What men expect from the shoes

There are five qualities informed men now require in their shoes. Men instinctively look for these qualities. The shoe that emphasizes any one of these five qualities to the exclusion of any other one is bound to be unsatisfactory. The shoe that combines these five qualities in exactly the proper degree-WEARS well, has STYLE, combines every day COM-FORT with real PROTECTION against slush and weather and provides all at the right PRICE-is the WASHINGTON DRY SOX shoe.

Observe the cut-away diagram-especially note the materials used. These have been selected for their stability and long-wearing qualities; and they are put together in such a craftsmanlike manner that the protection they afford against weather, rain and slush is practically perfect. They also have snappy style and are down-right comfortable. And these desirable qualities are all combined at a price that makes Washington Dry Sox Shoes most economical to buy.

Different lines of activity require different kinds of shoes. So the Washington Dry Sox Shoe is made in a number of styles and weights. If you are one of the growing number of men who demand weather protection when they buy shoesif you want shoes with style and comfort that will wear longall at an economical price, take the time to thoroughly examine a pair of Washington Dry Sox Shoes-it will pay you-that we
