The Cleveland players have voted a full share of the portion of the recipts to be divided among them to the widow of Ray Chapman, the shortstop who was killed by a pitched ball in a game between Cleveland and New York in this city.

Cleveland got the jump on Brooklyn by scoring two runs in the second inning. Burns, first man up, hit a high fly, which came down where Konetchy was standing. The wind caught the ball and Konetchy jogged a step forward, then backward, then sidewise, and in the end the ball dropped to the ground. It went as a single. Konetchy picked up the ball and threw to second to feel Burns, but no one was there to double down the left field line.
