No Brooklyn or Cleveland Players Called Crooked.

JURY IN SESSION TODAY

Further Action Likely When Prob Into Fixed Games Is Resumed in Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Brooklyn and the Cleveland baseball clubs, contenders in the world series which opens Tuesday, tonight were cleared of any connection with the baseball scandal, so far as evidence presented to the Cook county grand jury is

State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne and his assistant, Hartley Replogle, who is in charge of the baseball inquiry here which already has resulted in the indictment of eight Chicago White Sox players on charges of "throwing" games in last year's series, tonight issued statements declaring that no evidence or testimony in any way implicating any member of the two pennant winners has come before the

The grand jury in New York pre-viously had exonerated the Brooklyn players of any connection with re-ports that attempts had been made to "fix" the 1920 series.

Present Series Cleared,

Mr. Hoyne sent a message to the New York authorities denying reports that he had gathered evidence during his recent eastern trip which indi-cated an attempt to bribe the world series contenders this year. Mr. Replogic said that so far as testimony given before the Cook county grand jury was concerned, "every man on the Brooklyn and Cleveland teams is as innocent as a new born babe and in no way implicated in any baseball scandal, either past or present."

There never has been anything to implicate any one in an attempt to "fix" the series this year, said Mr. Replogle. "Reports to that effect were either deliberate attempts to in-jure baseball or the inaccuracy of reporters who wished to 'make news.' "The evidence given this jury implicates the eight Chicago White Sox players against whom indictments were voted, a number of gamblers and several other baseball players.

"Because of the false reports that we had received evidence that the 1920 saries would be crooked we took up."

The October session of the Cook county grand jury which was sworn in today was charged by Judge Charles McDonald to "carefully investigate" any information concerning baseball gambling which might come before it. This jury, however, In not expected to conduct a separate inquiry but will turn over evidence it may gather to the special session of the baseball inquiry.

Jean Dubuc arrived today and cor-

Mr. Replogle said he had no in-dication that "Sport" Sullivan, against whom an indictment has been voted; Abe Attell and Arnold Rothstein, mentioned in the investigation, planned to come here, as has been reported. He said he hoped to have Attell and Rothstein before the jury before the investigation is concluded Comiskey Rewards Faithful.

Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, today sent checks for $1500 each to the 15 members of last year's team who were not in-volved in the baseball scandal. Letters accompanying the checks stated the money was sent to reimburse the players for the amount they lost whe the White Sox failed to win the 1919 world series. The checks were sent to Ray Schalk,

Byrd Lynn, Urban Faber, Dick Kerr, R. H. Wilkinson, Eddie Collins, John Collins, H. McClellan, Harry Leibold

and E. Murphy. "As one of the honest ball players of the Chicago White Sox of 1919, I feel that you were deprived of the winners' share of the world series receipts through no fault of yours," Comiskey's letters to the players said. "I do not intend that you, as an honest ball player, should be penalized for your honesty or by reason of the dishonestly of others and therefore, the players in handler you 11500 take pleasure in handing you $1500 being the difference between the winner's and the loser's share."
