

SHEPHERD HOPEFUL; MARKET TENDING UP

Demand for Feeder and Breeding Stock Strong.

VALUES ARE ADVANCING

Improvement in Situation in Large Part Due to Confidence in Harding's Election.

There has been a decided improvement in the sheep market recently. Values have advanced with heavy buying and shepherds view the future with confidence. The trading operations of the last month have almost cleared the remaining sections east of the mountains of feeder and breeding stock. The growers ascribe to a little of the improvement to the practical certainty of Mr. Harding's election.

Two months ago sheep values in eastern Oregon and Idaho were nominal. There was no demand, and with no buyers in the field there was no market. The prospect was anything but encouraging to shepherds. Throughout the east and west prices were on the down-grade and the growers faced a winter that seemed to promise serious financial losses.

All this has now been changed and the condition that exists is one of strength. Buying in the sheep count has become brisk, with prices steadily advancing, and the demand for feeders is greater than the supply. The heavy purchasing of breeding ewes demonstrates plainly the confidence of shepherds that the industry is on a sound basis. There is a shortage of sheep, as well as cattle and other livestock, in the country, and when the markets become adjusted to the new economic basis the supply condition should keep prices stable. This readjustment has already taken place in the sheep industry.

Warehouse Man Optimistic.

T. J. Mahoney, general manager of the Columbia Basin Wool Warehouse company, who has just returned from a trip through Idaho, found the sheep market in excellent shape in that state.

"The country is in good physical condition," said Mr. Mahoney. "There was a fine crop and a big hay yield and with feed in abundance the sheep industry has taken on new life. Buying has been very active of late, to such an extent that the feeder lambs have now been almost entirely sold out. Ordinarily a good many feeders are still left unsold at this time of the year.

"Sections like Condon and Heppner do not produce early lambs, but go in for feeders. These have all been cleaned up in these sections in the past two weeks.

"Ten cents a pound is being paid for mixed lambs in the country now. They were selling as low as 8 cents earlier in the season.

"With the lambs gone, the ewers are beginning to move. Two-year-olds were sold at Nampa at 7 cents, which is almost as much as they are bringing in the market.

Ewes in Good Demand.

"Trading in ewes has become very brisk. Two outfits in Harney county sold their ewes, 2700 in one bunch and 2300 in the other, two- and three-year-olds, at $13 a head and several bunches of yearling ewes were sold at $130 to $13 a head. These prices are less than prevailed last year, but considerably more than ewes were selling for recently. Sixty days ago they could not be sold at all.

"A feature of the trading is the demand that has come from Montana for Oregon ewes. Both breeding stock and feeders are wanted at advancing prices throughout the country because of the abundance and reasonable price of feed.

"Stockmen feel that the bottom of the market has been reached and there is everywhere confidence that the sheep situation will further improve."

HOME CARE TO BE TAUGHT

Chehalis Red Cross Chapter Plans Beneficial Teachings.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 5.—(Special)—Chehalis Red Cross chapter, whose list of auxiliaries includes upward of 40 local organizations in Lewis county, has plans about completed for work of a most practical and helpful character. Miss Robertson, trained nurse, who saw active service in Serbia, will have charge of the instruction of a series of classes in home care of the sick.

Classes will be held at various important centers in various parts of the county. Mineral, Morton, and Randle in eastern Lewis county; possibly at Mossyrock, a little further west; Onalaska, Toledo, Winlock, Napavine, Vader in the central and southern part of the county, and at Pe Ell, Dryad, Doty and possibly Klabin in the western part. There will be two classes at Chehalis.

SALE EXTRAORDINARY WHITE ENAMELED WARE
This Sale Affords A Saving of 1/3 to 1/2
—This morning the Basement Housewares Store will launch another Great Sale of White Enamel Ware. Our last event of this kind was a record for crowds and values, but we have been planning for months to make this the greatest sale of Enamel Ware ever held in Portland. This carload came from the best factory in America. Their "seconds" run as well as "firsts" from many other makers. On account of the bulky nature of the goods and great quantity that will be sold, we cannot promise deliveries until the day following purchase. For your guidance the comparative prices quoted are on "firsts."
