BY TWISTING WIND

Prane Dryer Is Wrecked.

The prune dryer of W. P. Chilcote completely wrecked. The wind blew the building down, and as three furnaces were in operation the debris caught fire. The flames were soon extinguished. The men working when the building fell escaped without injury. The prunes which had been dried were saved from the wrock, but considerable green fruit was damaged.

The Catholic church was torn partly from its foundation, but it is believed it is not seriously damaged A silo belonging to J. W. Miller, former county clerk of Linn county, was blown down.

Five windows in the residence o Lafe Osborn were smarked and the Chilcote barn near the wrecked prune dryer was damaged.

Fruit Trees Uprooted.

Apple, prune and plum trees in va rious orchards were uppooted and the wind and hail which accompanied it damaged considerable fruit. Not far rom Shelburn some large trees were of the state, where high winds of any kind are unusual. All sections of Line county experi-
