Pitching Battle Gives Victory to Brooklyn Club.

CLEVELAND'S HITS DIVIDED

Griffith Spears Savage Smash as Well as Driving in Two of Winner's Scores.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—In a pitching battle between the leading hurlers of the National and American leagues, Burleigh A. Grimes, Brooklyn's spitball are, today shut out Cleveland.

3 to 0, in the second game of the worlds series at Ebbets field. His ability to hold the Indians in check when hits would have meant runs marked his superiority over James C. Bagby, whom Manager Speaker selected to add a second game to the Cleveland string.

The victory, which placed the Superbas alongside Trig Speaker's Indians, was due almost entirely to the excellent hurling of Grimes, who had the heavy-hitting representatives of the punior league buffled throughout the game so far as consecutive bingiling was concerned. With the exception of the sighth inning, when Grimes temporarily lost sight of the home plate, Cleveland never appeared

Cleveland never appeared in the light of a serious contender. The inability of the Indians to connect with Grimes' slants when hits would have meant runs is apparently illustrated by the fact that the Cleveland clan got 14 runners on the bags, of whom ten were stranded and four retired by subsequent plays. The Indians were not without repeated op-of the plate or shot in close to the body of the batter with the result the seven hits of the invaders were so scattered as to be useless in runproducing.

Superbas Make Bingles Count.

Bagby was not as effective in the box as Coveleskie in the opening game, or as his opponent, Grimes, notwithstanding that he delivered less pitches than did the winning hurlet. The Superbas reached his offerings effectively when runners were on bases as compared to the Indians, for of the ten Brooklyn batters to reach first, three scored, three were retired and the remaining four left. The crux of the pitching analysis is shown by the fact that the winners scored through six innings, while Cleveland, with an equal number of swats, was unable to send a run across the plate in nine innings. Chie, who replaced Bagby in the seventh session, provided more of a puzzle to the home combination, the Robins going out on strikes or files in order during the two periods in which he worked.

Indians Show Defense Flash. A flash of the defensive skill of the Indians was shown in the third ses-sion, with Brooklyn at bat. Bagby served up a slow floater to Grimes, sion, with Brooklyn at bat. Bagby served up a slow floater to Grimes, who promptly beppered it into center-field for a single. Olson followed with a bunt which Bagby threw low to second. Wambsganss, in his efforts to hold the ball stooped low over the bag, and Grimes, dashing into the sack, turned a complete somersault over the prostrate infielder. Griffith's double to right scored Grimes and put Olson on third, Bagby purposely passed Wheat and relied on a play on Myers to shate of Gardner, the Indians' third baseman shot it back to O'Neill, forcing out Olson.

O'Neill endeavored to turn the play out Olson, O'Neill endeavored to turn the play into a second out at first, but his throw hit Myers in the back as the latter raced for the initial sack. Johnston was on the job, however, and rushed up the base line, where he picked up the balf and hurled it back to CNeill in time to act to the Cleve innings, i back to O'Neill in time to catch Grif-fith trying to score. O'Neill aided the play by completely blocking the approach to the plate, for which he was roundly booed by the Brooklyn fans. The play was entirely legiti-mate however, and Lymits Consells, and the eighth Grimes by fans. The play was entirely legitlimate, however, and Umpire Connoily, who was behind the plate, paid no attention to the protests of the home rooters.

Brooklyn's other runs were scored without any attendant features.

Jimmy Johnston gave the Brooklyn fans the first real opportunity to cheer when he beat out a single to deep short in the first inning. It proved to be the opening of the first real of second added the second quarter of the run, when he made a clean steal of second and ambied on to third while Griffith was being disposed of at first. Captain Wheat came to the front with a timely hit came to the first, third and fifth, in which innings he made 15, 12 and 19 to score. The three men walked to first, but were series but I felt differently about it. Now that we have come back and series but I felt differently about it. Now that we have come back and series but I felt differently about it. Now that we have come back and the present series. Of these pitches, 14 were being series out confidence in ultimate victory is even greater than before and we never felt that we would not win.

The flow the first two games have satisfied me that the two teams are about as closely matched as two teams of same for the first two game, relying came to the front with a timely hit to center, which sent Johnston across the plate, Wheat, by fast sprinting, making his hit count as a double.

Counted for the other three, making a total of seven pitches.

Grimes threw 48 balls, 31 strikes, 15 foul strikes and five fouls after the pleted the circuit on Griffith's hit.

The attendance, despite an improvement in the weather conditions, did not quite equal the standard set in the opening game. The sky was overcast when Grimes served up his filtrst pitch, a strike on Jamieson, and there was little wind to disconcert the fielders. Although the sun cast only occasional rays on the diamond, the air was warm and without the nipping chill which accompanied Cleveland's victory yesterday. Still there were scattered vacant seats, singly and in pairs, in both the lower and upper stands. The spectators as a whole appeared to view the struggle with apathy, only occasionally giving vent to a concerted foar of approval or encouragement. There was an utter lack of team rooting, while the songs and music, which have made other world series conspicuous from a voal standpoint, were as much missing as during the opening game.

Attendance Drops Off.

The official figures announced by the national commission showed that in both attendance and receipts the the Brooklyns, champions of the National league, walked off the field with a 3 to 0 victory in the second game of the world series. Grimes' spitball tied the backs of the Cieve-landers in knots, while Brooklyn's hitting was timely, the National leaguers getting their hits in clusters when hits meant runs. The contest, aside from Grimes power to puzzle the winners of the American-league pennant at critical times in the struggle, was devoid of sensational features and color, as was the initial battle yesterday. Speaker pulled off another sensational catch in the fourth inning, when he raced far over into Jamieson's territory and hauled down Kilduff's long drive. Right-fielder Griffith starred with a caich off the wall in the seventh, when he captured Sewell's savage smash in a manner somewhat similar to his thrilling handling of Speak-er's drive of Tuesday.

Griffith added to his record as a timely hitter in the fifth, when his single to short sent Olson home with the third and final run of the contest. The Brooklyn shortstop got on by connecting with one of Bagby's fast ones for a single. Brooklyn Has Fight Left. The Brooklyn club gave fair warning in the second game that it has only begun to fight. Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson, with all the elements of fine leadership, has built up a machine that may be outplayed by one that isn't going to crack. Did you know that all through the year Brooklyn only dropped below first or second place once, and that for a brief period lasting only a few days? This is proof enough of the club's steadiness and steadiness which, linked with a great pitching staff, is a mighty factor. As the cast stands now Speaker has only broken even with his two star pitchers on the job, and Robby has broken even, with Sherrod Smith and Jeff Pfeffer in the stable and with Mamaux and Cadore as fresh as ever.

Mails Yet in Reserve. Speaker has Dusty Mails left, but Bagby hasn't been right for over three weeks. So Robinson has all the better of the pitching and yes-terday the rest of his ball club looked SENATORS WIN FROM SEALS a fresh pitching staff left to face one that may soon begin to limp.
