mayor Baker for Re-elec-tion Committee" and will open offices today at 919 Gasco building preparatory to an aggressive campaign.

The committee was formed soon after Mayor Baker announced that he would run for a second term and since then has been busy with preliminary arrangements. The committee in-cludes many of the city's most prominent citizens who were signers of the lengthy petition filed about two nths ago asking the mayor to seek

The committee, which has sprung from this move, will relieve Mayor Baker from the burden of conducting a campaign. All matters will be han-dled through Mr. Leonard. Mr. Leonard has been a resident of state headquarters.

United States Senator McNary was a visitor at republican state head-quarters yesterday afternoon. Sen-ator McNary offered his services to the state committee for several speeches in the campaign. Senator McNary has been making a tour of the state investigating rivers and harbors and reclamation matters. Wherever he has gone, he said, he found republican spirit rising and republicans actively interested in the state campaign. He found everywhere he went the republican county com-mittees actively at work.
