Greenman wantonly shot a valuable bird dog which trespassed on his land during a recent hunt, charged Charles V. A. Carter, an attorney, who filed suit in the circuit court yesterday against Greenman demanding damages of $1000 in the name of G. H. Shaw, owner of the animal. The dog in question was an English setter named Sport and was shot by a bird and watch dog, which was shot October 3, 1920. MEETING TO BE HELD IN STRANBOURNE.—A mass meeting will be held in Portland Sunday evening at the Shaarei Torah synagogue at First and Hall streets for much social entertaining before she is wed. Mrs. Thornton Stansfield (Helen Adams) is a lovely blond and social favorite. She has been betrothed to the young Mr. Stansfield for some time. The relatives and friends state, but no announcement was made and no plans had been made for the marriage. The bride left a few days ago to visit in Southern California, where she met by her fiancé and they there and then decided to be married.

YOUNG STANSFIELD WED

PORTLANDER MARRIES MISS HELEN ADAMS IN CALIFORNIA. Surprising News Received as Sister of Groom Tells of Own Engagement. When Miss Elizabeth Stansfield, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joshua Stansfield, was giving a tea yesterday to announce her engagement to Owen Davis of Chicago, telegrams arrived with the news that her brother, Thornton Stansfield, and Miss Helen Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Adams of this city, had been married October 4, in Los Angeles and were honeymooning in Southern California. The news came as a great surprise to the Stansfield and Adams families. Had Miss Stansfield not changed her name a few days ago there might have been a double wedding in the Stansfield family, for the fair bride-elect and her fiancé had planned an elopement and even went so far as to go to the courthouse for a license, which was issued but not used. The couple, however, thought better of it all and arranged to defer the wedding until December. Miss Stansfield is popular among the younger set and doubtless will be the inspiration for much social entertaining before she is wed. Mrs. Thornton Stansfield (Helen Adams) is a lovely blond and social favorite. She has been betrothed to the young Mr. Stansfield for some time. The relatives and friends state, but no announcement was made and no plans had been made for the marriage. ARMY ENGINEERS COMING

THEIR VISIT IS DECLARED IMPORTANT TO PORTLAND. Survey Promises Favorable Report on River Improvement From This City to Ocean. "The coming of the board of United States army engineers that is engaged in an inspection of inland waterways of the Columbia river basin, the engineers will have gained a comprehensive understanding of the great hinterland. With the reclamation of the great area of river alluvial land for which irrigation works are being planned, crop production of the inland Empire will be increased many fold. This makes essential provision for greatly increased transportation facilities, and use of the Pacific coast is rendered more favorable than ever before. Improvements that come within the province of the government. The fact that the board after having made their inspection of the harbor and terminal facilities that have been created here by the engineers of Portland, and the extensive channel work done by the Port of Portland, that the report of the board of engineers will be a commendation in favor of the improvement of the river from Portland to the sea."
