

JUDGING NEAR END AT GRESHAM FAIR

Fine Arts, Needlework Prizes Given Exhibitors.

LOST BOY SENT HOME

Theodore Brugger, Gresham Dairyman, and Son Walk Off With Many Cattle Awards.

GRESHAM, Or., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Cherokee Charles's Wild West show rode to the encouragement of a large and enthusiastic audience last night on the race track at the Multnomah county fair grounds. "High Pockets," who proclaims himself a Pendleton cowboy, rode Buckskin, the bad horse of the Texas show, for two or three jumps and then bit the mud. Like everybody else who has tried to grab the 1100 pound riding more than nine jumps. The buckaroo claimed that the lights frightened the horse. The lights were that he can stick in daylight.

After the crowd filed out last night there still remained a small boy with out hat or coat. Frank Babcock, local stockman, invited him home to a warm bed and learned that his name was Walter Seacrest and that he had traveled on foot and by auto lifts from his home at Beaverton to see the bronchos. This morning his family was notified and Walter started for home in a deputy sheriff's side car.

Fine Arts Judging Ended.
Judging has been completed in the fine arts department. In the portrait, Maxwell Schneider of Gresham had all the honors. Dr. A. W. Tokkin, Gresham's physician, won two blue ribbons on his portrait in oil painting. Other winners in oil painting were Mrs. H. C. Compton of Boring, Mrs. T. Lusted and Roy Kane of Fairview.

Mrs. Genevieve Barnes of Portland has an excellent exhibit of china painting on which she won many honors. Estelle Thomas, 11-year-old schoolgirl, made a noteworthy exhibit of china. Her designing was especially good.

Needlework Ribbons Awarded.
Mrs. L. E. Silverstein of Portland took most of the ribbons on the needlework. Vivien Hevel, Gresham high school student, was awarded many premiums on her exhibit of canned fruit, in competition with several experienced canners.

The livestock parade was run off at noon, the exhibitors leading their own champions and grand champions around the race track. Twelve of the annual banquet of fair board directors, exhibitors and concessionaires occurs in the dining hall on the grounds. Today's attendance was the largest of the week. The horse races are attracting many people from Portland and Vancouver.

Theodore Brugger, Gresham dairyman, won most of the honors on Brown Swiss cattle, taking two grand championships, three champions, nine blue ribbons and three seconds. His young son, Melvin Brugger, took one second and two fourth awards on his Oxfordshire sheep.

SUN SHINES ON COUNTY FAIR

Mud at Race Track Dried Up; Big Crowds Attracted.

Sunshine smiled on the Multnomah county fair grounds at Gresham yesterday, dried up a portion of the mud on the race track and brought out the crowds in greater numbers. The fair management plans to handle between 10,000 and 12,000 people today. The prettiest, smallest, fattest and all the rest of the different kinds of babies will compete at 3 o'clock this afternoon for eight prizes offered in the baby show, which is under the direction of Mrs. Edith Tozier Wetherred.

More than 6000 persons were on the grounds yesterday, many of them attending the horse races. The winners: 213 trot—L. A. Passa, first; Zomel, second; J. W. S., third; Howard's Comet, fourth. Time, 2:18.
219 pace—Baronade, first; Gresham Boy, second; Little Alexis, third; Alexander, fourth; Prize, fifth. Time, 2:20.
Seven furlongs—tertrade, first; Miss Sovereign, second; Miss Creighton, third. Time, 1:34.
One mile—Louis Lackmond, first; Reebster, second; Gratitude, third. Time, 1:30.
As the field was drier than previously the horses started much better and made excellent time.

Many women visiting the main pavilion have been charmed by the beautiful articles in art department. There is a whole case of hand-decorated pottery made from Oregon clay. There are beautiful pieces of china in the new Persian designs. Mrs. Weathered has on exhibition a large section of kapa, cloth made in Hawaii from the bark of the mulberry tree.

Among the visitors at Gresham yesterday were A. H. Lea, secretary of the state fair board, and W. H. Savage of Corvallis, one of the directors. An address was made during the afternoon by Thomas H. Hayes, independent candidate for United States senator.

The poultry exhibit is larger than at the state fair and the largest part of it was furnished by this county. Among the Portland exhibitors receiving ribbons were H. J. Hamlet, Joe Cordano, A. J. Raney, Coo A. McKenna, J. P. Limerick, R. C. Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Emert, Paul Schwelbe and L. W. Weisenborn. Washington county was represented by a good string of chickens and turkeys from the yards of Walter Ross-worth of Forest Grove. Some of the showy Rhode Island Reds were from the Lane county farm of E. J. Watts. Clackamas county had a large display of Polish and Hamburgs entered by Mrs. Bertha M. Story of Oregon City.

LEAGUE HELP PROMISED

WILL HAYS FAVORS SPREAD OF RESERVATIONS TEXT.

Republican Chairman Accedes to Request of Democrats for Distributing Document.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—According to a recent request by Chairman White of the democracy national committee, Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, yesterday wrote Mr. White that he and the republican organization "would be glad to help distribute the text of the league of nations covenant."

Mr. Hays said he also would favor disseminating the text of reservations proposed by Senator Lodge. Mr. Hays' letter in part follows: "To acquaint the voters of the country with the truth about the Wilson league of nations has been the earnest effort of the republican organization ever since the administration took over the cables, which kept the country from knowing anything about the development of the covenant. We will, of course, be glad to do anything further possible, with you or separately, as we are doing, to that end."

"May I further suggest that we make an effort in some way to ascertain and advise the country just what the president promised Europe that this country would do, which may not be in the text of the covenant. Won't you find out just what this was, and let it be known to the country, also. Governor Cox has promised to make good these pledges whatever they may be."

WASHINGTON PARTY FILES

HOQUIAM, Wash., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The farmer-labor party filed its list of nominees for the county ticket in Grays Harbor county with the auditor Wednesday. The list includes some of those nominated at the convention here September 14, but, in addition, names to take the places of those who did not qualify.

The nominees are: Harry Livermore, Hoquiam, representative, 30th district; Charles Olson, Elma, and W. L. Brackner, Aberdeen, representatives 29th district; George Fitzhenry, Aberdeen, sheriff; Mrs. W. L. Crass, the American Library association and Elma, treasurer; R. C. Young, Montesano, coroner; F. R. Craig, Satsop, assessor; John Platz, Elma, commissioner first district; E. E. Finkel, The Burn, commissioner third district; Charles Richardson, Justice, Aberdeen; John Cope, Justice, Hoquiam.

Miss Kostomlatsky has resigned as acting head of the public library and will leave Portland early in December. She submitted her resignation, she stated yesterday, because she needs rest. She will pass the winter with her sister in southern California and has no other plans for the immediate future.

W. L. Brewster, a member of the board of directors of the library, who is going east in a few days, will look into the question of a successor.

Although Miss Kostomlatsky had not asked for an increase in salary, the board recently granted her the same salary which was paid the late Miss Mary Frances Isom, declared Richard W. Montague, chairman of the administration committee, yesterday. The increase was made retroactive to May 1 of this year, when the executive work of handling the library was given to Miss Kostomlatsky.

"Miss Kostomlatsky's resignation had nothing whatever to do with the question of salary," declared Mr. Montague yesterday.

Miss Kostomlatsky came to Portland in July, 1918, just six weeks before Miss Isom left for France. She came here to be assistant librarian from Seattle, where she had been head of the circulation department. She was in charge of the library during Miss Isom's work in France with the American Library association and has been in charge of the executive work since Miss Isom's death in the early spring.

CHEHALIS MINE CLOSED

Drifting Sands Cause Final Decision to End Further Operations.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—It has been definitely decided by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company not to make any further attempt to reopen the old shaft of the Superior coal company mine here which the Portland concern was operating under lease. Drifting sand that blocked the outlet of the mine at the foot of the main shaft and which brought trouble off and on for some time caused the decision.

Owing to the closing of the mine 45 men are thrown out of work and a monthly payroll running into many thousands of dollars is temporarily lost to the community. The local fuel situation is being met by shipping coal into town, something unheard of before. The price is a stiff advance over that paid when local mines were running.

SENATOR VISITS TOLEDO

TOLEDO, Or., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Senator George E. Chamberlain arrived here by boat from Newport last night after spending the entire day inspecting Yaquina bay harbor improvement work. Speaking to an open meeting in the court house, the senator expressed his determination to assist his colleagues in working for the completion of the west harbor improvements.

He also emphasized at length need of national, state and county cooperation road improvement, mentioning particularly the need of a coast highway of the Roosevelt type. The labor situation and our duty and obligation to the returned soldiers were also discussed at length. The senator departed on the noon train for points east.

419 Eggs From 20 Hens In 30 Days

Mr. Dougherty got This Result in October. Plan is Easily Tried.

"I tried Don Sung and the results were past my expectations. I got 419 eggs in 30 days from 20 hens while making the time in November. Figure his profit on 35 dozen eggs from hens that formerly laid little or nothing. This may sound too good to be true, but it costs nothing to find out. We'll make you the same offer we made him. Give your hens Don Sung and you'll see the results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs and gets the hen's system in shape how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
